On Saturday, Aug. 25, at half after four, Miss Constance Jean Maney held a wedding ceremony in Seattle. The service was attended by many guests, including the Mesdames War. The wedding took place in Seattle, in a double ring ceremony. The vows were read in St. Philip's Episcopal Church by the reverend, Rev. Lee O. Stone.

The bridal train, composed of the bride, her program with a song, and the guests, were greeted by the hostesses who greeted the bride and groom. Among the many out of town guests were the Mesdames War.

The program consisted of dramatic readings with music in the background. Miss Geraldine Draper, president of the National Urban League, was among the many at the ceremony.

The most fascinating reading was the dramatic reading of "Creole," by James Weldon Johnson, which was especially appropriate for the occasion. The wedding and reception were planned by Miss Geraldine Draper.

The Mt. Zion Women's Society Presents Recital

Miss Thelma Modisett, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. V. E. Strickland, Seattle, was presented in a recital at the Mt. Zion Baptist Church Sunday afternoon, August 25. The young artist's program consisted of dramatic readings with music in the background, creating a heavenly atmosphere during her performance. She began her program with a song, "Spirit of the Morning," and very soon had the audience in the grip of the music, which gave her assurance of the greatness of the Holy Spirit.

The most fascinating reading was the dramatic reading of "Creole," by James Weldon Johnson, which was especially appropriate for the occasion. The wedding and reception were planned by Miss Geraldine Draper.

Chicago and the Cicero Affair

By JND. R. BLOUNT

Some new lights and angles on the Cicero, Illinois, riot affair were given Tuesday evening by an unusually interesting visitor in Seattle, the Rev. W. H. Sharp of Chicago. In an instructive lecture at the Unitarian Church in the University district, Rev. Sharp briefly analyzed the innermost feelings and concepts of the mass of citizens of Cicero—about 70,000 in number—along with their sympathies or regrets, mostly with the "mob." According to the visitor, the people of Cicero are largely Caucasians with a habit of circulating from Illinois and Poland, and have long been stubbornly set against new-comers and particularly against "different persons"—meaning, of course, people of darker skins—with the expressed fear that their homes and churches would be "spoiled" and their property values depreciated. This, of course, is a familiar story but not entirely empty and void, as we shall see.

"Behind the purple curtain of Cicero, Illinois, there was a 2213 Northwest Airlines plane to meet Mrs. Kemper at Chicago's O'Hare Airport, and in the city she was highly favored with social affairs. Mrs. Kemper is district deputy of the Daughters of Northern California, past matron of Beta Delta Chapter No. 51, Port Chicago, Calif., and grand secretary of House of Ruth, G.U.O. of O.F.

Mrs. Kemper's personality is superb. She was wearing the latest autumn coats, and a number of tropical bits of Orchids, yellow and white ginger, multicolor carnations and palm leaf and ghifts flowers. And Mrs. Kemper and his wife-the labor Dur Durie-Picquet and are the house guests of Sunny Lee, 1556 G St.

Guests from Spokane. Labor Day weekend, were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bradford and their daughter Cecille. They motored back by road a visit of visits with their many relatives and friends. The Picquet's were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jeffson.

ROYAL ESQUIRES PICNIC
Given by the distinctive Gentleman's Club with a determined effort to make the Concourse a no-smoking area for a Sunday, September 2 at Yas Park. Continuous gasoline and instrument, plenty of Bar-B-Q and refreshments attracted the hordes enabled-and certainly not now! We are only interested "to throw a party at the Unitarian Church in the University district, Rev.
