Interracial Party At Y W C A Provides Actual Approach To Real Democracy

By Harold Halifeld

By the time the meeting was adjourned, the Dyke Post had joined the New York City party and the Indiana Chamber of Commerce was on the air.

The meeting was held in the Y W C A and was attended by representatives from various organizations, including the NAACP, the Urban League, and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the need for a new political party that would represent the interests of African Americans.

During the meeting, delegates from different organizations presented their views on the current political situation and the need for a new party that would work towards equality and justice for all.

The delegates also discussed the importance of education and the need for more resources to be allocated towards education for African Americans.

The meeting was concluded with a call to action for all present to work towards creating a new political party that would represent the interests of African Americans.

The delegates agreed to meet again in the near future to plan for the creation of the new political party.

Ms. Baswell Returns To Portland's Aras

Mrs. Baswell, a well-known soprano, returned to Portland's Aras last week, sang with the chorus, and performed in several recitals. Her voice is in top form; her rendition of spirituals and other numbers is truly outstanding. The program is scheduled to continue on Sunday, March 15, at 3:00 p.m., with Mrs. Baswell accompanied by Mrs. H. B. Brown, a noted pianist. The service will be held at the First African Methodist Episcopal Church.
