3-10-1938

Northwest Enterprise-March 11, 1938

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.
Follow this and additional works at: https://pdxscholar.library.pdx.edu/northwestenterprise

Recommended Citation
"Northwest Enterprise-March 11, 1938" (1938). Northwest Enterprise. 5.
https://pdxscholar.library.pdx.edu/northwestenterprise/5

This Book is brought to you for free and open access. It has been accepted for inclusion in Northwest Enterprise by an authorized administrator of PDXScholar. For more information, please contact pdxscholar@pdx.edu.
Ben Sullivan

Ben Sullivan is a victim of pneumonia.

The Enterprise was contacted by the family of Ben Sullivan, who passed away on Wednesday at the age of 68. Sullivan was a long-time employee of the Enterprise, working in the classified department for many years.

The Enterprise extends its deepest condolences to the family and friends of Ben Sullivan during this difficult time.

Ben Sullivan is survived by his wife, two children, and three grandchildren.

Elks Endorse Enterprise

As official publisher of the Northwest Enterprise, the Elks have formally endorsed the Enterprise, stating: "We strongly support the Enterprise as the leading source of local news and information in the Northwest. The Enterprise provides a trustworthy and unbiased voice for the community."
The past week has been an eventful one and before giving a summary of the week's activities we hope that the reader will appreciate the fact that this week's events will be covered in the capacity of editor and publisher. The purpose of this column is to provide an overview of the week's events, including the activities of the city and surrounding areas. We hope that readers will find the information useful and informative.

Off the Record

The city of Seattle has been eventful this week, with many notable events taking place. One of the most significant events was the opening of the new city hall, which was attended by many notable figures, including the mayor and the governor. The event was well attended and was marked by speeches and other events.

Other events this week included a series of talks on the history of the city, which were attended by many locals and tourists. The talks were well received, and many attendees expressed their appreciation for the information. Other events included a series of concerts and other cultural events, which were well attended and were marked by enthusiastic crowds.

Overall, this week has been an eventful one, and we hope that readers will find the information useful and informative.

The Northwest Enterprise

The Northwest Enterprise
Debutante Parade Is Smashing Hit

With a record of successful horse shows behind him, Capt. Allen H. Rogers of the Portland Jockey Club, is master to the Debutante Parade Friday evening at the Portland Union Passenger Terminal. Entering into three parts, the parade consisted of a horse show, a radio show, and the actual presentation of the Debutantes and their escorting men. All three of the events were of high interest and were completed. The total of the entries was great and the competition was keen. The audience was the nonchalant, the stage was the scene of the show, and the opening was the beginning of an event that will be remembered by all who attended.

The parade started on time and the pageant began. The horses were carefully selected and were presented in a manner that was both graceful and stylish. The riders were dressed in their finest attire, and the horses were adorned with beautiful trappings. The music was provided by a band that played a variety of classic tunes, adding to the festive atmosphere.

The first part of the parade was the horse show, where participants displayed their horses in various competitions. The horses were judged on their appearance, movement, and overall气质. The winners were awarded ribbons and certificates, and their names were announced as the parade progressed.

The second part of the parade was the radio show, which featured performances by various artists. The performers included singers, dancers, and comedians, who entertained the audience with their talents.

The final part of the parade was the presentation of the Debutantes. The Debutantes were escorted by their escorting men, and they were introduced to the audience. The families of the Debutantes were also present, and they were honored with flowers and gifts. The ceremony was a highlight of the parade and was enjoyed by all.

The parade ended with a grand finale, featuring a dramatic performance by a group of dancers. The audience erupted in applause, and the Debutante Parade was a resounding success. The event was well-organized and executed with great care, and it was a fitting conclusion to a memorable evening.

The parade was a testament to the city’s spirit and its love of tradition. It was a celebration of royalty, elegance, and beauty, and it brought together people from all walks of life to enjoy a night of entertainment and celebration. The Debutante Parade was a true reflection of the city’s rich cultural heritage, and it was a perfect way to commemorate the occasion.

The parade was a hit with the audience, and it generated a great deal of excitement and enthusiasm. The city was buzzing with energy and excitement, and the atmosphere was electric. The parade was a true celebration of the city’s spirit and its love of tradition, and it was a night that will be remembered for years to come.

The parade was a success, and it was a fitting conclusion to a memorable evening. The event was well-organized and executed with great care, and it was a fitting celebration of the city’s spirit and its love of tradition. The parade was a true reflection of the city’s rich cultural heritage, and it was a perfect way to commemorate the occasion.

The parade was a testament to the city’s spirit and its love of tradition. It was a celebration of royalty, elegance, and beauty, and it brought together people from all walks of life to enjoy a night of entertainment and celebration. The Debutante Parade was a true reflection of the city’s rich cultural heritage, and it was a perfect way to commemorate the occasion.
The Will Do Club met Monday, March 14, 1938, at the home of Mrs. Taylor. The party was given by Mrs. Beatrice Taylor, Mrs. Marie Lamme, vice-president; Mrs. Tessie Austin, Mrs. Edith Mae Young as soloists. All the group, known as the Jug Band at home, however, recovering from illness of standing the trip before the women, and l'rrirs.

By ARLINE D. ENGLISH

The May festival and Dance of the Will Do Club was one of the major events planned to fiance the Community Sanitation Day. It was held last June, keep the date.

The program was the usual with several questions that are in the minds of all, with Herman Moore, Joe Smith, and young poppy orchestra. He has chosen for the American Band Association's program on the Tuesday, April 5, at 8 p.m., "The Pioneers of America." The tiresome monotony was broken with a scintillating group of songs, chants, and other period pieces that are in the minds of all, with Herman Moore, Joe Smith, and young poppy orchestra. He has chosen for the American Band Association's program on the Tuesday, April 5, at 8 p.m., "The Pioneers of America." The tiresome monotony was broken with a scintillating group of songs, chants, and other period pieces.

Miss Alice Dupee, daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Beasley of their friends, was just as seriously minded as others appearing.

The Women's Club met Saturday evening at the Y. W. C. A. for their discussion on International Affairs. Mrs. Alex B. Lane, chairman, led the discussion on the controversy between the United States and Russia. The tiresome monotony was broken with a scintillating group of songs, chants, and other period pieces.

Miss Alice Dupee, daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Beasley of their friends, was just as seriously minded as others appearing.

The Women's Club met Saturday evening at the Y. W. C. A. for their discussion on International Affairs. Mrs. Alex B. Lane, chairman, led the discussion on the controversy between the United States and Russia. The tiresome monotony was broken with a scintillating group of songs, chants, and other period pieces.

Miss Alice Dupee, daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Beasley of their friends, was just as seriously minded as others appearing.

The Women's Club met Saturday evening at the Y. W. C. A. for their discussion on International Affairs. Mrs. Alex B. Lane, chairman, led the discussion on the controversy between the United States and Russia. The tiresome monotony was broken with a scintillating group of songs, chants, and other period pieces.

Miss Alice Dupee, daughter of Mrs. Benjamin Beasley of their friends, was just as seriously minded as others appearing.