Dr. Thompkins To Speak At Eagle Auditorium August 21st

Dr. Wm. J. Thompkins
Pres. Nat. Col. Dem. Association
Grand Health Commissioner
I. B. P. O. E. of W.

Definite arrangements have been made for Dr. Wm. J. Thompkins, Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia and President of the National Colored Democratic Association to speak at the Eagle's Auditorium at 8 p. m. August 21. Dr. Thompkins will appear here under the auspices of the Washington State Colored Democratic Club Inc. of which W. Arthur Dixon of Tacoma is president, and Edward Pitter of Seattle is Secretary and State Organizer. Dr. Thompkins is not only an acknowledged Negro leader, but an outstanding American citizen, and without question the greatest Negro Democrat the nation has ever produced. Born of Democratic parents in Jefferson City, Missouri fifty-six years ago, he has lived in a democratic environment ever since. Often scorned and rebuked by Negro Republican leaders for his activities on behalf of the Democratic party, Dr. Thompkins clung to his belief that the cause of the Negroes of this nation as a whole should be further advanced by a division of the Negro vote among two major political parties.

Dr. Thompkins lived to see the fruits of his labors reap their reward. In 1924 when John W. Davis was a candidate for president in 1928 during the candidacy of Al Smith and in 1932 during the first campaign of President Roosevelt, he was placed in charge of the Negro Democratic voters in all states west of the Mississippi, and when the tabulations came that final November day in 1932, every single state under his charge was in the Roosevelt column, many of which were the direct result of the Negro voters among whom Dr. Thompkins had worked.

Recognizing his worth to the Democratic party, President Roosevelt appointed him in 1933 to the cherished position of Recorder of Deeds for the District of Columbia, the appointment being distinguished by its unanimous confirmation by the United States Senate.

Dr. Thompkins has brought to his position in the government a new dignity and a record of achievement yet unequalled. He has the respect and admiration of the President, the cooperation of every branch of the Federal and District Governments and all of the employees of both branches. He is a man who has clearly demonstrated that a task with a vision is a victory by building the National Colored Democratic Association from a membership of three or four with whom he brought it into being, to a voting strength of more than three million.

Funeral Rites For Mrs. Ida M. Riley

In a beautiful ceremony in its simplicity and largely attended by friends, Mrs. Ida May Riley Street, well known citizen of thirty years residence in Seattle, was laid to rest at Lakeview Cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Street was born in Kansas City, Kansas and in 1896 became the wife of the late Sydney Riley with whom she lived until his death in 1916. Two daughters, Miss Clara Riley and Mrs. Lillian Campbell, both deceased, were born to this union. In 1928 she married Benjamin B.

Street, a valued citizen of Seattle with whom she lived happily until her death.

Mrs. Street gave unstintingly of her time to church service and Fraternal organizations. She was a loyal and devoted member of the First A. M. E. Church of Seattle, joining that denomination upon her arrival in Seattle thirty years ago. She was a member of Queen Esther Temple No. 7 S. M. T.'s, Hesperides Tabernacle No. 42 Knights and Daughters of Tabor and Sarah W. Dupee Court No. 19 Heroines of Jericho. These activities coupled with a spotless character and love of home life, exemplified in her those sterling qualities which win and retain lasting friendship and numbered her among the representative and valuable citizens of her race.

Mrs. Street is survived by a husband, Benjamin B. Street, two grand daughters, Mrs. Deloris Codrington, and Miss Alma Jackson, of Seattle, two brothers, Fred and Duke Williams of Kansas City, Kansas, and a host of friends. Funeral services were held at the First A. M. E. Church under the auspices of Queen Esther Temple No. 7 S. M. T.'s and Sarah W. Dupee Court No. 19 Heroines of Jericho. The funeral service was read by Rev. L. R. Hayes, Pastor, who clearly brought out the fact that it matters not how long one may live, but it is how one lives that counts.

Royal Brougham, P. I. Sports Writer Sponsors Race Golfers

By E. I. R.

Royal Brougham, ace sports writer for the Seattle Post Intelligencer, divining hole-in-one Race golfers, enters his find in the Joe Louis open golf tournament at Rakaf Golf Course in Detroit, Michigan, August 12-13-14; Ben Beasley, Olympic Golf Club, Lonnie Shields, Broadmore and Art Spencer, Rainier.

Royal Brougham, whose superior as a true sportsman is yet unborn, personally interested the three golf clubs named in raising funds to enter the Race golfers in the Joe Louis tournament.

Winners in their own golf tournaments, Brougham enters them in a field of national professionals and amateurs.

Brougham's uncanny naming of future hopes for the charmed circle intrigued the members and friends of Olympic, Broadmore and Rainier Clubs to finance his "hopes" to Detroit. They did to the tune of more than one thousand dollars. Beasley left by train Monday night; Lonnie Shields motored to St. Paul and will continue his journey by train; Art Spencer takes the air.

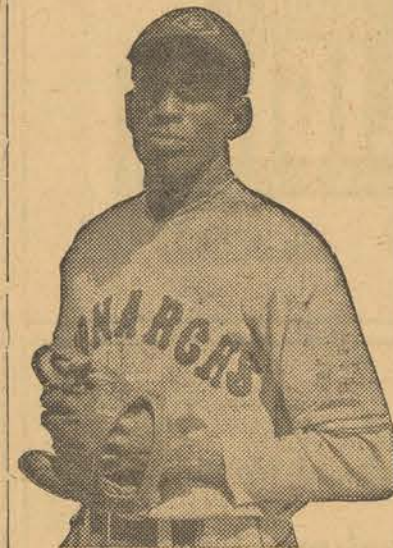

If the "hopes" are as fortunate on the course as they have been in getting there, Royal Brougham should be able to share a slab of bacon with the golf clubs.

Royal Brougham is the peer of all true sports: The unanimous verdict of Race lovers of sport in the Northwest.

Paige Pitches In Seattle August 19

Satchel Paige, greatest colored ball player in history, is coming to Seattle.

The giant Negro with a fastball which experts claim is harder to hit than Bob Feller's will fly from Detroit to pitch for the Kansas City Monarchs in a return game with the House of Davids.

Paige will pitch at Sick Stadium August 19, at which time the colored world champions will attempt to avenge their recent defeat by the bearded team in Seattle. Red Biggers turned in a remarkable game, holding the Monarchs to one hit.

A Job For All Of Us

Now that the President has put up the stop sign on all discrimination on account of race, color, creed, or national origin to industries with government contracts for national defense purposes, it is the job of all of us to see that his edict is obeyed. First there must be a clear understanding of what the order means.

What The Executive Order Means

Briefly it amounts to this:

1. All vocational training programs for defense operated under government supervision must be open to all persons desiring training for defense industries, regardless of the persons' race, color, creed or national origin. This includes all courses in industrial skills operated under the supervision of the WPA, NYA, U. S. Office of Education, and local programs receiving assistance from the federal agencies.

2. All contracts granted after June 25 when the executive order was issued, by the U. S. government (including all its departments and agencies like the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Office of Production Management and others) must have clauses in them which state that the company or companies getting the contract will not discriminate against any worker because of his race, creed, color or national origin.

3. The Committee on Fair Employment Practices composed of six men, two colored, four white, with an executive secretary soon to be employed, is responsible only to the President. Its work is to receive legitimate, factual complaints of discrimination in defense industries or vocational training for defense work; investigate these complaints, and where it finds the charges justified, to take steps necessary to see that the executive order is obeyed. Members of the Committee on Fair Employment Practices are Mark Ethridge, managing editor of the Louisville, Ky. Courier-Journal, chairman; David Sarnoff, president of the Radio Corporation of America, New York; Earl B. Dickerson, alderman, Chicago, Ill.; Milton P. Webster, vice-president of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters; William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Philip Murray, president of the Congress of Industrial Organizations. When the executive secretary to the committee is appointed complaints should be sent to him.

How To Make The Exec. Order Work

In order to make the work of the FEP Committee mean the most to us and to prevent any employer from disobeying the order, it is the responsibility of every Negro American to;

1. Send all known instances of discrimination on account of race or color by industrial plants with government contracts for defense to the Committee on Fair Employment Practices in care of the chairman, Mark Ethridge, Washington, D. C., until the appointment of the executive secretary, who should then receive the complaints.

Facts should be clearly and accurately set forth preferably in the form of an affidavit.

2. Send a copy of the complaints to the National Office of the NAACP, 69 Fifth Avenue, New York City, and retain one for your own files.

3. Send all known instances of discrimination on account of race or color in vocational schools for government defense work operated by or under a government agency to the committee. Exercise the same care and accuracy with these statements.

4. Send a copy of this complaint to the NAACP national office and retain one for your files.

5. Learn what vocational training courses are offered in the community and urge that all eligible persons register for them.

6. Check each plant working in government defense orders in your locality and make a thorough investigation of its employment policies so that it may be instantly known if any plant violates the executive order.

Make use of the five sets of contract lists sent from the New York office of the N. A. A. C. P. to the local branch in determining which plants are in your locality and the amount copies of these contract lists are still available at the New and kinds of contracts granted them. Limited supply of York office.

CAUTION: Jobs will be opened faster and the FEP committee can function more effectively if each complaint which is sent is a clear, concise, complete statement of facts, and facts only. Accuracy is of the utmost importance since the work of the FEP Committee means jobs for thousands of Negroes.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — This city will have its second opportunity in eight years to see on Tuesday, August 26, a most novel and picturesque parade by scores of units in the Improved Benevolent Protective Order, Elks of the World, which will inaugurate its 42nd annual Grand Lodge on Sunday, August 24. Prizes worth more than $1,000 will be offered for competition.

This order, which claims more than 100,000 members in 42 states, the Dominion of Canada, the West Indies and Africa, draws no color line. A Spanish Lodge and Temple were organized four years ago in New York City with 1500 members and an all-Negro Lodge, with 1,000 members in Cape Town, Africa.

The convention of Grand Lodge and Grand Temple will mark their first visit to Atlantic City since 1934. In the intervening period the order has hit the all-high record in membership and useful activity. The Elks of the World boast hundreds of Lodges, Temples, P. E. R. Councils, 11 o'clock Clubs, Oil Burners, Antlered Guards, Juveniles, Purple Cross organizations and other units.

In its membership are the only Negro Congressman, a former Congressman Corporation attorneys, district attorneys college presidents, school superintendents, physicians, teachers, musicians, shining lights of the stage, sheriffs and policemen from Massachusetts to Texas. In fact, it is a large cross section of Negro national life.

The I. B. P. O. E. of W. established years ago an Educational Commission, a novelty in fraternal organizations at the time, under general direction of the Grand Exalted

HERE'S MORE ABOUT Satchel Paige

"Old Satchel's" most recent appearance was in St. Louis, where he pitched before 15,000 fans and won. He derived his name from his enormous feet, which are the largest in baseball. But his prestige comes from his smoking fast-ball, which has won him the tag, "The Black Walter Johnson."

When "Old Satchel" steps on the mound and a cheer goes up from the crowd, don't forget the peer of all sports, Royal Brougham. Give him a cheer also, because he sponsors this game to aid the U. S. O. drive.

More About Elks Convention

Washington D. C., where his official headquarters are maintained, has grown with the years, having served longer than any other three grand exalted rulers, surviving all opposition, organized or sporadic. He is also grand patriarch of the daughters.

He is generally regarded as a "masterly fraternal builder and leader," and has been called the "greatest student of Negro psychology among more than 13,000,000 or his compatriots in the country. He is yet under 60 years, with a gracious wife, who is a helpmate in the home and in the Order, and one of the greatest of all Grand Temple organizers. She is a product of the South, having first seen the light at Richmond, Va.

Finely, as he is more familiarly known, is the son of a Baptist minister, who was a Civil War veteran. He has run the gamut of Negro activities, usual and rare, from Pullman porter, boniface, peddler, newsboy, editor, fraternal organizer and spellbinder.

He has the rare faculty of gathering around him outstanding men of the race, who form a cabinet that advises but does not dictate his policies.

James E. Kelly, a power in Alabama, with headquarters in Birmingham, has been grand secretary for years, and Judge Edward W. Henry of Philadelphia, the grand treasurer, both having been re-elected repeatedly by acclamation.

The aggressive director of Civil Liberties is Hobson R. Reynolds of Philadelphia. Brazil J. Bryant of Detroit is chairman of trustees. When the I. B. P. O. E. of W.'s Elk activities, the Grand Lodge employed the best obtainable legal talent to function with its own grand legal adviser, Perry W. Howard of Mississippi, and eventually it had all restrictions killed.

Final action was taken only four years ago, following complete withdrawal of all opposition by the B. P. O. E. Grand Lodge at Denver. Thereupon the Tennessee brethren joined with the World Elks in having all bans removed, and the Negro lodges, temples and other units sprang into extraordinary activity. The fight there was led by the political nestor, Robert R. Church of Memphis, who financed the battle and has been made a past grand exalted ruler.

Daughter Elks Active
Daughter Elks were organized 39 years ago at Norfolk, Va., by the late Mrs. Emma V. Kelley, mother of the present most efficient grand secretary, Buena V. Kelley.

very existence was threatened a few years ago by a movement originating among the B.P.O.E. of New York, which spread into Tennessee where a perpetual injunction was placed against Negro Elks.

Its grand daughter ruler is Mrs. Elizabeth Gorden of Washington, D. C., who succeeded the late lamented Abbie M. Johnson of Philadelphia at St. Louis last year.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kimbough, Brooklyn, is grand treasurer; Mrs. Kate H. Steele, of Chicago, grand recorder; Mrs. Minnie T. Wright, of Boston, grand directress of Education.

There are more than 400 temples and Junior Elk units with a membership of approximately 45,000.

Some of the temples are most prosperous and many own their "homes" spacious, ornate and costly.

Those which have bar connected with their ceteras and dispense intoxicating liquors debar women from being served at bars, the Grand Lodge having frowned upon the practice at Cleveland four years ago. The rule also governs the home of all Elk lodges and other units.

City councilman, James Scavatto, has gone on record as rapping the practice of discrimination at public parks. He was acting mayor of the city for a day during the recent bit of playfulness in the city government. The management of the new swimming pool at Lincoln park had been practicing discrimination. Mr. Scavatto said for them to stop such un-American practices. It is not discouraging to know that we have a friend in the council.

Cool Comfort In August

Summer again is visiting the Evergreen Playground, bringing with it the welcome vacation days and the many pleasures of the warm weather season.

In the home, summer presents its problems to those whose kitchens are overheated by outmoded cooking equipment, and whose only source of hot water is coils in furnace or stove, or some manually operated method which must be watched lest the tank get too hot.

Happy are the families whose spotless electric ranges do the family cooking without overheating the kitchen, and whose water-heating problems are solved by an automatic electric storage tank, with constant temperature control, supplying them day and night with an abundant supply of hot water, ready for cleansing showers, for family laundry, for quick morning shaving, and for the myriad cleaning tasks presented to the homemaker by children home from school and vacation guests.

The All-Electric way has solved the year-round problem for thousands of Seattle families who give it their whole-hearted endorsement. If you have not tried the All-Electric way, by all means talk with some friend who has. You'll want it too.

Portland Society Is Busy Circle

Although domiciled at the home of Mrs. Lillian Baker, during her short stay of a week here, Mrs. Rilla Drake of Seattle, was visiting her friend, Mrs. Odessa Freeman, formerly of Seattle. On Friday, Mrs. Baker invited a group of young women in for an informal afternoon to meet Mrs. Drake. She left Sunday afternoon for Seattle.

Among the charming hostesses last week was Mrs. Sidney Porter, Sr. in S. E. Gladstone, for a lovely informal dinner Friday evening to compliment Mrs. Joseph Taylor, of Omaha, Neb. For the honoree's pleasure Mrs. Porter served Oregon's famous Chinook salmon and black cod, with accompanying viands. Covers were placed for eight. While they dined, the guests were entertained with recordings made recently by Sidney, Jr. His wife, (the former Cora Franklin) manipulated the machine from which the radio picked up the recordings. They are very fine.

Pleasure of the evening was prolonged when Mrs. Porter was hostess at 8:30 for the Searchlight Club of Mt. Olivet Church. Mrs. Porter, president of the club, disclosed the club's objective for this year as being the big responsibility of paying off a mortgage indebtedness on the church prior to the coming of Rev. Clow. In a few months the club has greatly reduced this debt. Visitors presented Mrs. Joseph Taylor, Mrs. Franklin and Mrs. M. Duncan. Rev. and Mrs. Clow added inspiration by their presence and remarks. Delectable refreshments climaxed the evening.

The home of Dr. and Mrs. Unthank in S. E. 29th was the scene of a colorful luncheon last Friday for the pleasure of several out of town visitors sharing Portland's hospitality. The hostess used salmon pink glaze profusely about the rooms and as a center piece for the dining table which was new in silver and crystal on lace. The three courses, a combination melon ball cocktail, fried chicken and strawberry shortcake, substantiated any and all reports that Mrs. Unthank does know the art of culinary. Bridge was the diversion for the 16 ladies. Mrs. Lee J. Pernell, Sr. sent regrets. She left for Oakland on this day. Out of town guests were Mrs. B. T. Fowles, Columbus, Ga., Mrs. Richard Gaskin, Mrs. Joseph Taylor, both of Omaha, Neb., Mrs. Bessie Parker and Mrs. Justine Maloney of Wash. D. C.

Miss Ozie Jane Mott, here for a few days' vacation, is enjoying the comforts of her home, association of her mother, Mrs. B. Reed, her sisters, Eunice and Jessie plus a circle of friends. Mrs. Reed is taking an "At Home" vacation and enjoying it immensely.

Dr. Elks Honor New Members

Daughter Elks of Dahlia Temple No. 202, gave a gala party last week at the home of Daughter Ruler, Letha Peck. The party, to welcome and get acquainted with the new Daughters, served well its purpose; of course the Daughters were ably assisted by the Brothers of Billy Webb Lodge, I. B. P. O. E. of W.

On arrival, each lady was presented with a corsage made in the lodge colors. Dancing was the diversion. At the eleventh hour, the Elks' toast was given by Bro. C. Evans, followed by a delicious buffet supper. To complete the evening, the Brother Elks herded the party to the Fraternal Cocktail lounge for cocktails and toast. Out of town guests; Mrs. J. Douglas, Mrs. L. Burgin and Miss Jayne Motley of Kansas. Daughter Elks in the party were Rose Crane, Irine Duke, M. Friday, Cecile Lucas, Arnetta Morris, Letha Peck, Marine Smith, Alice Smith, Johnnie May Taylor, Minnie Taylor and Ann Morrison. Brothers—Exalted Ruler, O. Childress, F. D. Ford, Jason Fontain, C. Evans, Ross Newby, Henry Strawder, Oliver Smith and James Rivers. H. Duke and Joe Crane were other guests. In the wee hours, guests departed grateful to hostess and hosts.

Portlanders Fete Californians

Mrs. Lee J. Pernell, Sr. left Friday for home after three weeks of pleasant visiting in the Rose City, guest of her son Lee and Family. Mrs. Pernell, whose home is in Oakland, was accompanied by her grand daughter, Joyce. They shared their stay with Mrs. Lillian Baker and other friends of the family's. To make their stay more pleasant, Mrs. Henry Miles, in N. E. Sacramento, gave a beautifully appointed luncheon for 12 ladies to further compliment the Bay City. Mrs. Clara Logan was breakfast hostess Friday prior to their departure late the same day. Sightseeing trips about the city and highways to better acquaint them with its beauty and grandeur and the generosity of Portlanders, endeared Mrs. Pernell and Joyce to this fair city.

A trip of relaxation, spelled with capitol, was actually adhered to by Mr. and Mrs. William Heard, of Los Angeles, who spent a well rounded out three week's vacation in Oregon. Immediately following their arrival here to visit Mrs. Heard's sister, Mrs. Minnie Crawford, they were joined by Mrs. Crawford and her daughter, Mrs. Thelma Flowers for a jaunt to Vancouver, B. C. for a scenic trip. Back in Portland, they soon left for the north beaches where they found complete relaxation. The Irvin Flowers joined the party and accompanied them to their beach home at Depo Bay. They found clamming and fishing ideal with a fine catch. The Heards left Saturday with a rare case of nostalgia from the fragrance of Portland's gardens, Oregon's scented firs, pines, salt waters of the mighty Columbia and a sun tan old sol just doesn't paint down in Sunny Calif.

Funeral Rites For Edward Cannady

George and Ivan Cannady with their wives arrived last Wednesday night by motor from Los Angeles, to complete arrangements and be in attendance at the funeral of their father Edward Cannady, who died Saturday, July 26th, following a prolonged illness. Funeral rites were solemnized Friday, Aug. 1. Father L. O. Stone, Vicar of St. Phillip, officiated. Miss Barbara Hubbard was soloist. Miss Eunice Beryl Mott, by request read the obituary (put up by the family) and dedicated a poem "Comrade Rides Afar." The poem was sent by Mrs. Beatrice Cannady Franklin, former wife of the deceased. Many beautiful flowers expressed esteem and memory of friends. Interment was in Lincoln Memorial Park.

Former Residents Renew Friendships

Although their trip here, arriving last Wednesday, was one of business, George and Ivan Cannady, with their wives, were kept busy every minute of the time except of course that time allowed for business.

George, eldest of the brothers, related to a press reporter, that it was great being back to ye old home town to meet and greet so many old and young friends, school and class mates. "We are pleased over the way our business was handled relieving us of much anxiety; we are grateful for kindness shown by our hostess and her daughters and the many social courtesies. We appreciate the warm, hearty welcome accorded our wives, on this, their first trip to Portland." The boys and their charming wives were dinner guests Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Clara Pickett. Had dinner Saturday with their uncle, Chas. Jamison, and their cousin, John in S. E. Holgate.

Domiciled at the spacious home of Mrs. Beatrice Reed, a close friend of the Cannadys for a number of years, afforded their many friends an opportunity to call. Sunday evening many took advantage of this opportunity and swamped the youthful visitors with pop calls. Irresistible, as putting it mildly, speaking of sparkling punch served during calling hours.

Later Sunday evening a group joined them at Fraternal Hall for cocktails and supper. For breakfast Monday to compliment the Cannadys, Mrs. Elsie Maney, at her home prepared home made rolls, coffee cake, scrambled eggs, sausage, glazed pineapple and coffee. With the honorees were Miss Rosa Spears, Miss Ozie Jane Mott and her mother Mrs. B. Reed. Monday evening, amid a grand rush, packing for their departure, they were deluged with friends for a final get-together and send off. At 11 p. m. it was adios and happy landing. En route they stopped in Oakland, Berkeley and San Francisco to visit friends.

Juniors Step Out

Last week end, Portland's young and younger set had their elders standing by as they (Beau Brummels and Ladies Fair) followed the modern trend in gay parties. First of these frolics was at the Branch Y when a group of the late teen agers honored Theodore Ingersoll, Jr. and Bobbie Gragg, prior to their leave of the city. Theodore, goes to Los Angeles, where he will enter the University of Southern California in the fall. Bobbie goes on an extended vacation trip with his parents. Mrs. Gladys Ingersoll, Mrs. and Gustavia Winslow chaperoned the party of 35. Gobs of potato salad, hot dogs and punch was the hearty repast.

On Friday at the Y, the Bethel Live Wires (true to their name) gave a surprise going away party for Mrs. Lula Gragg (who with her family left Sunday for Texas, and they will stop at several cities en route.) Guests numbered 30. They played games and enjoyed delicious refreshments. The club gave Mrs. Gragg a practical gift. She and Mrs. Bernice Allen are supervisors of the Club. Lurline Gibbs, president, was ably assisted with the party by Blanche Graves, Bernice Williams and Joyce Hillard.

Mother And Father Surprise Son

There are surprises and surprises and believe us, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Caldwell know just how to do it. They evidenced this fact Thursday evening, July 31 when they gave their son, Alfred a surprise dinner on his natal day. As shrewd or should we say nose, as Alfred is, they really put this one by him. Friends kept him out for the day while decorating of the home, roasting the turkey and other last minute details were completed. A color scheme of pink and white was used in the living and dining rooms. The center piece on the dining room of pink gladiolus was incircled by white tapers in silver candelabras. Two cakes, a pink and a white, beautifully decorated, enhanced the attractive table lighted by candles.

Place cards and napkins bore evidence of the colors.

Cheered and lauded by the many guests, Alfred, in one breath, (Strong man, eh?) blew out all 20 candles on his cake. Greeting cards, telegrams and practical gifts were read and displayed at the table before the guests retired to the recreation room for dancing. Halt! To complete the surprise (this time on the guests) announcement was made of the engagement of Alfred and Annabell Shelton. Ruby Irene Kirk and Earl Fletcher, guests recently betrothed, shared the joy that Alfred and Annabell were experiencing. Other than the above named, guests were Harriet and Ila Fuller, Bernice Williams, Jessie Flowers and Delores, Alfred's sister; Gordon and Bobbie Thomas, Lloyd Gaskin, R. B. Wesley, John Foster, Walter and Robert Reynolds. Guests at not too late an hour departed, wishing the honoree many happy returns of the day.

As a climax, a still younger set, with William Hillard and John Minor Jr. as hosts, entertained for their little friend, Chas. "Chuckie" Gragg at a party Saturday evening at William's home in S. E. Kelly. The party was grand, every one had a good time—plenty of eats and games with big candy bars as prizes. William confides that Earline and Betty, John's sister and Dorothy, his sister, helped in a financial way to make the party a success. "Of course, John and I arranged the party," said William.

Mrs. Susie Reed gave a party Tuesday for the pleasure of Joan and Bernard Gravelli, young socialites of Oakland, who are visiting their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bollen of S.E. 50th Ave.
