FEPC BILL WITH TEETH FOR CALIFORNIA

California's two Negro legislators, Los Angeles Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins and Berkeley's W. Byron Rumford, returned to their homes recently, following the recess of the legislature and after having led the fight along the vital economic front, principally in the matter of the high cost of living and the need for a state FEPC, seen by both as paramount issues.

Rumford introduced a bill, which is backed by Hawkins, to set up a state Fair Employment Practices Commission, which would penalize violators.

IN MY OPINION

AN OPEN LETTER TO SENATOR MAHONEY
FROM ONE DEMOCRAT TO ANOTHER

Senator Thomas Mahoney, Salem, Oregon

February 1, 1951

Dear Tom:

Your vote on the marriage (miscegenation law) was not questioned, but your vote or comments on the bill unquestionably lost some votes (DEMOCRATICALLY). The intent implied is not personal but ethical in the inter-marriage question.

The implication of white and Negro marriages does not mean that the unborn child has security—as is, he has non-security or the alternative. (Abortion).

The 24th and 25th Infantry has been wiped out in Korea fighting for the Democracy that you and I know.

The inter-marriage of different racial backgrounds is not questioned as good or bad. The fact that white men marry Negro women or Negro men marry white women (and they do in both instances) gives the unborn children a place and a name in our integrated society. The vote also gives rise to the "WHERE CAN WE GET REVENUE DEPT". Washington State has no miscegenation law and its easier to get to the court house in Vancouver for marriages of any sort than to Multnomah County court house due to the "parking problem".

Of course, the Republican sponsored bill, recommended by the Governor Committee on Indian Affairs intended to rule out the chances or the fact that babies born to illigitimate unions, of any racial background, might become wards of their respective parents, rather than wards of the state, in baby homes.

I admonish you to secure data on illigitimate babies born to white and colored mothers and you will be surprised at the greater number of "white" babies born to colored mothers because of the miscegenation law, that forbids their white fathers from matrimony with their mothers. I know of a number of cases where the children are taken care of by their illigitimate fathers.

I am not opposed to inter-marriages for that reason alone. Our democracy depends on the freedom of the individual to love and marry whomever they please or choose.

I do wish if the statement you made, had to be made, a Republican could have made it.

Democratically yours,

OLIVER E. SMITH.

CHRISTIAN OR ELSE

The Church of the People, 4033 University Way, Seattle, Wash. Fred W. Shorter, Minister and Editor.

Marguerite Bro, well-known writer in the field of religious education, writes from Java to the Christian Century of some personal experiences in Hongkong, Indonesia, Burma and Formosa which indicate in unmistakable ways that the old white superiority stuff is out. Whites lining up in Hongkong for taxes had little chance against Chinese. They usually had to walk, as M. Bro herself did. In Bangkok Siamese were very alert to any indication of white superiority attitude. In Singapore there had been a riot in which scores of European automobiles were burned. A small incident set it off. Why? The reply was, "They're out to get the whites and take anything as an excuse." Even in polite Japan Mrs. Bro found the people edgy, sensitive, proud and belligerent.

She concluded that the advice of Jesus about the brotherhood of man was not just a fine set of principles it would be nice to practice. It is now, she thinks, a matter of survival. We'd better have the dark-skinned people as allies if we wish to survive! "We can't kid anybody with fine phrases; by the time they are translated they seem hollow." So when she returns to the USA she's going to be more open, more honest and more humble in her friendships with dark-skinned friends.

In the rural sections of the South a high percentage of our Negroes belong to the church.

The 17 teachers who recently visited in the homes of 7486 people found that nearly two-thirds of these people were church members.

The percentage who were church members was 61.7. But 29 per cent were children "too young to join." This only left 93 per cent of the adults and young people whowerenot members.

But their record of church attendance was not so good. Information was secured from 5333 people as to the number of times they attended church during the last four Sundays. This is shown in the table below.

Number of times 5333 people attended their church during the last four Sundays:

The 104 Pages of this survey distributed by the Rural Department, Drew Seminary, Madison, New Jersey for 40 cents a copy shows the reasons these people give for not attending church.

"TAKE IT BACK"—SAY YOUNG DEMOCRATS

At the annual meeting of the Young Democratic Club of Multnomah County Monday evening, January 22, a resolution was passed to return to Eric Johnston, National head of the Conference of Christians and Jews, the plaque awarded Portland last year by his group for being the city showing most progress in race relations. The resolution read as follows:

"Whereas on February 22 of last year the City of Portland was awarded a plaque by the National Conference of Christians and Jews during annual Brotherhood Week for the city having made the most progress in race relations, and "Whereas the citizens of Portland on November 7 of the same year soundly defeated a civil rights measure which would have made it illegal for places of public accommodation to discriminate because of race, religion or national origin, therefore be it

"Resolved, That the Young Democratic Club of Multnomah County ask the National Conference of Christians and Jews' President, Eric Johnston, speaking here February 17, to take back the award, since by the vote of the people it was amply demonstrated Portland's citizens are not ready to practice what some of their leaders preach: "Brotherhood of Man.'"

The club elected Bob Crosier of Reed College as its president. The board elected are: H. A. Anderson, Helen Parks, William McCoy, Jr., Carola Forrest, Ralph Golby and Richard Meigs.
NEGRO NURSES WELCOME

Oregon schools of nursing welcome applications from Negro students desiring to go into nurse training, it is indicated by a recent statewide survey conducted by the Urban League of Portland.

Only two Negro nursing students were found to be in training during the current school year, both in the University of Portland College of Nursing. In addition, however, two students are enrolled in the pre-nursing program at Vanport College.

John S. Holley, Neighborhood Secretary of the Urban League, states that the response from the various nursing schools shows a desire to enroll more students of good nursing potentiality, regardless of race. Also, there is no indication of discrimination in the placing of graduate nurses in Portland hospitals.

"Nursing is one of the professions in which Negro workers are rapidly gaining acceptance on a basis of equality," Holley points out, "and there is an acute shortage of trained nurses in Oregon, as elsewhere throughout the United States. The several trained Negro nurses in Portland have made outstanding records, and there is opportunity for many more.

Nurse training in Oregon is offered at Emanuel Hospital, St. Vincents, Good Samaritan Hospital, Providence Hospital, the University of Oregon Medical School and the University of Portland College of Nursing, in Portland, at Sacred Heart General Hospital in Eugene and St. Anthony Hospital in Pendleton. Degrees in nursing are obtained only through the University of Oregon and the University of Portland.

The memberships are considered “supporting” memberships in that all of the activities at the North Central ‘Y’ are for boys. Funds collected go to the maintenance and supervision of the ‘Y’ center and boys’ clubs.

Mr. Edgar Lee, Mr. Clarence Ivey, and Dr. Miner T. Patton are Division Guides. Squad Leaders are: Anthony Smith, U. G. Plummer, E. American Negroes may expect the same support in their fight for racial equality from Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr. and Philip Willkie as was given them by the famous fathers of the two fledgling statesmen.

This is the conclusion drawn by Ebony magazine in interviews with the two young men in the January issue.
