Mrs. Josephine Hasbrook, music supervisor for the recreation association, has resigned from her position, Carl Gustafson, director of physical education and recreation, announced today.

Joining the recreation staff a year ago, Mrs. Hasbrook succeeded Miss Irene Moore. She is well known in Vancouver for her work in Victory Center shows, Kaiser Shipyard programs, and the two Friday morning Mayflower matinee shows which were under her direction weekly, one held at the Castle Theater and the other at the McLoughlin Heights community center.

She also directed the teenage all-girls chorus, "The Singing Leg- gies," the Bagley Downs Hasbrook chorus named in her honor; and the McLoughlin Heights Women's chorus.

"Mrs. Hasbrook has been of splendid service to the community," Mrs. Gustafson said. "She gave unselfishly of her time and talent, and will be greatly missed by the association."

Ray Hamby, radio director for the group, will assume Mrs. Hasbrook's duties in program production.

The joint letter to the Secretary was signed by Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, president, National Council of Negro Women; Walter White, executive secretary, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; and Lester B. Granger, executive secretary, National Urban League.

The current bond drive opened November 20th and will continue through December 16th. The three outstanding leaders informed the Secretary that "Negroes are in this war as much as any other American," and that they too "yearn to see their loved ones return homes as quickly as possible, and are bending every effort to hasten that day."

Settling forth their pledges of personal support, the letter said that they intend to "implore those for whom we profess to speak not to relax their efforts, either in work or in investment in war bonds. We know we shall continue to say," the letter adds, "that the link between the battlefront and the home front is a bridge of war bonds this purchase of which is essential to supply adequately the men who are carrying the fight to the enemy."

SANTA CLAUS

The following reprinted from the editorial page of the New York Sun, was written by the late Mr. Frank P. Church.

We take pain in making our readers realize the effect of the communication below, expressing at the same time our great gratification that its faithful author is numbered among the friends of THE SUN:

Dear Father Christmas:

Some of my little friends say there is no Santa Claus. Please tell me the truth; is there a Santa Claus?

Virginia Hanlow.

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, are little. Is it surprising then that the little child is little? That looks like a fountain opened to the house of faith, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanliness.

If you want to be chaste you shall be cleansed as white as snow. Who so ever believes that shall be saved, 2. Cor. 5:17. Therefore, if any man be in Christ he is a new creature. If you want to be a great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intercourse with the great system of things. All these excuses are not able to make the great communication below, expressing at the same time our great gratification that its faithful author is numbered among the friends of THE SUN:

SANTA CLAUS

Last week we had a talk with a little girl, a neighbor's daughter about three years old. The young lady had just returned from Christmas Eve and seeing the toys and other things that are put on display especially for the youngsters around this time of the year. But at three years of age, this young lady was somewhat disillusioned. Her belief in Santa Claus had been completely shattered. It was plain to see that she was voicing the opinion of some older person when she said in her childish way, "There ain't no Santa Claus." Mayber that older person thought he was doing that child a favor by making her worldly wise or possibly the remark was made thoughtlessly in her presence. No matter how it was made, it was wrong to shatter that child's faith in an age-old belief. Santa Claus is real, and for the benefit of those youngsters and oldsters who are suffering from too much skepticism and too little faith in marvelous things. It is in answer to practically the same kind of a situation that we have mentioned. It was printed quite a few years ago by the editor of the Young Sunday Sun.

If you want your sons and daughters saved, just believe

That looks like a fountain opened to the house of faith, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and uncleanliness.

"In faith, fancy, poetry, love, romance, can push aside that curtain and view and picture the supernatural and physical world beyond it. It is all there, Virginia, in all this world. There is nothing else real and abiding.

No Santa Claus! Thank God! he lives, and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of every child.

SERNON

BY ELDRY JAMES S. LOMAX
Pastor of the All Nations Church of God in Christ, 22 E. Washington.

"Come: for all things are now ready." Taken from St. Luke, 18th chapter. If you come unto him, a certain man made a great supper, and bade many, and sent his servant at supper time to say to them, who were bidden, 'Come: for all things are now ready.'

Many strive to prepare things; but all things are ready, St. Mark 7:32. "If thou trustest believe all things are possible to him that believeth." If you want peace in time of war Peace is ready. If you want deliverance in time of need, Righteousness is ready. If you want your way to God: All things must do in the way of righteousness because all things are ready. If you want your sons and daughters saved, just believe and put them on the altar, because all things are ready. It shall come to pass, all that seek shall be saved. 2. Peter 2:9. But that shall prove? Nobody sees Santa Claus. But that's no proof that they are not there. Nobody can

U. S. Soldiers Overseas Urge ‘Back to School’

A GIs thoughts turn to learning, as well as fighting, when he is overseas.

More than half of the enrollees with the United States Armed Forces Institute and correspondence school sponsored by the Army and Navy, are from service men and women overseas.

In addition to the quarter of a million men and women provided for self-taught courses with the Institution, 588,000 students are studying in 800 other classes, obtaining books provided by the United States Armed Forces Institute.

Most GIs are ‘cracking their books’ in the hope that their diplomas will help them to better jobs when they come back to civilian life, and they urge girls at home to follow their examples.

In fact, a number of overseas soldiers have recently written back strongly urging a continuation of the drive of the Office of Education and the Children’s Bureau to encourage school-age children to return to high school this fall.

F. S. Jones Richmond of Kankakee, Ill., for example, says: ‘I quit after 8½ years of high school and now I have an idea how sorry you are. Now, if young people will stay in high school and finish up a job now, even overseas, they will save a lot of money. Boys and girls are finishing their training. You don’t want a diploma, but I have one now, and I am telling you to go back to school and earn your diploma, if you want a job when you come home.’

Clayton Embry of Baltimore, Md., says: ‘I have two younger sisters who are working now. I am telling them to go back to school this fall and finish. I never finished before, but I know how much it held me back.’

Elinore Grinnell of Atwood, Kan., has this warning for the thou sands of young boys and girls who may be uncertain as to whether to leave school for jobs this fall: ‘Any boy who’s in high school now had better finish right away. Because if he doesn’t finish before he’s drafted or before he takes a full job, chances are he will never finish. That goes for girls, too.’

N. C. C. P. T. BACKS V. D. CAMPAIGN

The nation-wide campaign of the Red Cross has its full cooperation of the National Congress of Colored Parents and teachers, according to Mrs. Anna M. Price, of Martinsville, Ind., who represents this organization on the National Women’s Advisory Committee on Social Protection.

Meet Your Enemy—Venereal Disease is a new booklet prepared by the Service Protection Division of the Community War Service, Federal Security Agency, at the request of and in coordination with the National Women’s Advisory Committee on Social Protection. Mrs. Strong is also a member of the Executive Committee of the N. W. A. C. and played an important part in drafting its resolution which declared that members of this women’s committee supported the social protection program and would work together to achieve its objectives which are to prevent and reverse prostitution and sexual immorality.

Mass blood testing for syphilis is one of the important steps in a venereal disease control program, according to ‘Meet Your Enemy—Venereal Disease.’ Public health departments are prepared to offer their services which include diagnosis and treatment of persons with venereal infections, irrespective of race, and ability to pay, to those in need of such services.

Millions of Americans of all ages and both sexes who have syphilis and gonorrhea, the two most common venereal diseases, say ‘Meet Your Enemy.’ However, these diseases can be cured if the patient is detected in being infected individuals, placing them under treatment and keeping them under treatment until they are cur ed or no longer able to infect others.

‘Meet Your Enemy’ urges further that it is necessary to have rapid diagnosis and early treatment of infected persons, as treatment of infected persons is not enough. Better understanding of the problem, mobilization of resources, and a concerted attempt to bring about safe, healthful and locally desirable living conditions are needed as basic protection against venereal disease.

Meet Your Enemy—Venereal Disease is specifically written for the main source of venereal diseases—the soldier. It is concerned primarily with social protection, which is defined as ‘the prevention and repression of prostitution and sexual promiscuity as the means of controlling venereal diseases.”

The National Women’s Advisory Committee on Social Protection was formed in June 1943, when a group of representatives from the women’s organizations in the country met with Charles P. Taft, then Director of the Office of Community War Service, Federal Security Agency, to discuss this country’s venereal disease problems and the steps that were being taken to meet them. The committee was appointed by Mr. Taft, and has since acted in an advisory capacity to the director of the social protection division.

Big Attendance At Rec. Centers

Reports turn in to Miss Donna Lenietz, director of the recreational division, Bureau of Parks, that 1,982 persons, children and adults, used the indoor play centers in November, while the recreational equipment was used by over 25,720 persons, and there were over 22,000 spectators at various events—tournaments, games, boating, swimming, dancing, etc., sponsored by the park bureau.

Liberty Ship to Be Named For Colored Seaman

The names of several Negro merchant seamen who lost their lives in action while serving in the merchant marine are included in the latest list of names assigned for the last 100 liberty ships under the present construction program, the United States Maritime Commission announced this week.

Names of the 100 heroes selected from 727 known dead on the official casualty list to the American Merchant Marine represent men of all races and nearly every state and territory. Selection of these names was made not only to honor this group of men, but also the more than 5,000 merchant seamen listed as missing or prisoners of war, commission officials said.

The first of 22 names pre pared to go on the waves in five southern shipyards included the name of James Kyron Walker, who was second cook on the SS Guilar, torpedoned on Apr. 13, 1942. Walker was born in St. Thomas, Virgin Islands, Jan. 25, 1914, and enlisted in the Merchant Marine services from Baltimore, Md. Records of the Maritime Commission do not list his family. Instead of next of kin, Walker listed a ‘person to be notified in case of emergency.’

Selections of names for the remaining 78 Liberty ships will be announced at an early date.

The SS. James Kyron Walker will bring to fifteen the total of Liberty ships named for Negro heroes.

Liberty Elks To Hold Election In January

At Holda Temple No. 202, 1 N. P. O. E. W., will hold election at its first regular meeting of the new year, was announced this week by the Daughter Rider, Mrs. Leatha Park. All members of this temple are requested to be present and members of other temples who are visitors here or living here are invited to be present.

The meeting will be held at the Elks Hall, 2505 N. Williams Ave. on Tuesday evening, January 2nd, at 8 o’clock.

When baking bread, why not bake banana nut bread. Now there is a real treat to get in the family lunch box. We should be able to find a few simple recipes now on the markets too, for the removal of certain shipping restrictions is expected to increase civil supplies. However, bananas will be coming into the country via New Orleans as west coast ports become more and more supplied with military personnel, so pefects here may be higher to reflect cross-country shipping costs.

DRIVE SLAUGHTER ON USED CAR PRICES

Price ceilings on used passenger cars will be checked during December on a nation-wide basis, Mr. D. D. Brown, district OPA director, was informed from Washington this week.

“One of the most critical parts of the OPA program is the enforcement of the price regulations on used cars sold by private individuals,” Brown said.

The campaign will be aimed at all sellers of used cars who violate the price regulations, including both private individuals and dealers, he explained. Many buyers do not examine carefully the certificates of title when they sign, and do not know they are being overcharged, Brown said.

The National campaign will be directed at registering out concealed violations, the OPA director pointed out.

Typical of the concealed violations which have been uncovered by the OPA in the past, are:

1. Requirement that the buyer pay an additional amount above the legal ceiling to the seller to get the certificate of title.

2. Charging the buyer of a lease car an excessive maximum price for a higher priced model.

3. Allowing an unreasonable low price for short-term leases, or re-registering a term-to-term in a condition on sale.

4. Requiring the purchaser to buy on the time payment, or his right to give notice of refusal to pay was not indicated.

5. Illegal sales made at “warran-

Elks Club Open To Teen-Agers

The Daughter Elks, members of Dahlia Temple No. 393, in joint session on Tuesday evening, with members of Billy Wals Ledge, IPDOW, agreed to permit the use of their club rooms by the Teen-Agers of the community.

The suggestion was made some time ago by a member, Mr. Arthur A. Cox, will be carried out as soon as suitable arrangements can be made.

The Elks are the fourth club to offer such privileges, it was explained. Many buyers do not examine carefully the certificates of title when they sign, and do not know they are being overcharged, Brown said.

LIL ABNER GETS SECOND CHANCE
Gy Roddy Abner to you may mean absolutely nothing To a lot of people, "Lil Abner" meant a thing. But to everybody who followed the Civic Auditorium last Friday the words "Lil Abner" meant 143 pounds of sumo pure enjoyment.

When this paper went to press a week ago the name of this young fighter was practically unknown. To a few of his friends, most of East Vaupart, where he lives, and a few very outsiders, he was just another "kid" with the desire to be on a pair of gloves. That chance came last Friday night at the Civic Auditorium when one of the principals in a prelim reshuffled a bout. "Lil Abner" was pressed into service against twice as long and twice as big a fighter for the chance of a punch as ever fought in a gym. Eddie finally got the nod out of the box but before he won, the crowd had sensed the rising of a new star in the boxing firmament. "Lil Abner" had hit Eddie every-where but under the bottom of his feet almost at will during the first three rounds. Then Eddie's experience began to take the heat, but "Lil Abner" made such a showing that he gets another chance to meet Eddie tonight. This time we are looking for some real fireworks, for the "kid" has not let the prize he has received all week go to his head. If he lets in too deep, Eddie Weller will be right there to take advantage of those openings. "Lil Abner" will have had experience, this will be his second time in the ring and he has the week to train. The last time—or should I say the first time—that his training consisted of a walk from Vaupart to East Vaupart and not a fast walk at that.

There will be four other bouts on this Talent Show:
Booster Jack Haber vs. Dave Johnson, heavyweight who up to this point carried only mark. Haber has won three in a row while, Johnson has been ten in ten training for this scrap. Haber is in the coast guard, Johnson is a rigger at Swan Island.

But 3: A "Natural" devoured by the last horn John L. Sullivan's fights Mike Terry, of Sagky Downs. The Irish boy from the Northwest has a real fight on his hands with the young Negro who knocked out Don Montgomery.

But 4: Top likable "Spunkly" Canton takes on action again with Buddy Hoffman, of Seattle, at the opening session of Hoffman's tour as he holds a decision over Eddie Weller.

But 5: Two new ones to Port-land right fangs. Eddie Wharten, little young Negro, tangles with Saddle "Babe" Spanola, of the na-ly. They are weightmatch. All bouts are six-rounder.

NEGRO CB'S TOPS IN PERFORMANCE
PELICU, PALAU ISLANDS, (Decalys) — Two hundred Negro Seabees, who are the fifth and last of the series of landing-drafts under siege on the beachhead, are lined up on the beach waiting to be given their orders. They are the last batch of Negroes, and their number was raised by 200 more when the wounded Marines arrived three days ago.

"I want volunteers for stretcher bearing on the ridge tonight," an officer was telling them.

And 206 Negro Seabees stepped out as one. The incident is typical of the personal check of the beach-head, that landed immediately behind assault waves of Marines here and has been working night and day since. They unload ships, collect ammunition and heavy sup­plies to the beachhead, carry ammunition to the front lines, and bring wounded back. On occasion they have in filled as front line troops, and for more than a week they have been going forward to wounded marines.

These Seabees have learned to carry their buddy on the stretcher with the wounded Marine and cradled it to his side, if he forgets to duck, Eddie Weller to bring out wounded in the bout but before he won, the a very few outsiders, he was just another "kid" with the desire to be on a pair of gloves. That chance came last Friday night at the Civic Auditorium when one of the principals in a prelim reshuffled a bout.
