  - 1. Questions for Administrators

Questions for Vice President M. Holland, from the Senate Steering Committee:

- a. You presented the elimination of the "Assistant Dean for Student Development" position as a budget savings, and have stated to this Senate that all of the reductions in Student Affairs so far mandated by you are because of Measure 5.

What is the dollar amount of the savings you will realize because of the "elimination" of the position of Assistant Dean for Student Development--given the fact that you simultaneously created a "new position" of "Acting Assistant Dean of Students," whose responsibilities are essentially identical?

- b. The General Policy of the Student Conduct Code, while providing for due process, reads:

...informal resolution of student conduct problems will be sought whenever possible. (577-31-125, para (3))

How many disciplinary cases are on the current agenda of OSA, and how long have they been in process? How many discipline cases have gone to a Contested Case Hearing in the past year? In the past two years?

- c. What current staff have been re-assigned in the past six months, and are any of them to be terminated?
  - 1) What are their new assignments?
  - 2) When are staff to be terminated, if at all?
  - 3) Who is the senior person on your staff responsible for Minority Affairs?

    - a. Question for Provost Michael Reardon from the Senate Steering Committee: Have any PSU faculty members been given any personnel notices (e.g., termination) by E-Mail? Is there a formal or informal PSU policy on these practices?
    - b. Question for Provost Michael Reardon from the Senate Steering Committee: Past practice dictates, and the faculty assumption is, that assistant/associate deans and vice-provosts are selected from among faculty and administrators who are tenured at the time of their nomination, hold at least the rank of associate professor, have been faculty members for a substantial period of time, and have considerable academic achievements to their credit. These qualifications give them necessary familiarity with higher education, enable them to command the respect of colleagues whose work they may have to pass judgment on, and allow them to serve as models to their peers. 1. Do you concur with these assumptions? 2. What standards do you desire to see in candidates for assistant/associate deans and assistant or vice-provosts? 3. How are appropriate hiring practices determined, and what input does faculty have in this decision? 4. What determines whether the successful candidate is called assistant or associate dean?

The Faculty Senate will hold its regular meeting on June 6, 1994, at 3:00 p.m. in room 53 Cramer Hall.

The "regular" agenda appears on the third page of this mailing; this page describes procedural items that occur at this time.

SENATE ELECTIONS

The Presiding Officer, The Presiding Officer Pro-Tem, and Faculty Senate Steering Committee for 1994–1995 are elected at the June 1994 meeting of the Faculty Senate. The Constitution requires that all candidates for these positions be 1994–1995 Faculty Senators. Members of the 1994–1995 Faculty Senate nominate candidates for these positions, and vote in a secret ballot.

SENATORS ARE ENCOURAGED TO CAREFULLY CONSIDER POTENTIAL NOMINEES FOR THESE IMPORTANT POSITIONS, AND TO DISCUSS CANDIDATES WITH THEIR COLLEAGUES. MANY VITAL ISSUES WILL REQUIRE SENATE ACTION, AND A REPRESENTATIVE SENATE STEERING COMMITTEE WILL HELP GUIDE THE PATH.

The next page is the list of 1994–1995 Senators.

COMMITTEE ON COMMITTEES

The following Constitutional rules describe the process for determining Committee on Committees representation:

"When a division has an opening on the Committee on Committees, the division shall caucus to elect its representative(s). The meeting will be called by the outgoing representative on the Committee on Committees.... Normally, the caucus will take place after Senate election results are announced in May.... A majority of all division Senators or their alternates shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Within three days after the June Senate meeting, the Secretary to the Faculty shall be informed, in writing, of the Committee on Committees representative(s), along with the names of those present at the meeting."

Most new Committee on Committees members are elected for a two-year term (the Extended Studies and Library representatives are elected for one-year terms). The divisions shown below elect members (number listed in parentheses) at this time. I have sent a memo asking the person noted below to conduct the caucus for that division.

All Others, Gene Hakanson (one)
Business Administration, Don Watne (one)
Education, Loyde Hales (one)
Extended Studies, Tony Midson (one)
Liberal Arts and Sciences, Pat Wetzel (two)
Library, Jim Kimball (one)
Social Work, Harold Briggs (one)
Urban and Public Affairs, Annette Jolin (one)
