Safeway Continues Fair Hiring Policy

Mrs. Verna Smith was referred to Safeway, Inc. by the Industrial Relations Department of the Urban League, and was subsequently hired after passing a series of tests. It was felt by Jim Frazier, Industrial Relations Director of the Urban League, that Mrs. Smith was an outstanding applicant. He said, "She possessed all the necessary skills and qualifications, and she should be an asset to the Safeway chain."

Mrs. Smith was hired at the Union Avenue store on April 27.

Low-Rent Project To Be Restudied

The Housing Authority of Portland was requested Tuesday to halt all operations in connection with the proposed Daisy Williams low-rent public housing project until the Portland Planning Commission can finish a study it is now making in relation to the project.

The request, directed to all the housing commissioners by the Greater Portland Council of Churches Commission on Christian Social Concerns, appears to have been ignored by the Housing Authority at its meeting Tuesday night. Executive director Gene Rossman has stated the matter was "not on the agenda." The Church commission had made a special effort to get the matter before the commissioners prior to the meeting.

Dr. Robert Bonthus, chairman of the Council commission, said the request was for the reason that the Planning Commission study would be the most inclusive study ever undertaken for the long-range development of Portland. The study is particularly centered in the northeast section, including Albina, and was begun at a request of Mayor Terry Schrunk. It is expected to be completed in about two months.

The church council commission request came after a study in which consultation was had with the Housing Authority and with the Urban League, NAACP and other groups which are opposing the project.

NAACP Asks Fred Meyer Boycott

Minister's Supports Boycott

In a special call meeting, some fifteen ministers of the Albina Ministerial Association voted unanimously to support the Fred Meyer boycott instituted by the NAACP and to urge their members and friends not to buy at the Fred Meyer stores.

The Portland Branch of the NAACP began negotiations with Fred Meyer Stores, Inc., in December, 1961. At that time the personnel manager advised that plans were underway to hire their first Negro employee. However, he would not advise in what capacity. Subsequently, a Negro man was hired at the Walnut Park Fred Meyer store on Killingsworth and Union Ave. Shortly thereafter a Negro woman was hired at the same store. Both these employees were hired for Eve's Restaurant (the woman by her own request) and are not too much in evidence.

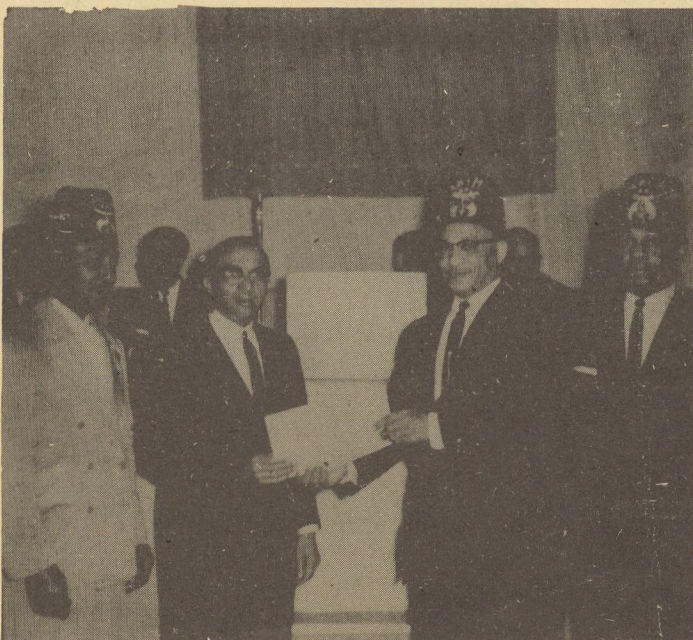

We were promised Negro checkers would be hired during the customary spring upsurge in business. Contact has continued with the management and to date it appears stymied.

The Portland Branch is now suggesting an economic boycott of all Fred Meyer Stores in Portland until further notice. There may be a necessity for a picket at some future date.

Negotiations will continue but we solicit your immediate cooperation by urging all your members and friends to refrain from buying at Fred Meyer Stores. We urge all citizens to buy where equal opportunities are available to all people. Your cooperation is urgently requested.

Mr. Henry A. Talbert, Western Regional Director, National Urban League.

A warm reception was given Henry A. Talbert, western regional director of the National Urban League, as he addressed the 17th annual meeting of the Urban League of Portland Tuesday night on the topic "New Horizons in Race Relations."

An appreciative crowd filled the banquet tables in the Portland Police Athletic Association building as Talbert, a leading authority in matters of social work and race relations spoke in a quiet, yet authoritative voice of the progress of non-whites in fields of labor, education, transportation and population increase, and the shifting of the same in cities.

Student drop-outs, the speaker pointed out, can be perilous in this day of automation. He strongly advised education as a means to gain employment in limited fields. He received a hearty ovation at the conclusion of the speech.

Special awards for participation in a series of UL Incentive Clinics, held in several schools, were presented to Mmes. Angie Davis and Margaret Van Thiel, Miss Donna Helzer, Richard Payne and Arnold Kam. Mrs. Ineta Evans was cited for obtaining 33 UL members and awards for 100 per cent UL membership were given to representatives of the Royal Esquire Club, Jack and Jill of America, Rosebud Study Club, Kwanzan Club, The Links, Culture Club and the Modes Royale Social Club. Dr. DeNorval Unthank, president-elect, presented the citations.

A special presentation was made to E. Shelton Hill, the League's executive director, by the Mina Temple Shriners, with officers Thomas Vickers, Benjamin Robinson and L. C. Ellison making the award.

Miss Gail Strong, Portland State College student, rendered two beautiful vocal selections. The annual meeting chairman, H. L. Belton Hamilton, introduced speaker Talbert. Dr. E. Kimbark MacColl, UL president, presided.

EDITORIAL

Branches of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People throughout the country have been called upon to step up their drive against discriminatory employment practices in their respective communities.

Citing a recent resolution adopted by the Association's Board of Directors, NAACP Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins this week sent letters to 1500 local NAACP units urging them "to intensify their efforts to break down discrimination in employment" and to be prepared to make a report on their activities by June 15.

Mr. Wilkins' communication outlined the following steps for action by the branches:

1. Investigate the employment practices of local businesses, retail establishments, industries, breweries and other manufacturing concerns to determine their hiring practices.
2. Conduct a marketing survey to determine the amount of Negro business enjoyed by these concerns.
3. Negotiate with the owners and managers of local companies which discriminate against Negro workers, insisting that a representative number of non-white employees be hired. Include the representatives of organized labor and the unions which have agreements with these companies in your negotiations.
4. Publicize your protest and state your intentions of withholding patronage if these concerns do not change their practices.

Sad Sam Jones, now of the Detroit Tigers, has tossed 17 shut-outs in his Major league career, more than any other active Negro pitcher. Jones, who includes one no-hitter among his gems, trails the American League shutout king, Early Wynn who has thrown 46 runless games in a much longer career.

Letters to Editor

Dear Jimmy:

Was happy to get your latest edition of Northwest Defender. Really a good "sheet". More than happy that the kid from Vallejo made good. Does my heart good to see that kids from the back-sticks can pull up their boot laces and climb to higher levels.

Put us on your exchange and I will do likewise. Want to see how you are progressing.

I see you are still in the fight game. Take good care of yourself. Things seem to be happening in that profession that warrants special attention to those in it.

I'm still editor of The Sun-Reporter. Can't seem to leave the place. Printer's ink gets into ones veins and just stay ther. We have recently transposed our operation to photo-offset and it's working the pants off me. Looks good, but many long and strenuous hours spent in making it so.

We are also planning to move into our new $350,000 building and that too is a pain in the tale.

See your paper is off-set. It looks very clean. Who does the make-up?

Keep up the good work and let us hear fro myou.

Your friend
Edith Austin

Democrats Show County Increase

The State Elections Division said Monday 854,102 persons are eligible to vote in the May 18 primary, the largest primary total in history.

The totals nclude 457,224 Democrats and 383,253 Republicans.

The Democratic margin of 73,971 compared with their margin of 75,393 at the 1960 general election. The Democrats' lead was 55,581 at the primary two years ago.

The all-time high registration figure was 900,516 at the 1960 general election.

The 1960 primary total was 797,036.

NAACP Seeks 50,000 Members

New York — Comedian Dick Gregory will highlight the kick-off rally of the NAACP's metropoltan drive for 50,000 members at the Belmont-Plaza Hotel here this week.

The drive ends June 22. Mrs. Maxine Smith, executive secretary of the Association's Memphis, Tenn., branch, will give "The Memphis Story," a review of that unit's outstanding work in schools, jobs, transportation and registration and voting.

The Memphis NAACP is the largest in the South with more than 6000 members. It has had outstanding success in voter registration and selective buying campaigns.

Dr. George D. Cannon, co-chairman of the NAACP's national life membership drive; Dr. Eugene T. Reed, president of the New York State NAACP; Miss Lucille Black, NAACP membership secretary; and Mrs. Benona Bradford, state membership chairman, will also address the campaign workers.

Housing Forum Held Last Fri.

A panel of experts in various phases of housing was presented by the Urban League of Portland in its Forum on Vital Housing Facts, at Neighborhood House in southwest Portland last Friday night.

Explaining the steps necessary in acquiring housing by purchase and by rental, and in overcoming racial discrimination were Ken Evans, realtor; William Terry, loan officer, Pacific First Federal Savings; Oscar Pederson, Portland FHA director; Louis E. Scott, rental manager, Albina Real Estate, and Russell Peyton, field representative, Civil Rights Division of the Oregon Bureau of Labor. Richard M. Neal, member of the UL board and community services committee, was moderator.

The forum was co-sponsored by the League and Neighborhood House as a joint community service. Both are agencies of United Good Neighbors.

Site Abandoned After Protest

Gary, Ind. — The NAACP scored a victory here this week when the Board of Education decided not to proceed with plans to build a new high school in the midst of the all-Negro section of town.

Negro citizens had opposed the site on grounds that it did not meet state standards and would result in de facto segregation. The Board will now seek another site.

At the same time, it decided that Negro students will no longer be transferred from their overcrowded school to an under-utilized white school.

A public hearing is scheduled for open discussion of this move.

Mr. Hobbs hands over keys to R. H. Clunaf, last months winner of 1962 Chevrolet Corvair, as Ron Gehring looks on. Hobbs Richfield Service Station is located at NE Union and Ivy Streets. Each and every time you go into Hobbs Service Station, you not only get tickets that might win you a 1962 Chey Corvair, but friendly and courteous service, whether its a tank full or a gallon. So remember for service that can't be beat and a chance to win a new car. It's Hobbs Richfield Service Station..

The Northwest Defender will present a three-part discussion with Mr. Louis E. Scott, rental manager, Albina Real Estate. Mr. Scott, will enlighten the public concerning housing rentals.

RENTAL PROCURE

By Louis E. Scott

Rentals are an integral part of the business of housing, both for family living and business purposes. The renter buys space on a temporary basis, the rental he pays is his second most important expenditure—food costs being the most important. Two-thirds of all families live in single family homes. Duplexes and four-plexes house approximately one-fourth of all U.S. families, whereas the ideal housing situation—home ownership—is enjoyed by an estimated 55% of total U.S. families.

The renter purchases certain space for a specified time, at a price agreed upon by the owner and himself. He is not concerned about Capital Value Shrinkage, property taxes, and other hidden or latent expenses. Competitive housing conditions favor the renter, and if neighborhood conditions deteriorate, the flexibility of his position permits him to shift to areas of his choice. If he anticipates an upturn in the price of his unit, he can negotiate a long-term lease, thereby benefiting, as does the owner when he buys on "low market."

Happy May Day to you and yours . . . if the weather had been in keeping with the month, each of you would have found "May-Day" baskets, laden with sweet scented flowers at your door . . . With the soft strains of music which surrounds me . . . I can think of lots to chat about . . . Our Portland Links did themselves proud by entertaining visiting Links from out of town . . . In the spacious setting of the fabulous ball room of the Sheraton Hotel, Sunday evening, we enjoyed the reception given in their honor. Jessie Mae Johnson, who probably has the "new set of feet" by now, did an excellent job on arrangements . . . Other Links seen during the evening, Katherine Bogle, acting as photographer, June Brown, Bernadette Plummer, Marjorie Williams, Anita Brown (good job em-ceeding, too.) and the charming lawyer, Mercedes Diez . . . Of course we chatted much . . . such a famous personality as Dr. Thelma Patten Law, who recently was presented orchids for having delivered over thousands of babies in Houston, Texas hospitals . . . she loved our city and looked forward to a sight-seeing tour in the company of a former Yale classmate of her husband . . . Mrs. Ellen Dickerson and family of Denver, Colo. motored here to the meeting . . . she's got her hands full with three lively, energetic boys . . . they plan to return home via of California . . . Multnomah County taxpayers are paying "full-time taxes" but getting only "part-time law enforcement" from the District Attorney's office, according to State Representative George Van Hoomissen, Democratic candidate for District Attorney.

Speaking before members of Sanitary Truck Drivers Local 220 this week, Van Hoomissen told his audience that their present District Attorney has unexcusably refused to enforce laws designed to protect the public from habitual criminals.

"Many of these individuals have committed several serious felonies within a few years, and still the District Attorney refuses to use the full weight of the law against them."

Van Hoomissen said that, if elected, he would "carry his share of the workload of the office." "To the best of my knowledge, the present District Attorney has not tried a case since he has been in office," Van Hoomissen said.

Van Hoomissen noted the increase in sex crimes and other assaults and robberies in the county during recent months and pledged to "wage a vigorous and aggressive campaign against all forms of crime but to give emphasis to crimes against persons and children."

School Committee Draws Protest

Chicago — Strong protest was raised by the NAACP here this week over exclusion of competent and qualified Negroes from the Mayor's Advisory Commission on school board nominations.

An all-white body of six was selected as Negro Chicagoans, nominated by a number of community groups, were ignored.

These charges were made at the local NAACP's membership meeting which also witnessed an appeal to Mayor Richard Daley to ignore recommendations of this commission.

De facto school segregation strife has torn this city in recent months. The NAACP has charged discriminatory policies in re-assigning students from overcrowded, predominantly Negro Burnside elementary school.

Wednesday, April 25, the Portland Bureau of Parks and Public Recreation sponsored a Peanut Rolling Contest. Knott Street held its contest at Albina Park and 21 kids joined in the fun. The contest was thought up to bring in money for Belle, the elephant, and her offspring, packy. Donating to the fund so the children could enter the contest were: Williams Auto Sales, 3225 NE Union, Lew's Man Shop, 113 N. Russell, and the Wednesday and Thursday Golden Age Dance Clubs at the Center. We would like to thank these fine people for their donations.

Winners of the contest were: boys, 6 to 10 years, Sam Howard; girls, 6 to 10 years, Lular Littleton; boys, 11 to 14 year, Henry Mott; and girls, 11 to 14 years, Lois Bentley.

On Saturday, June 2, at 1:00 p.m. at Grant Park field, NE 33rd and Thomson, Portland will hold its annual Junior Olympic trials and the 1st, 2nd and 3rd place winners will enter the Oregon Junior Olympics which will be held the following Saturday at Grant at 1:00 p.m. also. These outstanding track and field events are sponsored by the Portland Bureau of Public Recreation.

The Knott Street Community Center will enter a team in these Junior Olympic meets so if there is any boy or girl between the ages of 10 and 17 interested in becoming a member of the team please come over to the Center and sign up now. Our Knott Street team did real well last year in both the City and State meets so let's try and do even better this year.

End to Job Bias Pledged

Detroit — Charles Williams, city treasurer, promised the NAACP here this week that there will be an end to job discrimination practices within his department.

In a conference with the city official, Edward M. Turner and Arthur L. Johnson, branch president and executive secretary, respectively, charged that Negro employees have been concentrated in four out of nine units in the city treasurer's offices.

Florida NAACP
Aids Negro Vote

Tallahassee, Fla. — The number of Negroes registered to vote in Florida shows an increase of 19,329 over 1960 and now totals 182,456, Florida's Secretary of State reported this week.

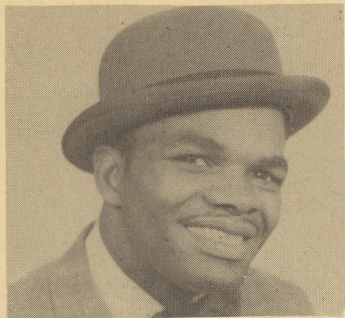

Significant gains were made in cities and counties where local units of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People conducted registration drives. These include the cities of Tampa, Jacksonville, Miami, Orlando and West Palm Beach, and Pinellas and Lee counties.

These are three of the contestants in the Queen contest Jebberwolk presened by the Delta Sigma, Friday night, May 4, at the Lloyd Center Auditorium. Jacqueline and Jocelyn Smith, Angela Deloney.

Roger Maris .....	2

Classy, cocky and clever Cassius Clay, who, by his own admission is the greatest thing going in boxing at the moment. However, he does concede that Louis, the great Brown Bomber, was the best of his day.

Clay takes up his poet's pen to praise Joe. He writes.

"My tribute to the greatest by the greatest." By Cassius Marcellus Clay.

"Everybody knew when he stopped in town.

"Joe Louis was the greatest man around.

"His fights only lasted a couple rounds.

"He made his opponents look like clowns.

"The people came to see a great fight.

"But all Joe did was put out the lights.

"Some got mad, some lost their money.

"But Joe was sweet as honey.

"His left jab fired like pistons.

"They were even faster than Liston.

"Sometimes we often sit and wonder

"If there will ever be another Brown Bomber."

Led by willie Mays and Ernie Banks, Negro home run hitters continue to move higher in the list of life-time home run hitters. Baseball's No. 1 Home Run hitter of all time, The Great Babe Ruth is, of course, tops with 714, a record which seems almost beyond reach. But, remembering that this select group goes back to the beginnings of baseball, Negro batters has accomplished amazing feats.

Last season, a record-breaking 2,730 round trippers were belted out of Major League ball parks. Listed below are the leading Negro home run hitters in each league.
