A VOTE FOR DEWEY

In previous articles I have tried to bring to your attention facts concerning the current presidential campaign that you as a voter should consider long before casting your ballot Tuesday. I have reviewed for you the principles on which the two major parties stand. These have been presented because any reasonable doubts that you may have may be expected to arise from the very beginning, and then finally to determine problems that the Republicans have faced. Perhaps a few of these patterns have made the Republicans few friends. All major gains made by this party have, correspondingly, made enemies.

The principles of the major parties have been reviewed for you and I have endeavored to make very worthy of these two political contenders have been presented, and unmistakably it

A VOTE FOR DEWEY

Governor Langlie is doing, and will continue to do, more for the welfare of the people of the State of Washington and the stability and high reputation of our commonwealth than any Governor during our fifty years of Strickerth... with him we have relied on our record of achievement which we expect to carry the Republicans and instead of the entire nation... with him we are now prepared and able to whip the problems that lie before us...

For the wholesome good of our State... and to the best service of our administration will... and will continue to send our Arthur Langlie and his administration.
