Mr. and Mrs. Henry Broderick

Again Repeat Vows, October 4

"To the nuptial bower I led her, I led her, blushing like the morn;
All Heaven and happy constellations on that hour Shed their selected influence."

To have and to hold, from this day forward, for better, for worse, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish, till death do us part."

PRES. SHERMAN D. SCRUGGS, MO. U., DELIVERS ANNUAL ADDRESS TO GRADE, HIGH SCHOOL, COLLEGE STUDENTS

"THE MAN AT HOME IN THE STREETS"

"Every experience that you shall live through on this campus shall imbue you with a sense of the eternal moral values which are unchanged by time and occasion. It is believed that with knowledge and these values as guides in your everyday affairs you may have the power and freedom to be what the Creator has designed you to become, and to do a service that shall enrich not yourself alone, but the family, the community, the state, the nation, the new world."

College Success

Steps to success in college life which Dr. Scruggs listed for daily check were: (1) Be ambitious to learn—want to know. (2) Keep close to your advisors and learn from them how to learn. (3) Drive yourself hard enough to keep at learning. (4) Keep well in body, open in mind and cheerful in spirit. (5) Balance your day. Budget your time for work and for fun. (6) Strive to follow correct forms of behavior in living in residence halls, at meals in cafeteria, in participation in social activities, and in attendance at cultural programs. These are experiences which teach you to live acceptably among your fellows in the new world. (7) Keep in mind that doing everything you do in the way it should be done is the way the world wants it done."

"Work intelligently and cooperatively in democratic group activities with others to establish and maintain the welfare and security for any part of society to the level of that enjoyed by the majority."

Traits Unbecoming a Citizen

"Laziness, indolence, shabbiness, laxity, dishonesty, unfaithfulness, cruelty, shiftlessness, uncleanness in body and mind, slovenness in dress and speech, carelessness, un-dependability, servility and incivility, prodigality and improvidence, intemperance and debauchery, uncouthness and rudeness, the failure to vote, evasion of paying taxes, saying mean, cutting and ugly things to and about other people." With these things in mind, he concluded with, "If you do not leave Lincoln University inspired to want to help Negroes and other people also to ascend to the plane upon which the more desirable life is lived, then this institution has failed in its mission and the high purpose to which it is dedicated."

LACK OF RACIAL PRIDE

By LANGSTON HUGHES

Could it be that our public schools and homes have failed Negro children all across America in instilling national and racial pride? It is hard to instill pride in a country that Jim Crows a brown skin right and left. But could not pride in that brown-skin itself be instilled? There is pride in the history of the Negro people from Africa to America, from the Kings of Dahomey to Joe Louis, from Ebboue in this war in Africa to Dorie Miller in this war at Pearl Harbor. There is pride in Crispus Attucks and Frederick Douglass and Paul Lawrence Dunbar and W. E. B. DuBois and Carver and Marian Anderson and Duke Ellington and Mrs. Bethune and Lena Horne.

Perhaps if this pride were instilled in the young men who now don't care what they say in a bus full of people, they would choose the more decent words in our language for their conversations in public, rather than their current mother-fouling vocabulary.

Maybe. I only suggest these things. I do not know. Certainly we have failed to give them something they need to make their lives whole. So we had better try to learn to know why, how come, and what to do about them. They are your mother-foulers and mine.

DO YOU KNOW

There are 15 or 16 Race girls employed by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. in Seattle? And they have a splendid rating, too.

That our Race bus driver has been accepted in the Street Car Men's local without a dissenting vote?

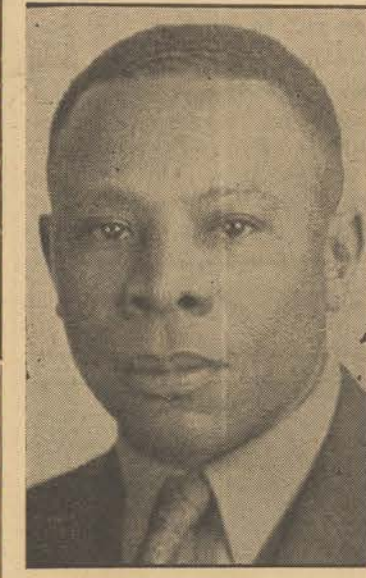

That another Race employee has been accepted in the Wood and Saw Mill Workers Local 2519, an AFL affiliate?

That Mr. Louis T. Watts, a veteran, has position in the local housing authority as recreation director? That Watts is married and his wife is a school teacher in Arkansas; that he is a graduate of Moorehouse college and a post graduate of Atlanta, Ga.

PUGET SOUND LODGE ELKS TO ORGANIZE CIVIL LIBERTIES LEAGUE

By J. A. (JACK) JOHNSON

A Civil Liberties League with numerical and financial strength to take an active interest in the community life of Seattle will be organized at the Elk's Club, 662 1/2 Jackson Street, Monday, Oct. 8, 1945, at 8 p. m.

The League will function under a charter granted by the Civil Liberties Department of the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, that has a membership throughout the nation of more than eight hundred thousand Negroes.

The objects of the League shall be to take cognizance of all forms of injustices against the Negro race; to see that law and order as they affect the citizens be administered impartially; to see that equal protection of law is extended to all citizens; to break down segregation and discrimination of all kinds wherever it is practiced, and to improve the economic status of minority groups.

A mandatory provision of the charter is that all officers of the League must be members of an Elks Lodge, but the active membership shall consist of citizens of the United States with good moral character, 20 years of age or over, male or female who have received a two-thirds vote of acceptance of his or her application.

(1) Reading of the Charter and the Constitution of the Civil Liberties Department of the I. B. P. O. E. of W. for the government of local leagues.

(2) Resignations of temporary officers to whom the charter was granted.

(3) Election of permanent officers to serve until Dec. 31, 1945 when the election of officers for the year of 1946 will be held.

Program of action outlined and committees appointed to carry it out.

All interested citizens are cordially invited to be present.

Overseas Packages W Can Be Bigger Now

WASHINGTON. — The Postoffice Department recently lifted wartime restrictions on the size of mail, including parcel post, addressed to civilians overseas.

Limitations on weight were not changed. These vary for different countries.

The department said the change will permit mailing of parcels containing such bulky items as overcoats and blankets.

MRS. JUANITA DAVIS TAKES POSITION IN SEATTLE PUBLIC HEALTH DEPT.

The Seattle Public Health Department recently announced the appointment of Mrs. Juanita Alexander Davis, one of Seattle's native daughters, to a position in the Venereal Disease Clinic in the Public Safety Building.

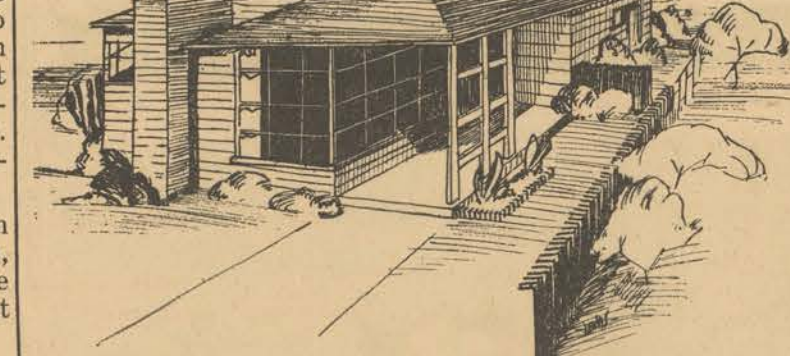

Mrs. Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Alexander, 415 29th Ave. No., recently returned to the city to accept this position after a 10-month stay at St. Monica's hospital in Phoenix, Ariz., where she was supervising nurse of pediatrics.

While in Arizona, she was married to Mr. J. Lawrence Davis, pharmacist at St. Monica's hospital.

Previous to her service in Arizona, she had graduated from Homer G. Phillips hospital, St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. Davis is a graduate of Garfield High School, and has spent two years in pre-nursing study at the University of Washington.

Randolph Says Negroes Must Fight for Job Rights

NEW YORK.—After returning from a trip which took him through Richmond, Va., Hinton and Huntington, W. Va., Cincinnati, O., and Asheville, N. C., where, together with B. F. McLaurin, International Field Organizer and candidate for City Council of New York City, he set up Local Councils for a permanent FEPC and held huge mass meetings to mobilize public sentiment back of the fight for the bills now before Congress for a permanent FEPC law, Mr. Randolph, International President of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, co-chairman of the National Council for a Permanent FEPC, declared at the headquarters of the Union that Negroes have no choice now but to fight ceaselessly and with all of their mass power for job rights now. He pointed out that labor through its strikes in various industries is fighting for the right to work and decent wages. Negroes, said he, must fight for both, the right to work and decent wages, which means that they must hit hard now for re-enactment of Bills S-101 and H.R. 2232 that face violent opposition from the solid South and the reactionary Republicans of the North and also support the Wagner-Murray Full Employment Bill.

Randolph Contacts Congressmen on FEPC

It was announced at the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters in New York that A. Philip Randolph, International President, plans to spend a week in Washington beginning Oct. 1 for the purpose of contacting Senators and Congressmen and cooperating with the staff of the National Council for a Permanent FEPC for the purpose of pushing forward the fight for the Bills for a Permanent FEPC.

Feller vs. Paige Pitching Duel Scheduled Oct. 7

Northwest baseball fans will be treated to an exhibition by real treats of the diamond at Sick's Seattle Stadium, Sunday, Oct. 7, when two All-Star Service Teams, including many big league stars, do battle with Rapid Robert Feller of the Cleveland Indians and Satchell Paige, famous Negro hurler, hurling for the rival outfits.

A flip of the coin, shortly before the game starts, will decide whether Feller or Paige will hurl for the Coast Guard Repair Base or for the Sand Point Naval Airs. Both of these teams have had outstanding records in the win columns this season.

Proceeds from the game, which is being sponsored by the Seattle Jr. Chamber of Commerce, will go to purchase athletic equipment for the U. S. Naval Hospital in Seattle, and Madigan General Hospital at Fort Lewis. Three hundred and fifty convalescent soldiers and sailors from the two hospitals will be guests of the Jr. Chamber at the game.

Sports fans are urged to obtain their ducaats early as a record attendance is expected. Tickets are now on sale at all downtown Seattle ticket agencies.

Tickets on sale at Elks Club, 662 1/2 Jackson, Phone EL. 9787.

Hallums Are Hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Pickett

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hallum of 2311 18th Ave. So., entertained a few friends Saturday night, Sept. 29, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Pickett of 5448 Prairie Ave., Chicago 15, Ill., who are here visiting their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. E. Edmonds.

The rooms were very prettily decorated with evergreen ivy which added much to the pleasure of the honored guests. The evening was spent socially with cards, singing and dancing. A very delightful buffet luncheon and cocktails were served at midnight which added much to the success of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hallum, as usual, proved to be the ideal host and hostess. The invited guests were:

Mr. and Mrs. Perley M. Biff, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. E. Edmonds, Mr. and Mrs. Hogan, Mrs. Helen C. Snyder, Mr. George A. Krisel, Mrs. Margaret Davensberg.

tracted to a large portrait-painting of a distinguished old gentleman with walrus mustaches, framed and hanging on the wall.

"I say," he exclaimed, "Who is this; he looks exactly like my grandfather."

The colored government official gave the name and business of the mustached one.

"Why it is my grandfather," exclaimed the white visitor further. "How do you happen to have his portrait hanging in your home?"

"Well," said the colored government official, "it happens he is also my grandfather."

"Oh," said the prominent white New Englander.

GRAND APOSTLE, CHARITY, JUSTICE, SISTERLY LOVE, FIDELITY ENDS 22 YRS. OF SERVICE—LAYS DOWN HER MANTLE

By R. T.

Early Friday morning, September 22, an acute gall infection sent Mrs. Nellie McCullough, Grand District Deputy, Grand Temple, IBPOE of W to Seattle General Hospital. Immediately after hospitalization, her condition became worse and beyond medical skill.

She died Wednesday morning, September 26.

The news of her death spread rapidly. A host of friends and close associates drawn about her during her more than 15 years residence in Seattle, told in bewildered voices, "Nellie McCullough is dead." Among her craft, Evergreen Temple, it was echoed in whispers, "Sister Nellie is dead."

Mrs. McCullough, a faithful and honored official of the Grand Temple IBPOE of W for 22 years, returned from the last annual session just three weeks ago. The Grim Reaper tarried to take his toll, nor gave he any admonition for "Heaven wears no cloud, from nature's silent orbit sends no portent to warn the unconscious world." And she paused long enough in Chicago, Ill., to address a letter to her Confessor, Father McFadden, Saint Teresa Church, advising him in life there is death, preparing him for the repose of her soul. Fitful attacks affected her heart. She regarded them as temporary. They finally proved fatal.

Telegrams and messages of condolence from the entire family of the Grand Temple and friends far and near flooded the house of death. A Grand Trustee, Mrs. Bessie Brown, Denver, Colo., arrived Sunday A. M. to share the sorrow of a devoted husband, Clarence, and two sons, Phillip and Curtis. Dtr. Helen Jackson, Past Gr. Ruler Minnehaha Temple, Minneapolis, Minn., arrived Sunday to pay her homage.

Following the rosary at Saint Teresa church, the body was returned to the mortuary. It lay at rest under an immense embankment.

IMMUTABLE LAW OF CAUSE AND EFFECT "WHAT OF THE FUTURE?" 'NO RACE RISES ABOVE ITS WOMEN'

No race can rise higher than its women. Man assumes leadership because of his greater physical strength. Such leadership based primarily upon brute force leads inevitably to war and destruction. Woman, with her finer developed spiritual self and keener perception of the fitness of things should take a more active roll in shaping the destiny of the post-war world.

Teh above paragraph applies to the women of all races in general, but is of special significance to Negro women. The popular song, "Man Is Only a Little Boy" applies too truly to the average Negro man. Centuries of chattle slavery can ancestors to the status of a half man or overgrown boy.

Unfortunately, the average Negro man is unaware of his juvenile mentality and becomes bitterly resentful when the average White Southerner addresses him as boy even though the White Southerner may be only a mere boy himself while the Negro may be as old as Methuselah, in years.

Throughout the centuries Negro women have fought valiantly to elevate their men folk from the status of half men to the estate of full manhood. In this struggle Negro women have had to act as shields to protect their men from hostile white-skinned as well as fight their own men who accepted their protection while bitterly resenting it.

Negro men make excuses for his lack of accomplishment, the

LET'S FINISH THE JOB

The Victory Loan drive opens Oct. 29 and extends thru Dec. 8.

The vital and important task given to King county War Finance Committee is represented by the Victory Loan quota of $64,620,000 assigned to the county today by the state War Finance Committee.

$29,120,000 is to come from sales to individuals, and $35,500,000 from other non-bank investors. Of the individual quota $14,120,000 is to come from the sales of series "E" bonds. The announcement was made today by Dietrich Schmitz, chairman of the King county War Finance Committee.

who said, "The war is over—but that is not the whole story. We must finish the job! The aftermath of war carries grave responsibilities that must not be shirked, and in facing this task every American's help is needed. Victory Savings Bonds are the soundest securities available in the world today. The major emphasis in the drive will again be on sales to individuals—those Victory Bonds which benefit the individual the most."

"King county has an enviable record for the past seven War Loan drives and we earnestly ask the cooperation of all citizens in enabling us to carry forward our perfect record and to surpass this Victory Loan quota as well," added chairman Schmitz.

Schmitz, with Thomas F. Glead, King county drive chairman, and K. Winslow Jr., vice chairman, will be in Portland, Ore., Oct. 5 and 6 conferring with Ted R. Gamble, National Director of the Treasury's War Finance Division, and others of his national staff from Washington, D. C., on plans for the approaching Victory Loan.

Prayer is not overcoming God's reluctance; it is laying hold of His highest willingness.—Trench.

DESTINATION—OVERSEAS

ELAINE F. SCOTT of the USO headquarters staff shows Mrs. Maurice T. Moore, chairman of the USO National Council, how she sends candy overseas. Hard candies in metal containers is her advice. Happily, Miss Scott, who has been with the USO for more than four years, will not have to send her most important Christmas gifts overseas this year. Her soldier fiance, Sgt. Richard L. Brock, has just returned from the European Theatre of Operations, where he served in the 327th Tank Destroyer Battalion, and the wedding day has been set.

Miss Scott has been a Unit Supervisor in the USO Department of Field Operations, in the Empire State Headquarters in New York City. She is now assigned to the Accounting Department.

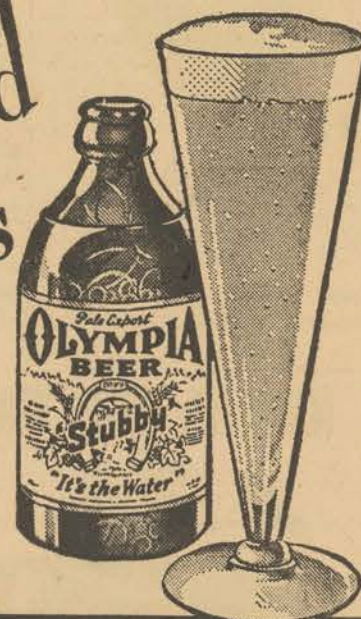

In demonstrating the types of gifts suitable for service men and service women overseas, and the proper measurements and weight of the box, Mrs. Moore reminds the "folks back home" that mailing dates for overseas are September 15 to October 15. Containers should be durable, measuring not more than 36 inches in length and girth combined, and 15 inches in width. Weight must not exceed 5 pounds. Packages must be tied securely and addressed accurately, with the sender's name in the upper left hand corner.

"Be sure to mark your package 'Christmas gift' is Mrs. Moore's final reminder.

Satchel Page and Bob Feller two of the greatest pitchers in baseball will match their pitching ability in a baseball game Sunday Oct. 7th at 2 p. m.
Both pitchers will have a ser-

PORTLAND'S ELITE FETES OMAHANS IN ROUND-THE-CLOCK SOCIAL EVENTS

Portland will be better for their having passed this way is the consensus of opinion of those who had the opportunity and pleasure of meeting those lovely personages, Dr. and Mrs. A. L.
Hawkins, of Omaha, Neb., visitors to Portland and house guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Clem E. Duncan, formerly of Omaha, with his wit, humor and geniality and her charming personality the Hawkins endeared themselves to a large circle of admiring friends, having spent Friday and Saturday in Seattle with the Prentiss I. Fraziers, the Hawkins arrived in Portland Sunday morning, Sept. 23, and from then until their departure were kept in a social social whirl. Starting with services at Mt. Olivet Baptist, later had a panoramic view of Portland from Council Crest, dinner at 5 p. m., received a number of callers after 8 p. m. Monday, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Minor (whose car was at their disposal during their stay) for a tour of the city, a trip to the grotto, a Chinese supper and a look in on Fletcher Henderson and his band at McElroy's Spanish room; on Tuesday, the Hawkins took them out Columbia highway to the fish hatcheries, Bonnerville Dam and returned via the Washington side.
That night was the party given by the Duncans for the honorees and 20 invited guests. Prizes awarded went to Mrs. Wm. Cochran, Mrs.
Hardin, Mr. Herbert Brown and Mr. C. R. Reid, Wednesday, Mr.
Eugene Carr motored them about to see some of the business enterprises among the race group; at 7 p. m. it was cocktails at Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Cantrells before going to dinner at "Eight" at the John A. Minors in S. E. 29th (incidentally it was the Minors' 6th anniversary). Covers were placed for 18. Prizes were won by Mrs. Cantrell and Dr. Hawkins. Thursday a delectable breakfast by Mrs. D.
N. Unthank and Mrs. C. L. Ingersoll, co-hostess at the home of the latter in S. E. Woodward. Places were laid for 15 guests. At 3 p. m.

The popular Mrs. Lonnie Shields of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs.
Emmitt Johnson, also of Seattle, and Mrs. John Patten of St. Paul, Minn., drove down last week end to be house guests of their friend, Mrs. Gertrude Askey in North Halsey. Having had dinner with their hostess, and a trip to the grotto, the party completed their visit with a night at the popular Dude Ranch.

The Portland Office of the Northwest Enterprise extends sympathy to the bereaved.

OBITUARY
The passing of Mrs. Emma H.
Chaney and Mrs. Nellie McCullough in Seattle last week, is a loss to the Pacific coast. Their passing in the midst of their busy lives, in a busy world, is a loss to fraternalism throughout the nation.

CLINIC HELD
Under sponsorship of the commission on race relations of the Portland Council of Churches, with Dr. George E. Haynes of New York City as director and principal speaker, an all-day clinic on race relations was held Sept.
20, morning and afternoon sessions held in the Public Service Building, and the concluding session at 7:30 in Library Hall.

Object of the clinic was to have the community understand its problems and to formulate a constructive program which will make full use of available organizations equipped to give direction in easing race relations. The most pressing issue said to be fronting this community is the problem of employment of Negroes.

INQUEST—IRVIN JONES

Oct. 9, 9:30 a. m., is the date quest to be held in Judge Crawand hour set for a coroner's in-ford's court to disclose all facts involved in the police killing of Erkin Jones, Guild's Lake.

At his office in the presence of Attorney Irvin Goodman, Rev.
George Brown of Guild's Lake, and a committee of White and Negro citizens, District Attorney Thomas Handley revealed that Jones' widow and her relatives, eye witnesses to the shooting, could not be returned to testify at the states' expense, because of an opinion handed down by the state attorney - general, Rev.
Brown, of Guild's Lake, stated that $216 of the $500 needed for the families' traveling expenses had been given in contributions.
To supplement this amount Attorney Handley gave his personal check for $120 assuring Mrs.
Jones' arrival for the inquest.
Handley said his was a personal gift—that it had no official implications.

It was brought out that a previous request for an inquest was not denied but a grand jury investigation was deemed impossible under the circumstances.

SOCIALS

Mr. and Mrs. William Cochran on N. E. 20th, were genial hosts for a brilliant cocktail party on Thursday evening, Sept. 20, for the pleasure of their nephew, I. S.
Harpole, former Lieutenant in the armed forces. After his discharge Mr. Harpole joined his charming wife who is residing indefinitely with the Cochrans. Guest list for the party included several out-of-town visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Minor of Tulsa, Okla., were house guests recently of Mrs. Minor's sister, Mrs. Naomi Gibbs of N. Ross St.
A tour of the city, a trip out Columbia highway, dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Willis A. Reed, dinner with their aunt, Mrs. Nettie Watson, all combined to make for them a most pleasant stay. The Minors are prosperous farm owners of Tulsa. In their high-powered car the Minors were chauffeured across country by Mr.
Hooks.

Mrs. Ned Ellis of N. E. First St., entertained on Sunday to compliment her little daughter, June Hill Ellis', birthday. Delicious refreshments, a beautiful birthday cake, party favors, flowers, a shower of gifts made for a gala time for June and her guests.

Mrs. Pollyanna Reed, regional president of the Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, was guest speaker Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. for the Corriente Study Club in their observance of Interracial Week.
One of Portland's early organized clubs, the Corriente is composed of senior and junior matrons. Mrs.
Reed, guest of Mrs. Griffiths, program chairman, talked on "Our Japanese Americans."

Mrs. W. G. Anthony left Sunday evening for Oklahoma City, Okla., to visit her mother, Mrs.
Mary J. Lyons. En route Mrs. Anthony will stop in Denver, Colo., and Wichita, Kans. In the latter city she will visit Dr. and Mrs.
Farmer. Returning to the coast Mrs. Anthony contemplates visiting in Omaha, Nebr.

Mr. William Graves of North McMillen, was honored on his natural day Sept. 24, with a stag dinner party. Covers were laid for six guests. A grand time was had by all.

Lester Granger Confers

"Come hell or high water," most of the 750,000 Negroes who migrate north and west in wartime will stay in their present communities, said Lester B. Granger of New York, executive secretary of the Urban League and social and educational director. He said that "whatever their status" it is improvement over their former homes.

Speaking to some 400 persons at the first public meeting of the Portland Urban League held Sept. 19, at Library Hall, Mr.
Granger said also among many other things, that the race problem in this country is the problem of how people can live together best, and isn't a White, Negro, Mexican or Italian question.

William L. Brewster Jr., president of the Portland league, introduced the speaker, and also introduced Edwin C. Berry, executive secretary of the Portland league.

By Mrs. N. J. Asbury Mrs. George Hamilton was the charming hostess to the Clover Leaf Art club, Tuesday at its First meeting which in this organization is an event, since it marks the anniversary of the CLA's birthday, September 1908.

Nearly the full membership was present and answered to the roll call with quotations. In the correspondence was a letter from Hon. John M. Coffee, congressman of the 6th District, expressing his attitude and promising to do all within his power to get the FEPC measure on the floor of the House.
A speech was read wherein Mr.
Coffee asked America to break relations with Fascist Spain. Four new members were enrolled.

It being one day after the Official Bill of Rights day, the secretary read this very important document, which was discussed together with several other important Amendments.

A motion was sustained to organize an auxiliary of young people. Mrs. Alice Roberts was appointed as chairman to take care of the work. At this point the hostess announced luncheon, and the ladies filed out to the dining table and took seats. The decorations of the table consisted of a lace center-piece made by the late Mrs. Ellen Kellum, mother of Mrs. Hamilton, on which was a vase of the Fall blooms.

The real object of attraction however, was the large birthday cake brilliantly lighted with 37 candles, and made by Miss James-etta Raspberry, the niece of the hostess.

It being the custom, the members at the conclusion of the repast, gave a recital of their major activities during the vacation period. Mrs. Jenkins stated that she

VISITORS

Mrs. Ella Holloway of Spokane of Mrs. W. B. Brown in N. E.

Hancock Street.

Miss Albertine Miles of Chicago, and Mrs. Marie Pearce, niece and mother respectively of Mrs. Rachel Green and Mrs. Redo, are sharing a pleasant visit with these and other relatives in Portland.

Y. W. C. A.

The fall and winter program for the YWCA opened with a volunteer training course at Central "Y" Tuesday, Oct. 2, to be followed by a state-wide leadership training course for all employed girls held in Portland Oct. 27 and 28. Another is a training course for volunteers in the North area to be held Oct. 10, 17 and 24 at St. John Center of the YWCA.
And still another is the Girl Re-

"So Much in Service—So Little in Cost" spent a part of the time in Seattle visiting her sister. Returning, she canned many quarts of fruit. She gave away much fruit to neighbors.

Mrs. Estelle Miller attended the convention of WSCFW at Tacoma and supervised the exterior decoration of her dwelling. Mrs. Mamie Landers said she and T. F. went to a lake beyond Olympia where they camped and fished and of course cooked and ate the same.

Mrs. Hamilton had attended the Eastern Star convale at Seattle where she renewed acquaintances of old friends whom she had not seen for more than a decade. Mrs.
Ethel Wood had spent her vacation giving volunteer service to the OPA in the sugar department where she experienced many an amusing incident.

Mrs. Alice Roberts, in company with others, crossed the border line to Vancouver, B. C., where they were royally entertained by some of the prominent citizens; just barely getting home before the gasoline vanished, only to learn that all restrictions had been cancelled.

Mrs. Mary Moore spent her vacation visiting with her former sister-in-law, Mrs. Francis M.
Moore-Baker, who once lived in Tacoma. Mrs. Asberry entertained house-guests from Oakland and Los Angeles, among them a three-year old boy, bent on exploring his new surroundings. Her summer was a social swirl of entertainment spent at Seattle, Bremerton, and Tacoma, winding up with a trip to "The Mountain" enjoying its grandeur of height and marvelous scenery.

Mrs. George Moore entertained Mrs. Nettie Spearman of Detroit with a theatre party and luncheon last Friday and with a party of friends a sight-seeing party last Sunday along with refreshments at USO No. 2, 715 Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hamilton entertained at a well proportioned and pointed dinner last Sunday, honoring the presence of Mrs. Nettie Spearman, sister of Mr. Chas. V. Taylor, where place cards were laid to right at their very nice home near Point Defiance park. Besides the honored guest were Cpl. and Mrs. Louis Smith, Mrs. C. V. Taylor, Mrs.
Daisy Hunter, Mr. Arthur L. Hayes and the host and hostess, Miss Jackie Raspberry, assisted by four of the young service men from Fort Lewis, completed a grand job by doing the culinary honors, to the delight of the guests and to the satisfaction of themselves.
Mrs. Spearman having ended a few weeks on the coast visiting her brother and other relatives reluctantly left Monday evening for her home in Detroit.

Cpl. Edward Willis, son-in-law of Rev. and Mrs. Noble Lee, pastor of Allen A. M. E. Church, was in the city Sunday from Walla Walla, with smiles to visit Mrs.
Willis and their baby son, now doing fine at a local hospital. It's a boy and hits the scales at 6 pounds plus. Cigars, daddy! Wonder what uncle Robert E. Lee thinks?

Rev. Lee has called a church conference for Monday, October 1st, for the Annual Election of Trustees and all members are urged and requested to be present.
Let's have a real election and not a selection. Methodists do not select they elect.

This writer is being urged to write more about the conduct of some of our new-comers' deportment in public places but some of the old citizens do not seem to set the example. Let us all try to set the proper example and then we can find fault with others.
—ALH.

The inter-racial organization is getting results in a friendly way on many fronts. We believe that there is something in the approach on many problems. Holding a stick over people's heads seldom brings the desired results.

Past Grand Recording Secretary, and Grand District Deputy, Re-dred, of the Grand Temple, I. B.
P. O. E. of W.

She became ill during the Elks Bond Drive in Philadelphia the last week in August and did not recover, passing away Sept. 26, 1945. Survivors are her husband, Clarence L. McCullough; two sons, Curtis and Philip McCullough; a granddaughter, Phyllis McCullough, and a host of relatives and friends.

CARD OF THANKS

We are grateful, deeply grateful for the grand floral evidence of appreciation, the affectionate resolutions, condolences, letters and telegrams of sympathy, and friendly visits during the illness and death of our beloved wife and mother.

We are especially grateful to our beloved Grand Trustee, Bessie Brown, and Past Dtr. Ruler Helen Jackson to whom distance offers no barrier to loved ones; and Evergreen Temple No. 157 Dtr.
Elks, for such a fine display of loyalty and sisterly love.

We are also grateful to our soloist, Mrs. Chester Dixon, and Mrs.
Ruby Black as the piano, for your consolation, "The Rosary" and "Flee as a Bird."

Clarence McCullough, husband Philip L., son
Curtis, son.

OBITUARIES

Mr. Wellmee Green, 413 1/2 Maynard St., born in West Indies, Nov.
25, 1880, age 64. He died Sept.
27, 1945, at Harborview Hospital.
He has been a resident of Seattle many years. He is survived by a father, Arthur; a mother, Hattie Green.

Funeral arrangements were directed by Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lee at the Angelus Mortuary. A host of friends mourn his loss. Cremation followed.

Miss Helen Miller, born in Detroit, Mich., died in Seattle, Friday morning, Sept. 28, at Fairfax Sanatorium. She has no known survivors, but many friends gained by her long residence in Seattle, one of whom has been constant and steadfast during all her life and illness.

Card of Thanks

We are grateful to those friends who attended the illness and death of our friend, and for the floral offerings.

We are, too, grateful to the soloist, Mrs. Bessie Radcliff, and Mrs. Emma Collins at the piano for their fine musical renditions and to the Rev. Judson Swancy for his kind words of consolation, and to the friends of the kindly service of the Angelus Mortuary for their splendid service.

MR. & MRS. DAVE LEE
and FRIENDS.

We are grateful to the friends whose attention and kindness added pleasure to the final days of a departed friend, and for the flowers, evidence of kindly and friendly feeling.

We are also grateful to the Rev.
Judson Swancy for the kind and consoling words at her last hour.
To all we are grateful and join in the hope beyond.

A Devoted Friend

MORE ABOUT

Immutable Law

Negro woman is forging steadily ahead, gaining access into new fields of employment, breaking down racial barriers, creating new respect for the Race and is helping to shape National Policy as it affects inter-racial affairs.

It is significant that in Friday's Seattle Star appeared a full page open letter to the citizens of Seattle by the powerful Teamsters Union to build a new stadium. The letter stated that a new stadium would attract such famous singers as Marian Anderson and Kate Smith. Kate Smith is a Southern White woman and yet our Marian was mentioned first. That in itself apparently is a minor thing but when subjected to the penetrating light of inter-racial analysis it becomes important.

All Negro women cannot become Marian Andersons, Harriet Tubmans or Mary McLeod Bethunes, but each can use her God-given power to inspire her menfolk with the confidence to conquer the enemy of childishness from within as well as to tear down the barriers of opposition from without.

These are uncertain days, the future is equally uncertain; it is therefore highly important that Negro women "let their hair down" and lead, push, inspire and force their men-folk to lay away childish such things as being "hep cats," "jitter buggers," "chronic belly achers" and loafers so as to become producers worthy of being called real men.

ment of stupendous floral offerings, a perfect mantle for the retreat of a beloved soul, surrounded by her fraternal sisters, who came to do her honor. The last rites were given by the Grand Temple and Evergreen Temple No. 157 Dtr. Elks directed by Grand Trustee Bessie Brown.

Resolutions, condolences, telegrams from Grand lodge officials and local orders were read. Grand Trustee Bessie Brown from Denver, Colorado delivered the eulogy.
It was one of the friendliest and most sympathetic ever paid a member of her order. Touching upon her long and intimate acquaintance with the deceased, she compared her life to that of an elks, an emblem of her order, a model of perfection, her life complete in itself. Nellie McCullough was a clean woman from whose life each of us may safely take a pattern. Grand District Deputy Nellie McCullough has been called "The best Grand Recorder, the best reporter ever to come to the Grand Temple."

The musical recital, "The Rosary," "Flee As a Bird," by a finished soloist, Mrs. Chester Dixon with Mrs. Ruby Black at the piano, was in itself a marked tribute to one they loved.

The ritualistic service by the Grand Trustee Bessie Brown and Evergreen Temple No. 157 ended the last honors for her who lies down to peaceful slumber, awaiting requiem Mass, Monday at 9:30 A. M., directed by the Reverend Father McFadden, Saint Teresa Church.

Interment was at Calvary Cemetery.

IN MEMORIAM

GRAND DISTRICT DEPUTY MRS.
NELLIE McCULLOUGH
By Special Wire

Exalted Ruler, Dtr. Ruler and members, I.B.P.O.E. of W., assembled to commemorate the memory of a great daughter of our order, to fulfill our obligations of Charity, Justice and Brotherly Love, not only to the departed but to wards each other, so that our survivors may testify to our Fidelity:

WHEREAS, This is a time in the annals of Elks when they stand so near the veil that separates mortals from immortals, time from eternity and men from their God, we can almost hear the breathing and pulsations of the heart of the Infinite, and

WHEREAS, Such an hour has passed the Grand Temple, I.B.P.O.
E. of W. in the death of our beloved Grand District Deputy, Mrs.
Nellie McCullough, whose soul reposes in the arms of its Maker.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLV-ED, That her fifteen years of valient service as Grand Secretary, and six years as Grand District Deputy, shall forever be recorded in our hearts of love and a tablet placed so near the veil which separates mortals from immortals that the whisperings of God may always be heard, while we who murmur "She is Dead" make a new covenant with God and each other that our beloved has not died in vain. And because of the long close associations with our departed since the year of our Lord, 1908, I, too, mourn a great loss in her passing.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions be handed to the stricken husband, Clarence, and her sons.
J. Finley Wilson, Gr. Ex. Ruler
I.B.P.O.E. of W.

Mrs. Nellie R. McCullough

Born May 1, 1847, in St. Cloud, Minn. Resident of Minneapolis, Minn., for 56 years, moving to Seattle in 1930.

Taught music from 16 years of age until 1923. Organized and directed an orchestra for a number of years and was reported to have been the first woman orchestra leader in the United States.

An untiring civic worker, Mrs.
McCullough was a board member of the Seattle Urban League and had worked as board member of the Seattle Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Life member of the Minnehaha Temple, I. B. P. O. E. of W., Min-
