The City Council
Portland, Oregon
1220 S.W. Fifth Avenue
Portland, Oregon 97204

Members of the Council:

At its meeting of July 22, 1980, the Planning Commission reviewed the results of the Pioneer Courthouse Square competition. By unanimous vote, the Commission adopted the following statement in support of both the jury's selection and the process followed:

"The Commission unequivocally endorses the design competition process, which has well met the expectations of the Commission, and supports the jury's decision as appropriate and responsible. It further urges the City Council to proceed expeditiously with the jury's recommended design selection and subsequent project process, and encourages the community to unite in support of the selected scheme."

We are happy to transmit this recommendation to you.

Sincerely,

Joan H. Smith,
President
