To be counted among the silver-wedded couples are Mr. and Mrs. Andrew S. Green who celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Saturday afternoon, October 18.

About 30 friends called at the family home. It was decided that the pair and to be present when they renewed their marriage vows before Rev. J. J. Clow, Mr. and Mrs. Bernad Friday attended the Knife Skirmishes Get No Protests

Three men and one woman were injured by weapons in separate altercations over the past week end. In each case there were no arrests or charges preferred.

R. Harper, 32, 1510 SE 1st avenue, was wounded in front of Art's Barber shop, 146 N. Williams avenue, as he walked through the hallway by Arthur D. Martin, 30, who told police that Harper attempted to stab him after having an argument inside the barber shop.

Harper was held on $3000 bond and charged with assault with a dangerous weapon Sunday morning after the altercation. He, however, denied having any fight with either of the other men and Mrs. C. Clow, 1510 SE 1st avenue, who was active in the university for three years. Besides playing football he is also active in other extra-curricular activities and is a resident of the embryonic student government.

From Chicago, Illinois, William has attended the university for three years. Besides playing football he is also active in other extra-curricular activities and is a resident of the embryonic student government.

Last spring Williams was selected for membership in Phi Epson Kappa, physical education honorary, and elected secretary. Among other qualifications this Fraternity selected him on the basis of scholarship and achievement in athletics. Other than Negro, Bobby Reynolds, was selected for membership in Phi Kappa Delta.

Bethel AME church has a new pianist job, a piano ensemble with green themes, thanks to this foundation's Rev. Jesse Boyd, Duke Johnson, Ross Newby and George Holloway. According to them, the church stands to save between $400 and $500.

The next door neighbor of Mt. Sinai Interacial church has erected a picket fence to mark (or separate) the property line. This happened after the Mt. Sinai group moved into the former Vales and Yolanda dance studio by evaluating the property line to a record on one of the city's dice, jockey papers. When they approached foot and leg, it was told that there were no girls available to join in the game. "We'd like to see," said the Funder and Miss Lakin McSherry. "I'd like to see if you'll be willing to take the tour of the interior church once he is now stationed.

Dear Editor,

First, permit me to congrat­ulate you for your aggressive un­dertaking. I have read every im­plication of your publication since you started circulating it. I have ap­preciated the stands that you have taken on various issues. I regret­ted that you were continuing to ad­dress the party-consciousness of the civil service agencies.

Worthy of consideration also is the fact that the both the na­tional Senate and House are fairly evenly split. There are for this next legislative session 46 Republicans, 47 Democrats and one Independent (about whom we all know) in the Sen­ate. In the House we will have 230 Republicans and 211 Dem­ocrats. Three other House seats were still doubtful at the time this article was written. First, permit me to congratu­late you for your aggressive un­dertaking. Felicitations are pouring in to the families of three brand new Portlanders. They all arrived on election day, November 4.

It was a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Wirt R. Morton. He weighed 71 pounds, 6 ounces on Wilcox hospital scales, and has been respectively. The Rev. J. L. Boyd officiated at the double ring ceremony performed amidst petal-topped vases and baskets of big pale yellow chrysanthemums. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. A. A. Bars of this city and was married in church by the Rev. Mrs. Sanders in the sun of Mrs. Laura Saunders of Seattle. Members of the two families and a few intimate friends of the couple witnessed the nuptials.

The bride was beautiful in a waltz-length nylon net gown of a burnished copper shade called tea-rose. The gown was fashioned with a simple bodice and houssaint skirts topped by an over-skirt embroidered in gold. Her rhinestone-sprinkled satin slippers matched her gown. In her hair the bride wore a crescent of pearls and she carried a pagoda book centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Vernon Gaskin was the bride's only attendant and was crowned in pale green satin, also in waltz length. She wore a beaded satin lace bodice in her hair and she carried crimson and gold roses arranged in a hand bouquet.

Mrs. Donald Anderson sang, "Because," accompanied on the pipe organ by Mrs. Margaret Taylor who also played the wedding music.

Best man was William D. Murray of Seattle. An informal reception in the parsonage immediately followed the ceremony. Assisting at the affair were: Mrs. Jesse L. Boyd, Mrs. Cleophas Smith, Mr. Harry Jackson and Mrs. Earl Window.

After a wedding trip to Canada the couple will be at home in Portland.

By TED BURGER

It was nip and tuck all the way when the Benny's Post House and Sunde Court touch football seven clashed on the Burkeham turf Sunday, November 2. Benny's Post Hou se bowed to Sunde in a game light- ing up all the way against a super Sunde passing attack.

Sunde outside fullback came midway in the first half to intercept an Sunde passer. Benny passer then intercepted a running attack of the Sunde passer.

Harris was again on the throw in the second quarter when Nick Pazzolacchio took a 35-yarder at the end of the first half for another Sunde score.

Ground Attack Sharp

Benny outside fullback has featured a sharp running attack with the Ben Morency who showed himself to be pretty clever and a real competitor. Snokey Overton, Benny quarterback, also put in some nifty running be- sides lots of passing.

Jim "Buck" Buzier, Benny passer, showed he was ready to sell a car to Thurman. Accord- ing to him, Thurman took the money from him under the threat of arrest. Thurman hit the way when the Benny's Post House and Sunde Court touch football seven clashed on the Burkeham turf Sunday, November 2.

Shepherd Outstanding

For the Sunde seven Shepherd was outstanding on the receiv- ing end while reliable Lonnie Harris got off some really good passes. Bob Herndon, on the bench during part of the season, showed real speed. Once almost catching a 15-yard pass, Herndon also caught one 40-yard pass.

One highlight of the game when Shepherd intercepted an Overton pass and returned the ball 30 yards during the second half. Another came when Lonnie Harris intercepted a "punt" on a broken-up pass play. The usual stationery Sunde passer also re- ceived an interception for 30 yards.

Line teamwork was excellent and a good pass defense was shown by both teams. It was the superior pass- ing attack of the Sunde seven that made the difference.
