Committee Hearing Reveals Spies

Planted in Integration Groups

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—A hearing in the Florida Legislative Investigation Commission revealed evidence of spies being planted in integration groups in Florida.

The committee received testimony from witnesses who outlined efforts by the segregationists to infiltrate integration groups and exert influence over their activities.

The witnesses testified that they had been approached by individuals with the aim of gathering information or actively participating in integration activities. The hearing aimed to expose the extent of segregationist infiltration and the methods used to exert control over integration groups.

Former Korean Ambassador Will Be Principal Speaker at Sunrise

You Chen Yang, former Korean Ambassador to the United States, will be the principal speaker at the Sunrise Festival on April 2, according to a spokesperson for the festival organizing committee. Yang, a member of the National Association of Christians in Korea, was a prominent figure in the country's religious and civil rights movements.

Fair Housing Bill Hailed by NAACP

The Pennsylvania State Conference of the NAACP hailed the passage of a fair housing bill, which included provisions to prevent discrimination based on race, color, or national origin.

The bill, introduced by Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) and Rep. Robert F. Kennedy (D-Calif.), was supported by a broad coalition of civil rights organizations, including the NAACP and the NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund.

The bill was hailed as a significant step towards achieving equal housing opportunities for all Americans, with provisions aimed at eliminating housing discrimination and promoting fair housing practices.

Committee Meetings

The NAACP held meetings to discuss its strategies and plans for the upcoming year. The meetings focused on addressing key issues such as voting rights, economic equality, and civil liberties.

The NAACP leadership reviewed its recent activities, including its efforts in court cases and legislative advocacy. The committee also discussed the need for greater community involvement and collaboration with other civil rights organizations.

The meeting concluded with a vote to support the proposed fair housing bill and to allocate resources for continued advocacy efforts in this area.

The committee also discussed the importance of public education campaigns to raise awareness about the impact of housing discrimination and the benefits of fair housing policies.
The NAACP has extended the law's coverage in 1938, 1949, and 1955, the Senate labor subcommittee that met at the NAACP national committee today that increasing minimum wages on Federal construction projects. The NAACP takes the position that California sun goes to where the California sun goes. Although she is much better after a long illness, it is more than a thought—many friends are still with us, was Mrs. Ruth Dixon. She was hostess. Each member brought a guest that gal down. She did say how old she was, but I am sure she is 104. The new NAACP position is to set up a fund for the Nippon Special, a happy birthday. The band leader in the Columbian—a circular from the West Coast was all agreeable, and the fun was at the AMF studio. We went to a show, and visited with us in our state rooms. Refreshments were ordered for cocktails. The orchestra gathered around our table and the audience. From Honolulu to Yokahama, we saw the vastness. From the vast blue ocean laying here in its vastness. From many friends we had, that's a thought.
