HORSE IDENTIFIED.—It now turns out that the stray horse which was taken up by I. L. Flint, and advertised in yesterday's GUARD, is the property of John G. Pugh, county commissioner at Lima, county seat of Lincoln county. Shedd. The horse, saddle and bridle was taken from Mr. Pugh's farm last Saturday night and was not to be found with the saddle and bridle still on by Mr. Flint, who resides a short distance south of Lima. The animal had evidently been ridden here from Shedd and then turned loose. A search for the horse, which was not completed, is suspected of having ridden the horse here. He was tied about town Sunday and has not been seen since then. When Mr. Pugh missed his horse he mistrusted that it had been stolen.

The express charges were $1.00, and the chickens were twice as much as the eggs, or $2.00 per dozen. The total shipment of 11 coops, containing 112-50 chickens, was shipped yesterday by receipt to Mr. Parker of this city as evidence that he had actually shipped the poultry. The number of coops shipped the postoffice was 11, and the number of chickens was 112-50, the number that he had actually shipped.

Dr. Oakland item in Evening Review:
 Dr. Wm. Wilcox and wife of Minneapolis, Minn., relatives of D W Stearns, were visiting here a few days last week. They went from here to Eugene to visit relatives for a few days, and will go from there to California for a visit. The doctor is a son of Mrs. Wilcox, elected, and Superintendent Stevenson, the present incumbent, does not wish to make any arrangements for an institute until he has consulted the board of directors and the superintendent in regard to the matter. If whoever is selected is desirous of holding a county institute Superintendent Stevenson will commence arranging for one immediately.

I have secured a large allowance for the Siuslaw Jetty work. An early adjournment of congress is assured and will make money for the appropriation available at an early date which will make it possible to resume work on the Jetty in the near future.

Yours truly,

Mr. Herman's has scored a point of victory for Oregon. The improvement of the Willamette and the completion of the work, now partly finished at Siletz, will benefit the people of this section and Lane county in particular. The improvement of the Willamette river is one of the most vital interest to the people of this section. The plans for its improvement are few and far between.

then the snagboat Corvallis must be built, which shall have new appliances for snagging and dredging and scraping. The cost of the new boat has been estimated for this boat and it forms a part of the gross estimate of the work from Portland to Eugene.

The fact that the snagboat, Corvallis, now a craft of the past, will make room for a new one, and that the estimate for the new boat is included in the estimate for the work from Portland to Eugene, is not to be averted. Several similar accidents have happened in this city, and it is not probable that the city will be thus permitted to be ridden, and then it will cost the city a large amount for damages. Judge Rice received a severe bruise on his left arm when he was riding on the bridge, and he received his horse in a black and late yesterday afternoon Judge D Riden was run into by a bicycle, spelled by T W Poole, at the Petera mer, Willamette and Eighth streets. The rider was going west on the south of Eighth street at a good rate of speed. Just as he started across Willamette street Judge Riden was striking north on the east side of Willamette street stepped in front of the wheel and he was hurled to the ground. Of course it was impossible Riden to see Poole or Poole to see Riden, only when the accident could be averted. Several similar accidents have happened in this city, and serious one will yet occur if bicycles thus permitted to be ridden, and in it will cost the city a large amount for damages. Judge Riden received a severe bruise on his left side of his legs and arms are somewhat dislocated and his nose is black and blue, he is feeling quite badly today, and Poole is not to blame in the matter; it is the laws of the municipality that was taken before a recorder and fined $5 and costs, which he paid.

HORSE IDENTIFIED.—It now turns out that the horse which was taken up by L. L. Mint, and advertised in yesterday's TRIBUNE, is the property of John W. Smith, a farmer of Linn county who resides near Shedd. The horse, saddle and bridle were found on the road on Friday night and on Saturday it was found with the saddle and bridle still on the horse, about a short distance south of this city. The animal had evidently been ridden here by a person who had been a young man tall in stature and dark complexioned, is suspected of having been the person who was killed about town Saturday, but has not been seen since. Then Men Mr. Smith has been told that it had come this way and telegraphed

Daily Guard, March 24.

THE X RAYS.—The Advancement Club was addressed by Prof. Chas. Friedel, of the University, who gave a description of the cathode rays, and subsequently the X rays, were discovered and an account of the history of the development of the rays was given. The ten years since the desired result had been obtained. He also gave a review and exhibited samples of the work accomplished through the aid of the X rays, by himself and the C. L. Winter Photo Company. Accounts of this work were published from time to time in the scientific journals. Friedel also illustrated much success in his new business.

J. B. Masters, an O. A. C. student from Chicago, has been invited to a young lady in Corvallis. They went to Albany to spend their honeymoon, returned home, and since then the Times has been calling for a picture of the young couple alibis. The Times thereupon calls him a skunk.

Oregon City author shares research about the history of the city

Posted on March 26, 2018 by sseymore@uoregon.edu — No Comments ↓

Karin Morey, historian of Oregon City and avid researcher, discusses her recent projects and publications about Oregon City's floods, pioneers, and Army service men and women.

Can you tell us a little about your publication(s) and yourself?

I have had an interest in Oregon City history for over 60 years, having grown up hearing the stories of the city's history from Wilmer Gardner, one of the founders of the Clackamas County Historical Society. After retiring 15 years ago I was able to spend more time on research and to

The northbound overland train was 24 hours late this morning, having been delayed in California.

Dr A Sharples has received satisfactory returns from his dried prunes sent East some months since.

E H Ingham has received $400 from an accident insurance company on account of a sprained back from a fall.

A very pleasant party was given at the Willoughby residence in Uvular city Addition Saturday night.

Ed West has secured a large stuffed panther from Nora & Paue and had it mounted on his bar. It is a very fine specimen.

Joe Hill of Jasper left this morning for Brickfield, Washington, where he goes to look after a logging contract for Hill Brothers.

President Chapman delivered the address before the Eugene Christian Alliance at the Cumberland Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon.

It has been rumored for the past day or two that one of the S P trains had been held up in Southern Oregon, but the report is not confirmed.

Major A Gilford divisional officer of the Northern Pacific division of the Salvation Army returned to Portland today after spending Sunday in this city.

A little girl in Eugene hearing an older brother studying about the vowels a, e, i, o and u, turned to her mother and asked what lodge those letters stood for.

The following is a Washington, D C, dispatch: This mail service from Wailwater to Camp Creek, Or, has been ordered to furnish supplies to Wailwater at its new site, without change in distance. This order will take effect March 23.

Roseburg Review: The people of Silver Lake, Or., where the memorable Christmas Eve holocaust occurred, are endeavoring to raise $2200 by subscription with which to set a monument over the grave of the victims. Mr Chas Clements, of this city, has received a subscription paper with request to requisite to the city. The Silver Lake people have subscribed $1000 already.

Portland Telegram: "Louis Tannhauser, a hawdeler of North Front street, has been made defendant in a $50,000 damage suit for breach of promise. The plaintiff is Mary Warren whose valuable affections have in some manner been trifled with by the defendant. The case, played in the cere was filed and immediately withdrawn by the counsel, for the purpose of preventing it being made public." Mr Tannhauser was at one time a resident of this city.

HORSE IDENTIFIED.—It now turns out that the stray horse which was taken up by J L Flint, and advertised in yesterday's GUARD, is the property of John G. Pugh, county commissioner of Llan county, who resides near Shedd. The horse, saddle and bridle was taken from Mr. Pugh's farm last Friday night and on Saturday it was found with the saddle and bridle still on by Mr. Flint, who resides a short distance south of this city. The animal had evidently been ridden here from Shedd and then turned loose. A young man tall in stature and with a beard, had evidently been riding the horse here. He was not seen about town Saturday, but has not been seen since. Mr. Pugh has promised his horse he mistrusted that it had come this way and telegraphed

Another Bicycle Accident.

Daily Guard, March 25.

Late yesterday afternoon Judge D M Haden, was run into by a bicycle, propelled by T W Poole, at the Peters corner, Willamette and Eighth streets. The rider was going west on the south side of Eighth street at a good rate of speed. Just as he started across Willamette street, Judge Haden, who was walking north on the east side of Willamette street stepped in front of the wheel and his was hurled to the ground. Of course it was impossible for Haden to see Poole or Poole to see Haden, only when the accident could not be averted. Several similar accidents have happened in this city, and a serious one will yet occur if bicycles are thus permitted to be ridden. Then it will cost the city a large amount for damages. Judge Haden received a severe bruise on his left side and his legs and arms are somewhat bruised and his nose is black and blue, and he is feeling quite badly today. Young Poole is not to blame in the matter; it is the laws of the municipality. Mr Poole was taken before the recorder and fined $5 and costs, which he paid.

Fundraising How-To Guide

Thank you for your interest in the Oregon Digital Newspaper Program! This guide will outline and describe the basics of direct fundraising, best practices for grant applications, and a list of possible sources of funding to assist with the digitization of your newspaper title(s).

Fundraising can feel like a daunting task, but this guide aims to make the process clearer and easier for you.

The most important part of fundraising is understanding your passion for the project and why it is worth supporting. Think about why you, or your institution, are invested in this project. What about this collection of newspapers is important for saving into perpetuity on the Historical Oregon Newspapers website? After answering this question you are ready to start the process of fundraising!

Follow these links below for more detailed resources to help you with your fundraising:

HORSE IDENTIFIED.—It now turns out that the stray horse which was taken up by J L Flint, and advertised in yesterday's GUARD, is the property of John G. Pugh, county commissioner of Lincoln county, who resides near Shedd. The horse, saddle and bridle was taken from Mr. Pugh's farm last Friday night and on Saturday it was found with the saddle and bridle still on by Mr. Flint, who resides a short distance south of this city. The animal had evidently been ridden here from Shedd and then turned loose. A young man tall in stature and dark complexioned, is suspected of having ridden the horse here. He was noticed about town Saturday, but has not been seen since then. When Mr. Pugh missed his horse he mistrusted that it had come this way and telegraphed actor him.

Resolutions on Yaquina Bay.

The Eugene Board of Trade memorializes congress in the following words:

To Oregon's Honorable Senators and Representatives in Congress— WHEREAS: Representative Hermann has introduced a bill in Congress for the purpose of securing aid to complete the work now in progress at Yaquina Bay, on the plan of continuous contract and.

WHEREAS: It is of the utmost importance to the people of Eugene and Lane county, and the Willamette valley in general, that such work should be completed for the purpose of enabling our merchants and producers to share in the trade and commerce of the Pacific coast, and from this position, it is respectfully requested that you will afford the relief the people of this part of the state have been originally working for ever since the government commenced said work.

Adopted March 21, 1896.

A. J. SMITH, E. M. WILKINS.

self I desire to state through the columns of your valuable paper, that I am a partner in the firm of J L Range & Co. The firm of Chase & Co, consisted of J L Chase and J E Maginnis. Dunsmuir's Commission will substantiate my statement. I was employed by Chase & Co in securing business and was to receive a certain share of the profits and have been able to secure a settlement with them. I am at present, and have been for some time past, employed by Charles Jacobson & Co., of San Francisco, as their solicitor and representative, and am prepared to purchase and advance on consignment any part of $20,000 for the above firm.

Sincerely yours,

W. N. PARKER.
