Mr. Frank S. Grant,
City Attorney,
City Hall.

Dear Sir:-

Frequent trouble is experienced on the Public Market by dealers on the inside of the side walk, spelling, calling their wares, and loudly accosting pedestrians, either walking along the side walk, or stopping to look at displays.

We have had numerous convictions for violation of the Market rules, with fines ranging from ten to twenty dollars, but this seems to have but a temporary effect in stopping the nuisance.

Will you kindly prepare an ordinance which will take care of this situation, and make it possible to proceed, either by prosecution in the Court and fine, or by the matter being placed before the City Council for the revocation of the food license held by such guilty persons, or both such fine and conviction.

Yours very truly,

Commissioner of Public Affairs.
