PORTLAND STATE UNIVERSITY

Portland State University serves as a center of opportunity for nearly 24,000 students and a cornerstone for more than 200,000 alumni worldwide. The strength of the University is its world-class faculty, who serve the University and the community through teaching, research and public service.

Research at Portland State has more than doubled in the past decade, achieving new degrees of excellence through investments such as the $24 million National Institutes of Health (NIH) research and training grant that will fund the Enhancing Crossdisciplinary Infrastructure Training at Oregon (EXITO) program. Portland State contributes an annual impact of $1.44 billion to the regional economy.

Located in Portland, one of the nation's most livable cities, the University's innovative approach to education combines academic rigor in the classroom with field-based experiences through internships and classroom projects with community partners.

The University's 50-acre downtown campus exhibits a commitment to sustainability with many Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) certified buildings, while many of the more than 200 bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees incorporate sustainability into the curriculum. PSU's motto, "Let Knowledge Serve the City," inspires the teaching and research of an accomplished faculty whose work and students span the globe.

HISTORY

Portland State University opened in 1946 as the Vanport Extension Center to meet the educational needs of veterans home from World War II. The first campus was a portion of Vanport, a wartime housing project that was destroyed by a flood in 1948 when a dike broke along the Columbia River.

The campus was moved to north Portland in the fall of 1948, and in 1949 the Oregon Legislature made "Vanport College" permanent. Three years later, the campus moved to its present location along downtown Portland's South Park Blocks, occupying the former Lincoln High School building. It was then known as the Day Division of the Portland State Extension Center.

The Legislature created Portland State College as a four-year, degree-granting institution in 1955. Graduate work was added in 1961, doctoral programs began in 1968 and the institution became Portland State University in 1969.

The University has grown from an initial enrollment of 1,410 students in 1946 to become Oregon's most diverse and innovative public urban research university.

ACADEMIC COSTUME

One of the most colorful features of the academic procession is the appearance of graduates, faculty, and guests of the University in full academic costume. The design of the gown; the color of the tassel on the cap; and the pattern, length and colors of the hood all have long histories and special significance.

American universities, unlike those of England and Europe, have adopted a standard code of academic costume. According to the code, the bachelor's gown worn by Portland State University graduating seniors has straight sleeves and is worn closed. Gold, silver and green cords are worn by honors graduates. The master's gown has long, pointed sleeves with the forearm being seen through a slit at the elbow of the sleeves. The doctor's gown is faced with velvet and has bell-shaped sleeves. Each sleeve carries three bars of velvet. The tassel on the cap indicates by color the college or school conferring the degree.

In addition to the cap and gown, candidates for advanced degrees wear the academic hood, the traditional garment signifying high scholarly attainment. The doctoral hood carries the colors of the college or school conferring the degree on the outside and PSU's colors of green and white on the inside.

One legend, which deals with the origin of the cap and gown, reveals that a venerable teacher in ancient Greece promised wealthy parents that their sons would be "appropriately dressed" when presented at a banquet honoring the completion of their academic studies. However, when the young men entered the banquet hall dressed in simple sackcloth robes and carrying mortar boards, the mark of common workmen, a startled cry arose from the audience. "Let me explain," said the teacher as he raised his hands for silence. "Your sons are dressed in clothing of the mason, for their destiny is to build. Some will build cities, some will build lives — perhaps one of them may even build an empire. But all will be builders on the solid foundation of knowledge."

Chang received his doctorate in Geography from Penn State University and a Master's and Bachelor's of Geography from Seoul National University. He has collaborated on nearly $7 million in research and is the author or co-author of 150 peer-reviewed journal articles, 21 book chapters, and 13 conference papers contributing to water sustainability at multiple scales for developing climate adaptation strategies. Chang was recognized by Reuters as one of the world's top 1,000 climate scientists and the World's most-cited and the top 2% researchers within their discipline areas since 2020. In recognition of his outstanding scholarly achievements, the American Association of Geographers (AAG) awarded him the E. Willard and Ruby S. Miller Award in 2022.

MARY H. CUMPSTON AWARD FOR SERVICE TO STUDENTS

Lynell Spencer, M.S.E. (2015)

LYNELL SPENCER, M.S.E. is the advising director for the Urban, Public, and Global Affairs Pathway. She is an alumna of Portland State, having earned both a Master's degree in Educational Leadership and Policy and a Bachelor of Science in Communication Studies as a first-generation transfer student.

Spencer works directly with students, faculty, advisors, and other campus leaders to coordinate and implement initiatives promoting student success. As part of this work, she has conducted research on the impact of direct funding to populations at risk of not persisting. Additionally, she was instrumental in establishing and instituting the EAB Early Alerts program, which allows faculty to identify at-risk students and gives staff across the university an opportunity to intervene and support those students. In her decade of service at PSU, she has transitioned through many roles, but through it all, student success and completion has remained a constant focus.

In her nomination letter, Spencer's nominators state that "she is able to hold space for students with concerns or who are struggling while also maintaining the integrity of the programs and education that they are taking part in. Lynell strives every day to use her influence to better the student experience, and through Early Alerts, as well as her daily interactions with students and staff, she has found ways to have a powerful and meaningful impact on the lives of students."

*The Mary H. Cumpston Award for Service to Students is given annually to an academic professional or university administrator, without rank, who has demonstrated excellence in the area service to students. I now have the opportunity to graduate college at Portland State University. This program has given me the chance to have a normal life, to be a change to show other inmates if I can do it, so can they."

STUDENT SPEAKERS

Ron Janus Acob

RON JANUS ACOB is graduating with a Bachelor's of Science in Architecture. He is pursuing a career in this field because it is a discipline of creative design thinking and problem-solving within the built environment. It will also allow him to learn from and collaborate with different users, groups, and communities he is a part of through design and create responsive and meaningful architecture.

Acob spent his early childhood in the Philippines and moved with his family to pursue better opportunities in the United States. He credits his mother as a role model for being hard-working, passionate, and goal-driven, as she has taken on both parent roles as a single mom and worked many menial jobs to raise a family. He has also observed the sacrifice and challenges his mother faced. This lived experience gave him the drive to pursue higher education and his goals, and he recognized that he has a platform to uplift the socio-economic conditions of families and communities with similar backgrounds and narratives.

In the past four years, Acob has been a student leader in Kaibigan, the Filipino American Student Organization at PSU, participated in Leadership Fellows, and interned at The Center of Public Interest Design. His most memorable experience at Portland State University is being cast as a lead in a musical called Re-presented, despite having no previous experience in singing, dancing, and acting. After graduating from PSU, he plans on taking a gap year in his education and focusing on working for community development and non-profit organizations to learn further and expand his experience in community design. In addition, he hopes that this experience will help him develop a more significant focus within the field of architecture before attending graduate school.

Acob wants to give his parents a big salamat (thank you) for supporting his goals and aspirations and for being prime examples of determination and hard work. He also wants to thank his professors, mentors, advisors, friends, scholarship donors and the community who have played a role in his growth and success.

Isabella Medina Corey

ISABELLA MEDINA COREY is graduating with a Bachelor's of Fine Arts in Graphic Design. Her college experience was made possible by Lois Rice, Carl Saltveit, the Federal Pell Grant, the Oregon Opportunity Grant, the Transfers Finish Free program, Murmur Graphic Design Scholarship, as well as friends, family, and mentors like you. After moving to Portland from Corvallis, Corey began studying design at Portland Community College and continued her education here at PSU. She is a queer Colombian-Oregonian designer and photographer whose work is inspired by protest posters, bright colors, and Spanglish phrases. After graduation, she will begin making and organizing creative projects in Seattle, Washington.

Patricia Nicole Pahinag

PATRICIA NICOLE PAHINAG is a first-generation college student graduating with a Bachelor's of Arts in Film and a minor in Theater Arts. Born in Manila, Philippines, raised on the beautiful island of Oahu, Hawai'i, and now settled in the Pacific Northwest, Pahinag's environment and diverse cultural experiences have been a constant influence in her creative work and values. She credits her family for the sacrifices, hard work, and determination that have motivated her to pursue higher education.

Her passion for the arts has consistently pushed her to take on any opportunity to be involved in as many projects as possible, taking on many different roles in tech and performance, and learning as many skills as she can. Looking for a home away from home, she became heavily involved in student leadership with the Filipino American Student Association (Kaibigan), the Pacific Islanders Club (PIC), and Leadership Fellows. Throughout her four years at PSU, she helped coordinate events, took lead in the video production of both organizations, designed the lighting for several shows, performed in a musical and PIC's annual Lu'au, and many other activities. Additionally, her determination extends beyond campus, working as a freelance filmmaker in the commercial and independent film industry. She hopes to use her platform to amplify the voices and stories of the AAPI community.

What's next? Pahinag will continue her freelance journey working as a cinematographer, assistant camera, and videographer in the commercial and independent film industry. She would like to extend her gratitude to her friends, family, peers, instructors, advisors, colleagues, and many more who have played a significant role in her growth and success throughout the years.

Jonathan Villegas

JONATHAN VILLEGAS is graduating with a Master's degree in Music for Cello Performance under the instruction of Hamilton Cheifetz. During their time at PSU, Villegas also served as the Graduate Teaching Assistant and Assistant Conductor to the PSU Orchestra, Bands, and Opera. A native to Houston, Texas, Villegas moved to Oregon in 2019, and since then has performed with several regional orchestras and other artistic organizations throughout the Pacific Northwest as a cellist, conductor, actor, and performer.

As a cellist, Villegas has performed with North State Symphony, Rogue Valley Symphony, and often performs as a soloist and chamber musician throughout Portland giving lecture-recitals and various other diverse performances. At PSU, he also served as the Event Coordinator to the String Ensemble Community Outreach program, or SECO, which is a foundation that serves to bring PSU music students to give recitals and share live music to historically underrepresented venues and audiences.

As a conductor, they served as the Assistant Conductor to the PSU Symphony Orchestra, Wind Symphony, University Band, PSU Opera, and also works as a substitute conductor for the Metropolitan Youth Symphony. Additionally, as an educator Villegas has assisted with several collegiate classes at PSU in Music Education and strings pedagogy, and has an active private studio of Violin, Viola, and Cello students throughout Portland. He also teaches Music Theory at Portland Youth Philharmonic and will be returning this summer to work as the Front of House Manager for Chamber Music Northwest. Villegas also was recently cast as the lead in VOZ ALTA's production of "Ahí Vamos! The story of David Martinez," which is an organization that features storytelling projects that features the personal lives of Portland's Latino community through interwoven narrative and live music.

Following graduation, Villegas will attend the Peabody Conservatory at Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, Maryland, for a Master's in Wind Conducting with Dr. Harlan Parker, as a recipient of their Artistic Excellence Scholarship.

Villegas would like to express their immense gratitude to God, and all the faculty, staff, family, and friends that have kept him grounded and so inspired these past two years. To the faculty that supported them from the very beginning, your empathy and artistry has created a model for exemplary musicianship and professionalism. The colleagues and friends have all given Villegas the positivity to never give up on themselves, to fearlessly follow their dreams, and to always give it their absolute best at all times, especially in music. And lastly, to their family, your love throughout their life has brought them to this day with great pride and gratitude in being Latino and queer.

STUDENT SPEAKER

Carly Inga Itami

CARLY INGA ITAMI (she/her) is a fourth generation Oregonian native from Molalla. She received her Bachelor's degree in Science with a Genetics focus in 2018 from Portland State University. Itami is married to her partner Nicholas Itami, and together they are the bereaved parents of Evelyn June (d. Oct. 20, 2011) and Mary Grace (b. Nov. 7, 2013, d. Jan. 3, 2014). The Itami family brought Hope Marylyn into their family in January 2015, followed by Nickson Ray in January 2017, and Kenji Owen in April 2023. Itami believes wholeheartedly in community care and support of families. Her passions for foster care system reform and child abuse and neglect prevention come from experiencing her own child loss, as well as from her experience as a former kinship placement.

Today, because of her faith and determination, Itami will be graduating with a Master's in Social Work after completing the 3-year Master's of Science in Social Work with Internship program that placed Itami at the Raphael House of Portland where she became a Domestic Violence Advocate, and at Oregon Health and Science University in the Fetal Care Clinic under the supervision of supporter Haley Atherton MSW, LCSW and the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit under the supervision of mentor BreAnna Dupuis LCSW, PMH-C.

THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

STUDENT SPEAKER

Jorda Harlow

JORDA HARLOW, a first-generation college student, is graduating from Portland State University with a Bachelor's of Science degree in Business, specializing in Marketing. Her journey was shaped by her experiences in the foster care system until she was adopted by Brian and Helen Harlow. Despite the challenges, Harlow excelled academically, defying the statistics showing that only 3% of foster youth graduate from college. Her success was guided by values of kindness, empathy, and hard work instilled by her parents.

At PSU, Harlow embraced opportunities beyond academics. She actively participated in the American Marketing Association, leading case studies and recruitment efforts. As a School of Business peer ambassador, she shared her knowledge and supported fellow students. She also showcased her business acumen by co-hosting the podcast "Talk Business with Me," engaging in insightful conversations with industry professionals, faculty, and students.

Harlow's story exemplifies resilience, determination, and commitment to both personal and professional growth. Equipped with her PSU degree and acquired skills, she enters the business world, poised to make a positive impact. Her triumphs inspire others, and she expresses gratitude to her parents, brothers, sisters, friends, mentors, and professors for their unwavering support, recognizing that empowerment and support drive meaningful change.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT AND COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Lionel Clegg

LIONEL CLEGG is a 24-year veteran teacher in the Portland Public School District. He has served his entire career as an educator at his alma mater, Woodlawn Elementary School. During his tenure at the school he has taught at various grade levels, but the majority of his years have been spent teaching first grade. While at Woodlawn, Clegg started a weekly boys mentoring program called Boys of Distinction. He also taught parenting classes through The Black Parent Initiative. Clegg was an adjunct faculty member at Marylhurst University where he taught preservice and practicing teachers. He appeared in many episodes of Inside Woodlawn, a two-year series produced by KGW that documented the teachers, students and community of Woodlawn. It was from this series that he gained national attention and was recognized for his teaching and promoting equality in education when he was spotlighted on a segment of the Today Show. In 2021, Clegg was named OnPoint's Elementary Educator of the Year. Clegg feels that teaching is his purpose and each time he walks into the classroom he knows that it is an opportunity to help support and lead the students in his community.

STUDENT SPEAKERS

Catherine Marquez

AS A FIRST GENERATION student from Chino, Calif., Catherine Marquez is graduating with Bachelor's of Science in History and Social Science.

Marquez is driven by her unwavering belief in the significance of gender, ethnic, and queer studies within the fabric of history. She is deeply committed to shining a light on the often overlooked narratives that shape our collective past. By doing so, Marquez hopes to contribute to a more inclusive and compassionate society.

She is honored and humbled to graduate from Portland State, and hopes to continue her education at PSU to pursue a graduate degree in history in order to become a professor. Although Marquez's academic career at PSU has been a challenging journey, it is also one of the most rewarding experiences and she cherishes those experiences as she looks toward the next step in her academic journey.

Further, her passion in education is fueled by the labor of her family and a desire to represent the capabilities and drive within her community. The haunting statistics around Latinas with masters and doctoral degrees lies within the barriers inflicted upon Marquez's community, and she is grateful for the privileges she has experienced to complete an undergraduate degree and venture further, despite the conditions placed against the Latina community.

Looking ahead, Marquez's aspirations lie in a career that merges her passion for history and social sciences. She aims to make a meaningful difference by fostering a more inclusive world where every individual's story is heard and valued.

Chioma Njoku

AFTER 6 YEARS of law school and 1 year of practice, Chioma Njoku decided a career in law was not for her. Motivated by her undergraduate thesis exploring mental health laws in Nigeria, she started considering the possibility of a career in public health communication. In 2021, she arrived at PSU as an international student from Nigeria. Today, she is graduating with a Master's of Science in Communication. In the last two years, she has increasingly fallen in love with health communication and environmental sustainability.

In addition to her role as a graduate assistant, Njoku was dedicated to serving her fellow students at PSU. She served as a student government leader and international student mentor. She also volunteered at the PSU Food Pantry and Student Sustainability Center and is grateful for the opportunity she had to grow at PSU. She came, she saw and she conquered.

After graduating, Njoku hopes to gain practical experience before pursuing further graduate education in public health or health communication. She is thankful to her family and friends, especially the ones at home in Nigeria, for all their support throughout her program and is glad for the opportunity to make them proud.

Robin Morris Collin

ROBIN MORRIS COLLIN has served on the Governor’s Racial Justice Council of Oregon as co-chair of the Environment and Equity Committee, Chair of the Oregon Commission For Women, and Oregon Commission For Black Affairs, and she was the founding chair of the Oregon Environmental Justice Task Force.

Throughout her long career, Collin has combined scholarship, service, and activism in the areas of Sustainability, Environmental Justice and Energy. Her work and service demonstrate a unique ability to conceptualize contemporary challenges and develop equitable solutions with a broad perspective including law, government, and business partnerships at federal and state levels.

“Throughout her career, Ms. Collin has worked tirelessly to ensure vulnerable communities – particularly communities of color – are not disproportionately impacted by pollution, waste disposal, hazardous sites and natural disasters, and other problems,” said Senator Jeff Merkley of Oregon.

She will join EPA’s senior leadership after 38 years as a professor of law she retires Professor Emerita after professorships at four major law schools, Tulane Law School, McGeorge School of Law, University of Oregon, Willamette University College of Law and visitorships at Washington & Lee Law School, Pepperdine Law School.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

David and Christine Vernier

DAVID AND CHRISTINE VERNIER met at Ohio State University, lived in Cleveland, and then moved to Oregon in 1973. At the time, David was a high school physics teacher and Christine was a social worker. They founded Vernier Software (now Vernier Science Education) in 1981, producing software, sensors, books, and lab equipment for science teachers. The company continues today and now employs more than 100 people and has customers in 140 countries. Both are still active in the company.

Christine served as a member of the Portland State University Board of Trustees from 2013 to 2021. David and Christine have served on many other local non-profit boards, including Oregon

Public Broadcasting, the Oregon Chapter of The Nature Conservancy, OMSI, The Library Foundation, Planned Parenthood, and the All Hands Raised Advisory Council. David and Christine were honored to receive the Simon Benson Award for Philanthropy from PSU in 2014.

In 2015, the Verniers established endowed scholarships for first generation STEM and social work students attending PSU. Christine and David are especially pleased to be lead sponsors of the new Vernier Science Center at Portland State, which will provide new lab and classroom space and special features to encourage more students of color and indigenous students to pursue science careers.
