The Albina Neighborhood Service Center will hold a mass meeting at the Albina Child Care Center Thursday, September 19, at 7:30 p.m.

The Neighborhood Board and OEO representatives from the regional office in San Francisco will be discussing the function and need of the center's program.

When interviewed in his office, Mr. Rozell Gilmore, Executive Director of the center stated:

"The primary objective of the center has been to help poor people get services and jobs.

He further stated, "The time has come for the residents to give their views as to whether they think the center is needed. I hope many residents from Albina will turn out and voice their opinions."

The center has just completed a survey project for Model Cities. The project was quite revealing and will help greatly in Model Cities planning.

This project allowed the center to hire some 50 people, most of whom were poor. This is only one example of what the center is doing.

It is hoped that the residents of the Albina Area will turn out in great numbers to make their wishes known about what they want for their neighborhood.

New Activities

New activities have been added and summer schedules changed to fit the back-to-school routine of children and their families in the Highland Community Center area.

A supervised study time, with college students and teachers to help with day-to-day class work problems, is offered Monday through Thursday evenings from 7:00 to 9:00. An earlier study hour from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. will be arranged by appointment.

Those interested may call the Center, 284-2107. Information about any of the other activities can be obtained by dialing the same number.

Position Open

DIRECTOR

Mrs. Vernon Thompson, Chairman of the Portland Metropolitan Steering Personnel Committee, announces that applications are being taken for the position of Executive Director of the Steering Committee, the post made vacant by the resignation of Mayfield E. Webb, who leaves that position to become President of The Albina Corporation.

Applications may be picked up at the Albina Neighborhood Service Center. They should be filled out and forwarded to the P.M.S.C., 718 W. Burnside Street, according to Mrs. Thompson. The salary for the job is in the region of $17,000 per annum.
Qualification Or Discrimination

Dear Editor:

I have been reading your paper for quite some time, even though I do not receive it regularly, I do get it often enough to follow it. I enjoy it very much, and feel it is quite a good neighborhood paper.

There are a few things I want to bring to your attention. One is a little more local or area happening, the other, things that are going on in the Albina area everywhere. Since you are publishing my paper for the Albina area, I would like to see a little more interest taken in the area.

I have called your office and have been told that it is a neighborhood paper. The same thing when I discuss it with people on the street.

Since Albina is approximately 40%, black, I figure I can gather, don't you feel the paper should be representative of the whole community? For you are a newspaper that is buyed by, and read by the people. Since Albina is approximately 40% white, from the figures I can gather, don't you feel the paper should be representative of the whole community?

Clean Up Day

A feature of KGW-TV's morning "Telescope" program will be James J. McAllister, Director of the Division of sanitation at the Multnomah County Health Department. McAllister will appear on the program at 9:00 a.m. Monday, September 23, when he will explain the need and the operational methods for the Model Cities Clean up Day scheduled for Saturday, September 28.

Rummage Needed

When was the last time you wore that nice green dress hanging in the back of your closet . . . or that pair of shoes you bought three years ago? Oh, you're wondering why I'm being so personal? Okay, here's the reason:

The Highland United Church of Christ was donated to the Albina neighborhood for services, recreational and educational purposes. We are teaching typing, business machines and office procedures. Due to the fact that we are very badly in need of typewriters, calculators and computers, we have planned a rummage sale to raise funds to purchase this equipment. The sale will be held on October 7, 1968, from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., at the church, which is located at 4635 N. E. 9th Avenue, Portland.

Glad you phoned, . . . even if it was just to “put me down” for calling you a mug­wump! That’s o.k., it’s when we stop talking that we’re in trouble. We may disagree andius and each other, but if we both do some thinking after we hang up, that’s what counts. I don’t claim to have all the answers, but I do have lots of questions and some thoughts. May I need to change some of them.

You told me again about how “good” you are . . . and about going to church . . . and THEN you spent about half an hour giving me rea­sons why you have some peo­ple! I think that must sound strange to you, too.

Maybe it occurred to you that being “good” and “hat­ful” don’t really go together. Hate can get you instead of the one you hate. There’s the man who hated his neigh­bor, so when he saw that his neighbor’s house was on fire, he just sat in his com­fortable armchair in his nice house and said he wouldn’t help that old “no-so-and-so.” He didn’t notice that his own house was also burning until too late. Hate is in your heart, it can spread faster than you think . . . and to love what we have certainly isn’t get­ting us ahead.

We are “stuck” with the “boat” together and if it sinks, we will sink along with it. Maybe it occurred to you that being “good” of both races are not more than a mug­wump any more, My line was that the “mean­ing” don’t really go together. Hate can sink our boat, but fighting doesn’t HAVE to mean guns and knives and fire. When a bullet leaves the “boat” the “good” or who is “bad.” A fire doesn’t pass by the houses of the “good” nor do bullets care if it’s babies and small children they kill. Even if we hate our neigh­bors, is this what we want? There are many other ways of fighting doesn’t have to mean guns and knives and fire. When a bullet leaves the house was also burning until too late. Hate is in your heart, it can spread faster than you think . . . and to love what we have certainly isn’t get­ting us ahead.

Head Start Gets Off To Good Start

Head Start is an enrichment program, designed to prepare children from limited-income families for kindergarten. It is available at six Head Start centers in the Portland area. Children may register at any of the centers before November 15, and half a day for the duration of the program, designed to prepare N. E. 10th Ave. They also come from a low-income family served and free medical and dental care. The child must come from a low-income family and be four years old on or before November 15.

The purpose of this club is to give comfort and help to those in need. There are four groups of young ladies ranging in age from 12 through 14 who will serve nurses visiting homes, performing such duties as are needed to comfort the sick and needy.

Records Available

To Readers

The Vacation Readers have returned and are back in the classrooms of the schools. Hundreds of children were members of the Summer Reading Clubs at the various branches of the Multnomah County Library. As members they travelled thousands of miles to many strange lands and places and as well as close to home for the motto of the clubs was "Vacation Readers Go Everywhere." Memberships end for this year with different events. At Allina Branch Library members may call for their reading lists in which are recorded all the books read by each child during the summer. These lists are useful to the reader, a pride of the parents and of interest to the teachers.

The children's librarian at the North Portland Branch plans to announce the names of those who read the most books at a special meeting which will be designated later. Children who were members at the Vernonia Branch Library will have a party at which juvenile films will be shown and refreshments served. The movie will start at 4:00 p.m., Friday, September 12th. The New猛 Head of Library Branches, will present the reading records to the members.

Meet Faculty

Jefferson High School is having its "Faculty Night" Thursday, September 19, at 7:30 p.m., in the school cafeteria.

The evening is planned to give the community the opportunity to meet the new principal, Mr. W. C. Chasen, and the faculty. The teachers, counselors and new deans will make their first appearance at this time, so that parents may personally meet and say hello.

The "Protest Pride" is the theme this year at Jefferson High School. We are all urged to show the students and administrators that we share this feeling.

The event is open to all school activities to show our confidence and support.

Training

LOS ANGELES — A small

corporation whose officers are all Mormons will conduct a month-long executive training program this month for black 205 Southern California Negro leaders with the help of a $20,000 Carnegie Corp.

grant.

The company, PEDR Corp., of Inglewood, considers the program unique in current attempts to improve race relations.

But the plan also may represent one of the strongest efforts toward racial understanding yet made by a group of Mormon church members.

As Dr. Kent Lloyd, PEDR president and a former University of Southern California faculty member, noted in an interview, the Mormons are accused of racism by militant Negroes.

"This is because of the doctrine of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints, the formal name for the Mormon church.

"The doctrine is founded in a belief that Negroes sometime were cursed anciently and therefore cannot hold the ordinances," he said.

"The church officially supports civil rights for all only for those 205 southern California leaders who are interested in religious or racial discrimination," said Dr. Lloyd, adding that there are numerous committed Mormons such as Gov. George Romney of Michigan who are active supporters of civil rights.

Mormons believe that the doctrine can be change only through revelation to the living president of the church, who presently is, in turn, Dr. David O. McKay.

Dr. Lloyd and Dr. Kendall

D. Price, PEDR executive director, said they have no idea how the Negroes will play their role in the program, but they are interested in the program as a whole and said they will try to look at the program as a whole.

In a face-to-face conference, Multnomah County Commission candidates Donald Clark and Dan Moss will square off at 8:00 p.m. Sunday, September 22, at First Congregational Church’s Fellowship Hall, 1126 S. W. Park Avenue.

In an informal debate form, both candidates will speak on subjects of their own choosing, with a brief rebuttal period and questions from the audience afterward.

Following this portion of the program, at about 9:15, a member of the Portland League of Women Voters’ Senior Speakers Bureau will summarize the ballot measures scheduled to appear at the November general election.

Moss, a Republican, is the incumbent County Commissioner, and Democrat Clark, a college professor, is for-

nor of Sheriff of Multnomah

County.

The Clark-Moss meeting is the third session in a continuing "Meet the Candidates" series sponsored by the Portland League of Women Voters’ Speakers’ Bureau. Tickets are available at the door or by calling the Portland League of Women Voters, 288-5216.

There are several ways to get involved in the Headstart Program. You can volunteer to help at the centers, or you can donate money or supplies to support the program. You can also contact your local school district to find out more about how you can get involved in your community's Headstart Program.

Political Fears Aired

U. S. Senate Candidate Bob

Packwood said in Hood River

today that he is glad to hear that Secretary of State Clay

Myers and his opponent,

George Van Hoomissen, have agreed to meet each other in a joint discussion of the issues.

During the past two months,

Packwood has agreed to meet his opponent Wayne Morse in 23 joint appearances. Morse has categorically turned down

every one of these invitations,

including a four-hour television cast which would have been aired over one of the Portland television stations. This offer included an opportunity for an

any other radio or television station in the state to air this program free of charge.

"By turning down these joint offers, Wayne Morse has obviously deserted principle

for politics," Packwood said.

"The principle of the matter is that the voters of Oregon deserve such debate, and I'm glad to see that Myers and Van

Hoomissen respect that principle," Packwood concluded.
