

12-8-2010

Interview with Brendan Phillips, Sisters of the Road, 2010 (audio)

Brendan Phillips

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Follow this and additional works at: <http://pdxscholar.library.pdx.edu/sustainhist>

 Part of the Food and Beverage Management Commons, Nonprofit Administration and Management Commons, and the Sustainability Commons

Recommended Citation

Phillips, Brendan, "Interview with Brendan Phillips, Sisters of the Road, 2010 (audio)" (2010). All Sustainability History Project Oral Histories. 64.

<http://pdxscholar.library.pdx.edu/sustainhist/64>

This Interview is brought to you for free and open access. It has been accepted for inclusion in All Sustainability History Project Oral Histories by an authorized administrator of PDXScholar. For more information, please contact pdxscholar@pdx.edu.

PORTLAND STATE UNIVERSITY ORAL HISTORY PROJECT

INTERVIEW INDEX

INTERVIEWEE: Brendan Philips

Interviewer: Brandon Green

Date: Dec 8, 2010

Location of Interview: Sisters of the Road Café, Portland

Research Assistant: N/A

Interview Series: SUSTAINING NORTHWEST LANDSCAPES & COMMUNITIES

Recording Equipment: DIGITAL RECORDER (WINDOWS MEDIA AUDIO FILE) WITH AN EXTERNAL, OMNIDIRECTIONAL MICROPHONE

Time Notes

00:20	How long have you lived in Portland? – Two years
00:30	What brought you here (Portland)? – Change of scenery
00:45	Education? – Evergreen College
1:00	How did you get involved in this work? - Field of study, area of interest
2:00	Previous work? – Youth art, organizing events
2:40	Tent city. Got interested in housing and human rights.
3:30	How do you pursue human rights? – Systemic change program

4:00	Health, shelters, work with other organizations.
4:40	“Housing is the solution to homelessness”
5:00	Work with other organizations to chart the relation of government and homelessness
6:00	Slashing of funding for housing projects and programs correlates with homelessness
7:00	“Work we do is not reformative work... is revolutionary work.” Human rights.
8:00	Challenge to the idea of capitalism providing for everyone.
8:30	Growth not sustainable
9:00	Challenge to get people to view fundamental rights
9:30	Economic human rights: healthcare, housing
10:00	Work with many other groups that share even partial agreement
10:40	Please define a community organizing model – MLK, theories, narrative of the people
11:30	Give them the tools. Issue based narratives versus people’s narratives.
12:00	Truth of people’s experience
12:50	Diverse perspectives boil down to the same issues.
13:30	Use stories to create messages that resonate with people.
14:30	How do you get their stories? - Voices from the street, other means, publishing.
15:30	“Numbers tell such a limited story.” Partnership with allies for technology and media.
16:30	“We need to start reclaiming the media and the message.” Big priority.
17:30	Empowered Media Voices program to compete with other stakeholder’s messages.
18:00	The café work every day, give people the chance to work, and slowly teach.
18:30	Has technology helped you with the media? – It is hard to say.
19:00	EVM’s success is empowering the people—first goal to make it ongoing and accepted
20:00	Our system isolates people. About community.

21:00	Definition of sustainability? – Not an official one, but the organization is sustainable.
21:30	Food justice path in the café, uses as much locally grown food as possible.
22:30	Sustainability has a lot of meanings to a lot of people – community sustainability
23:30	What are economic human rights? – Create value to the work you do
25:00	Everyone enters the market at a different place. Diversity.
25:45	Economic human rights is a baseline of provision and starting place.
26:00	Food, housing, healthcare; political rights, right to a living. Fundamental human rights.
28:00	People overcome adversity all the time, but many people don't.
28:00	What is a safe housing that everyone is entitled to? - Housing is a starting point.
28:30	Bigger issue is about community. “Home is more than four walls and a roof.”
29:45	Give control back to community.
31:00	Focus on property rights is removed from the human interest.
32:00	Interplay between private property and usefulness to society.
33:00	Perception of housing projects as squalor, not correct stereotype.
33:45	Do you advocate in that area? - Yes, WRAP does work in that area.
34:45	Any other strategies on housing? - Work with allies like Oregon CAT
35:50	What other allies do you work with? - Day labor groups, street roots, many groups.
37:00	All groups share a understanding that problems are inherent to the system.
37:30	What is a typical day like here? - Very dynamic. Lots of frustration.
38:30	Networking with organizations and coalitions. Develop relationships.
39:00	Persistent challenges? - Too many to name. Big questions about reform.
40:00	Balance the needs of the café against systemic change work.
40:30	Mental illness.

41:30	Myths about homelessness.
42:00	How staff works. Get community involved.
42:30	Proudest achievements? – Film festival. Leadership retreat. Community organizing.
43:20	Rally for public housing with allies in San Francisco.
43:30	Showing we are acting to change things.
43:45	Any plans for the future? - Challenge the media.
44:00	New message, new narrative.
44:30	Any comments? – Thank you for the opportunity. Hope it helps.
45:00	Time capsule: empowered media voices.