Dr. John Marshall to Open New Office on Williams

Solicited to open in about 10 days on Williams avenue between Sacramento and Russell streets is the new office of Dr. John Marshall.

Almost complete and ready for occupancy, the spanking new brick-front building is to hold space for Dr. Richard Neal and Dr. Lillian Williams.

Dr. Neal will have a complete pharmaceutical service and Mrs. Williams will have a modern beauty salon. Dr. Neal formerly ran Neal drugs at North Williams and Knox street.

Better Adapted Facilities

Dr. Marshall, moving from his old office into the Professional building, will have a better-equipped medical office with enlarged laboratory facilities to assist in more effective diagnosis of his patients. This, the problem of diagnosis, is basic in medical science, according to Dr. Marshall.

The new building will be better adapted all around to take care of the needs of the community stated Dr. Marshall.

Dr. Marshall came to Portland in 1947 and first established his practice here with Dr. DeNorval Uthank. He took his medical training at Meharry in Nashville, Tennessee.

After completing his course there, he took intern work at Harlem hospital in New York and later moved to Kansas City, Missouri, where he took his residency at Kansas City General hospital.

Dentist Dee Locale

He is married and has two children. Dr. Marshall is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity and very interested in community advancement. Still in the cards for his new building is the hope of a dental office. No definite steps have been taken, however, to insure the community a dentist in the near future, but, according to Dr. Marshall, there is a good chance that a dentist will be established there some time soon.

Ide Wild Club To Advise Teens

Chaperons for the Williams avenue YWCA Canteen Club for youngsters 18 and over is the Ide Wild club of Portland. President of the club is Mrs. Dorothy Vickers.

The Ide Wilders wanted to make themselves valuable to the community, according to their former president Mrs. Virginia Davis, and availed themselves to take card playing and dancing classes to further equip them. The canteen program is held every Wednesday and the Ide Wilds women take charge of the program.

The program consists of dancing, card playing and other recreational facilities.

College Days Here Again

It's back to college time for many a Portland youngsters this fall. It is the start of the new school term and the campus life for the first time when they enroll for the course of their choosing during the next two weeks.

Quite a few from high school graduates are going away from home for the first time to taste the joys and sorrows of student life. Most of the majority will take serious academic work, but a few will choose to stay away from the classroom and attend schools in the Portland area.

Kathy's Notations

Kathryn H. Bogle, Social Editor

The Rev. and Mrs. Jesse L. Boyd announce the engagement of their daughter, Virlyn Leno to Richard Waldo Bogle Jr., son of Mrs. and Mr. Richard Bogle Sr.

Miss Boyd attends Portland State college and Mr. Bogle attended Oregon State college and is now attending Portland State.

No date has been set for the wedding.

A real pink tea was the one for which the members of Twenty Five Treasures' Progressive club were hostesses recently.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Zack Phillips at 216 N. E. Skidmore was the scene for this affair which was the first for the club since it was organized in June. Pink invitations were issued to about 50 guests who responded to the bid by wearing something pink. A color scheme of pink was carried out completely in the Jude and candies served and in the tea table appointments.

Music for the afternoon was by Robert Haywood and Miss Hazel Davis, solists, and the Misses Jo Betty Jones and Elna Smith, pianists. Mrs. Cyviria Woods and Mrs. Minnie Harris both gave readings.

Mrs. Elnora Williams is club president and Mrs. Phillips is secretary. Chairman of the affair was Mrs. Gertrude Cray.

The cast of "Finian's Rainbow," currently at the Civic theatre, was entertained after Saturday night's show by Geneva Franklin, a member of the chorus, and James Williams, who plays the role of Henry. The party was given at the home of James' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Williams, who have found that their 13-year-old son is a favorite not only with the audiences but also with his fellow players.

Enchanged with Mexico City are Mr. and Mrs. Eugenie L. Carsten who flew there from Tia Juana for part of a much-needed vacation. They were in Mexico for a week and were completely charmed by the country and the people.

The Cardens motored home after visiting along the way in San Diego, Los Angeles and in the Bay Cities.

Expected home this week is Miss Anna Morrison who went to Atlantic City several weeks ago as a delegate from Dalilla Temple to the convention of Daughter Elks There. On the way home Miss Morrison stopped in New York City and in Washington, D.C.

For two weeks Mr. Cornelius Young will be a vacationer in San Francisco and Los Angeles. A date for her fall wedding will be chosen soon by Mrs. Laura Smith who will be wed to Ronald Saunders of Seattle. Mr. Saunders is a chief steward for the Canadian Mail Steamship Lines.

Cari Deitz has received a promotion and is now a first lieutenant in the air force reserve. He will be in charge of the supply division under the director of material connection with the 45th Troop Carrier Wing.

Hosts at Sunday dinner for Mrs. and Mr. C. Golden of Kansas City, Mo., were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hicks. The Goldens were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. English while in the city. The members of Portlanders, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gragg (Helen Mae Thomas), are now living in Los Angeles where Bob is a radio and radar inspector for Lockheed.

The Graggs brought their two year-old son Robert Jr. to visit for two weeks with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gragg and Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas. The Roy Gragg held a reception Sunday at their home on Alber to honor the young couple.

With both their daughters in the hospital at the same time, the Harry Hurdys have been busy parents. Both young ladies are recovering rapidly and Beverley, who was hospitalized for a bit of minor surgery is now at home. Marlene, who had a "strut threat to be released in a day or two.

Mrs. Doris Lee, san Francisco visiting a fortnight with the R. F. Morrison hotel, was the honored guest when Mrs. Wade Brown entertained at Sunday dinner.

The A. Leon Johnsons have as their guest for a few days, Mrs. Ruby Jackson, a recreation director for the park bureau in San Francisco. Mrs. Jackson is also an accomplished pianist with a delightful style and a seemingly boundless repertoire.

She was most gracious with her talent and during her stay has played frequently for the Johnson's friends. The Johnsons are also host to Benjamin Taylor of San Pablo, who is making a motor tour of the Northwest as far as Vancouver.

Back home this week after nearly five months spent in several European countries in Mrs. A. Barkus Bullock. The John Scott Browns had a few friends in for a party on Saturday evening to hear Miss Bullock's sparkling account of her travels.

She had many interesting adventures to relate including a couple of brushes with real danger when she watched public political demonstrations in Paris and in Rome. Favorite places visited by Mrs. Bullock were Cannes, Paris and Capri. The club Les Femmes has resumed regular meeting and the first one for this fall was held Wednesday evening at Knott Center.

Officers for 1952 include: Mrs. Aldridge Johnson, president; Mrs. Olive Lott Nicholas, vice president; Mrs. Ulysses Leverett, secretary; Mrs. Orel Robinson, treasurer.

Advisers for the girls will be: Mrs. Charles Maxey, Joseph Nunn, Woodward Wilson, Benjamin Robinson, Oteira Nicholson and Aldridge Johnson.

W. C. Brown of Berkeley has been a Portland visitor for several days. While here he spent much of his time with the Herbert C. Bakers and made a short trip to visit Seattle friends.

Mrs. Karl Morrison is convalescing at her home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Les Shepard.

Mrs. William Graves Sr., accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Graves Jr., and her young son, Darrell, spent three-day-week-end in Seattle and in Victoria, B.C.

Just returned from a motor trip to visit her mother in Kansas City, Mo., is Mrs. Alfred Ricardo. She also visited in Chicago and St. Paul during the weeks she was away.

It's had news for many University of Portland basketball followers. While the little guard, Jim Winters, fell in an army physical the other day and was immediately placed in I-A classification.

It is extremely doubtful if Winters would have been granted a dish for the Pilots anyway as his scholastic standing at the university is reportedly far below par.

Why do so many high school athletes jump into college expecting to get free rides without outward effort made toward the true essence of college attendance, that of getting an education? It is a shame to see some of these fellows fail to make the academic portion of college, devoting all their time to athletics and evidently play, no books.

Oregon State comes up with two more Negro backfields. Both are from San Francisco colleges and played together last year. Wally Jackson played left half and Marvin Usery played right half.

So far they are reserves on Kip Taylor's eleven.

Last year's two standouts, Dave Mann and Bill Anderson, are both missing to the squad this year. Mann is now playing Pacific Coast football with the Oakland Aces and Anderson is serving in the air force.

Granville Gladstone is back in Beaver spangles after leading the Oregon International League in runs batted in. His teammate at Victoria, Jesse ład, won 20 games and pitched the only no-hit game in that league this season, He, too, is back in a Beaver uniform.

Maurice Boyd is to report to the Beaver training camp next spring for a promised tryout. His boy, Royd, played football in the city league during the summer months. He had an earlier tryout with the Beavers and was told to report back next spring in California.

Down at the University of Oregon Ben Johnson is doing well for himself with Len Casanova's rookie Duck squad. This is Johnson's first crack at big college football since he injured his shoulder during his school days at Roseburg.

Along with Johnson on the Oregon eleven are Emory Barnes and Kenneth Williams. Williams was a standout guard with the Dutch last year and has already cinched a starting berth. Barnes is back after a year's absence. Under Jim Akin he was a menace on defense to Oregon's opposition.

Suitcase Simpson recently received a substantial increase in salary from the Cleveland Indian front office. Simpson is currently tied for triple leadership in the junior circuit with the Yank's little six fingered Jo Jo White.

Notice how improved big Luke Macker is since returning to the Oregon eleven. The 20-game winners on major league rosters have dodged him for the past year but Markosn from the Oregon eleven to the to the up and coming Marciano, Marciano takes an impressive record with him in the ring Tuesday night. He has measures the likes of Joe Louis, Harry "Kid" Matthews and Lee Savoldi and finished all three in convincing fashion.

There will be no television in homes or broadcasts of the game; however, television will be able to take place throughout the nation. Closest to the Portland area will be the Oregonian theatre in Seattle.

On the Walcott-Marciano bill will be the famed "run out" Brilly Smith, who made "fight corny" history in Portland two years back with his fade out act in the civic auditorium.

Jersey Joe to Defend Heavyweight Title Tuesday

Twenty-five years to the night the jersey Joe Walcott-Rocky Marciano fight is to be held, September 23, Gene Tunney lifted Jack Dempsey's heavyweight crown and the big question Tuesday will be can Cinderella Man, aging Joe Walcott, maintain his heavy crown.

Marciano takes an impressive record with him in the ring Tuesday night. He has measured the likes of Joe Louis, Harry "Kid" Matthews and Lee Savoldi and finished all three in convincing fashion.
