

BLACK STUDIES DEPARTMENT PRESENTS

Dr. Yasmin Ramirez lecture entitled: “The iconography of Black and Puerto Rican Art Movements, 1960s-1980s: A comparative study of arts activism and social change in New York City during the post civil rights era.”

Portland State University, Smith Memorial Student Union, Multicultural Center, Smith 228

May 10th, Wednesday 12:00-1:30, 2006

This event is jointly sponsored by the Black Studies Department, Chicano/a and Latino/a Studies and the Art Department.

REFRESHMENTS PROVIDED . MULTICULTURAL CONFERENCE CENTER