THOUGHT

Try to make at least one person happy every day, and then in ten years you may have made three thousand, six hundred and fifty persons happy, or brightened a small town by your contribution to the fund of general enjoyment.

CLUB SONG

(Tune, "The Old Refrain")

With heart and hands we strive to do the best;
Our eyes upon the highest peak
doth rest;
Honor and Culture both we have
in view,
Friendship and Loyalty and Courage, too,
As onward up the path we daily go;
We falter much, our steps are often slow,
But for God's helping Grace we
daily pray;
His Hands for us will ever point
the way.
So to our tasks we go without
a fear--
We know "To labor is a pleasure"
here;
A smile and song for all along
the way--
The Culture Club lives on from day to day.

IN MEMORIAM
OUR DECEASED MEMBERS

WHEN ALL IS DONE

When all is done, and my last word is
said,
And ye who loved me murmur, "He is dead," Let no one weep, for fear that I should know,
And sorrow, too, that ye should sorrow so.

When all is done and in the oozing clay,
Ye lay this cast-off hull of mine away,
Pray not for me, for, after long despair,
The quiet of the grave will be a prayer.

For I have suffered loss and grievous pain,
The hurts of hatred and the world's dis-
dain,
And wounds so deep that love, well-tried
and pure,
Had not the pow'r to ease them or to cure.

When all is done, say not my day is o'er,
And that thro' might I seek a dimmer
shore,

Say rather that my morn has just begun,--
I greet the dawn and not a setting sun,
When all is done.

OUR DECEASED MEMBERS
(Trans.) IN MEMORIAM

" M E M O "

When all is done, and my last word is
 said,
 And ye who loved me murmur, "He is dead,"
 Let no one weep, for fear that I should
 And sorrow, too, that ye should sorrow,
 When all is done and in this cooling place
 Ye lay this care-off bill of mine away,
 Pray not for me, for, after I have passed,
 The dust of this grave will be a prayer,
 For I have suffered loss and grievance
 The hurts of hatred and the world's dis-
 And wounds so deep that love, well-tried
 Had not the power to ease them or to cure
 When all is done, and my last word is
 said,
 Say rather that my mourn has
 I greet the dawn and not a setting sun,
 When all is done.
