MEMORIAM

I stood on the bridge one morning
As the hurrying throngs passed by
And my cheeks were kissed by sunshine
That streamed from God's own sky.

As I looked on the hills beyond me
My throbbing heart was filled
With gratitude and gladness
That never can be stilled.

God's sunshine softly whispered
To the sunshine of my soul
"I am the symbol of the Light of Glory
That will ever and ever unfold".

Life's bridges are all before us
And we cross them one by one
Let us cross them bearing Love and Service
Till that glorious Sunshine is won.
