Advocacy for Open Educational Resources

MO NYAMWEYA
Oregon OER Symposium | 5/17/19
MY OPEN STORY

● Student advocacy
● Work at SPARC
  ○ Research
  ○ Connect OER

twitter.com/MoNyamweya
mo@sparcopen.org
YOUR OPEN STORY

- Name, institution, role
- How and why you got involved in OER advocacy

1 minute each around the table
MAPPING CAMPUS STAKEHOLDERS
MAPPING CAMPUS STAKEHOLDERS

- Faculty
  - Professors
  - Advisors
- Librarians
- Administration
  - Dean
  - Provost
  - President
- Students
- CTL
- IT
- Bookstore
DISCUSSION

- Pick a stakeholder
- What does that stakeholder think about OER?
- What is one specific action you can ask them to take?
BARRIERS AND ROADBLOCKS
BARRIERS AND ROADBLOCKS

- Lack of awareness
- Discoverability
- "Faux"-ER
- Traditional publishers
- Institutional culture
- Concerns about quality
CREATING SOLUTIONS
CREATING SOLUTIONS

- Raising awareness of OER
- Consistent messaging
- Institutional support
- Internal funding
- Other institutional incentives
GOAL-SETTING

SPARC
GOAL-SETTING

- What specific change do you want to make?
- Who has the power to make that change?
GOAL-SETTING

Specific Measurable
Attainable
Realistic
Time-based
DISCUSSION

- How can OER shape the future of higher education?

Choose one short-term goal and one long-term goal for your campus OER movement.
@MoNyamweya

www.sparcopen.org