In accordance with the Constitution of the PSU Faculty, Senate Agendas are calendared for delivery ten working days before Senate meetings, so that all faculty will have public notice of curricular proposals, and adequate time to review and research all action items. In the case of lengthy documents, only a summary will be included with the agenda. Full proposals are available at the PSU Curricular Tracking System: http://psucurriculumtracker.pbworks.com. If there are questions or concerns about Agenda items, please consult the appropriate parties and make every attempt to resolve them before the meeting, so as not to delay the business of the PSU Faculty Senate.

Senators are reminded that the Constitution specifies that the Secretary be provided with the name of his/her Senate Alternate. An Alternate is another faculty member from the same Senate division as the faculty senator. A faculty member may serve as Alternate for more than one senator, but an alternate may represent only one Senator at any given meeting.

A. ROLL
B. APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES OF THE DECEMBER 3, 2012, MEETING

The meeting was called to order at 3:05 p.m. The January minutes were approved with the following correction: LIEBMAN was present.

C. ANNOUNCEMENTS AND COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE FLOOR

DAASCH noted that the comparator institution discussion to follow in committee of the whole ties back to a Senate resolution from April 2011 recommending “A Holistic Approach to Strategic Institutional Development”—

PSU Faculty Ranks

DAASCH introduced Steering Committee member Amy Greenstadt to describe plans for motions on faculty ranks forth-coming at the March 4, 2013 Faculty Senate meeting.

GREENSTADT provided an overview of the committee processes that have informed Steering Committee recommendations on implementing the changes to faculty ranks.
incorporated in the OARs in January 2012 (see attachment B-1). She noted that changes enacted are not aligned with current practice at PSU and outlined six motions to address the use of new titles and ranks and their designation as tenure-track or non-tenure track for current PSU faculty (slides 5-10).

DAASCH asked if there were any questions or observations that could help the Steering Committee in formulating the motions for consideration in March.

JONES recommended expediting the distribution of copies of the motions. HOLIDAY expressed concerns about implementing the new Clinical track ranks. DAASCH noted that the majority of the motions planned address the position of current faculty, deferring questions about the new ranks to a proposed task force. MERCER asked if the promotion process for the new split ranks Senior I and II would follow the P & T Guidelines. GREENSTADT said that guidelines for Senior II would have to be worked out, but should follow current P & T practice. STEVENS requested a demographic summary of the distribution of current faculty. HANSEN wondered whether the new ranks would lead to the demotion of current instructors. GREENSTADT said no, we would just be going from a two-rank to three-rank system. BURNS asked if librarians were in support of a motion to reject the “Librarian” title. GREENSTADT confirmed that they were. NEWSOM asked whether the OAR list of titles was exhaustive, and if the Research Associate rank still existed. GREENSTADT said yes to both questions. BEYLER asked if faculty grandfathered under the proposed motions who chose to retain their current professorial rank title would be setting a future path for promotion through the professorial ranks. GREENSTADT said yes, but that they did have a choice to opt for a new non-tenure-track rank. LUCKETT asked if salary equivalents for Senior Instructor II had been considered. GREENSTADT confirmed that this was correct as defined by the OAR. MEDOVOI asked if questions regarding the implementation of the other new ranks would be deferred to the proposed committee. GREENSTADT said yes, adding that the issue of how to define currently existing ranks would also be taken up there. ERSKINE expressed concern about the limit on visiting faculty as her unit currently offers visiting contracts renewable up to four years. SANTELLENNANN asked if the title of Clinical Professor will be voted on; departments like Speech and Hearing were in desperate need of something to distinguish clinical professor from basic instructor. GREENSTADT said use of the Clinical ranks would be a task-force question, but the title of Visiting could be used in the meantime. CHZANOWSKA-JESKE asked if the two years of a visiting appointment would have to be consecutive. DAASCH stated that this question remained to be hashed out. GREENSTADT added that previously no distinction was made between people were hired "fixed-term" for a short period of time and people who have a longer career at Portland State. BERRETTINI asked for clarification in light of the current use of the Visiting Adjunct rank. GREENSTADT reiterated that the motion on “visiting” would leave open the possibility of making short-term fixed-term appointments at the professorial ranks; the OAR now excludes the possibility of hiring full-time long-term fixed-term appointments at professorial ranks.

IFS

HINES reported on the January 25-26 meeting of the OUS Inter-institutional Faculty Senate. (See agenda: http://pages.uoregon.edu/ifs/ifs.html) Discussion focused on the instability of the current OUS governance structure, planned revision of IFS by-laws to assert the independence of IFS as a body representing all of Oregon’s higher ed campuses. The Chancellor’s office flagged legislative interest in the granting of dual credit for high school and online courses. HINES proposed that IFS request faculty representation on the statewide STEM Council.

MERCER asked if there was something Senate or IFS might do to recognize the service of former PSU VP for Finance and Administration and departing OUS Chancellor Pernsteiner, who steps down as of March 1. HINES stated that there are plans to invite the Chancellor to an emergency meeting of IFS that has been called for February to be held at the University of Oregon.

DAASCH introduced Kathi Ketcheson, Director of the Office of Institutional Research and Planning (OIRP), to offer background on the question of peer institutions.

Discussion item: Comparator Methodology: Search tools, databases

KETCHESON outlined OIRP’s approach to the question of peer comparisons, citing the work of D. J. Teeter and an article by Weeks, Puckett, and Daron on the process that led to the development of the OUS Peer list in 1998 (see attachment B2). She summarized the purposes that often call comparison data into play (slide 3) and noted that the validity of the comparisons can be called into question by the different strategies that institutions use for reporting their data and factors unique to each institution. The numbers live in a context and the data are influenced by institutional choices at particular times in an institution’s history. KETCHESON went on to describe types of data and peer groupings, and some commonly used sources of data and methods of selecting comparators (slides 5-8). As an example of how researchers’ choices and interests can have an impact on the selection of peers, she noted that in 1998 the OUS Board directed that attention be paid to data from specific states (New York and Wisconsin). In sum, KETCHESON observed that the choice of peers is as much a political process as a statistical one (see slide 10).

LAFFERIERE/FLOWER moved the meeting to a committee of the whole.

HINES/HOLLIDAY moved to return the meeting to regular session.
D. UNFINISHED BUSINESS

None.

E. NEW BUSINESS

1. Curricular Consent Agenda

BROWN/FLOWER MOVED the curricular proposals as listed in “E-1.”

The motion PASSED by unanimous voice vote.

2. Asian Studies Certificate

BURNS/JONES MOVED approval of the Asian Studies Certificate as listed in “E-2.”

CLUCAS asked how new courses could be added to the list of approved courses for the Certificate. CUNLiffe advised speaking with the director of the program.

THE MOTION PASSED by unanimous voice vote.

3. Resolution on Gun Violence.

MEDOVOI/HOLIDAY MOVED approval of the resolution listed in E-3 proposed by the four senators from the School of Education (Burk, Rigelman, Stevens, Smith).

STEVENS provided a handout with background information (B-3, attached).

TRETHEWAY asked for clarification of the term military-style assault weapon used in the resolution. BURK responded that it is an automatic or semi-automatic weapon with a large capacity magazine. DAASCH asked if the intent of the resolution was to use PSU as rallying point for further action. BURK replied that it is the first resolution of its kind from an OUS institution, but that other OUS faculty senates had expressed interest. MCBRIDE asked if there were a plan to move the resolution out to its target audience. BURK said yes, although it remained to be discussed whether the School of Ed or the Senate leadership would provide the agency. LUCKETT affirmed support, but wondered whether the resolution didn’t focus on the wrong issue, since assault weapons account for only a fraction of violent gun deaths. STEVENS stated that the authors recognize that the resolution could be cast more broadly, but it was offered as a first step in support of measures currently under consideration and taken in solidarity with their K-12 partners and colleagues. KENNEDY expressed support for the resolution and asked if concealed weapons were allowed on the PSU campus as a matter for later consideration. DAASCH suggested the question be deferred to legal council David Reese. MERCER argued that whatever way we can lift our voices to counter the sense of a monolithic gun lobby makes this resolution against one of the most egregious instances of gun violence important. CLUCAS added that a door seems to have opened politically and one of the concerns of some Oregon legislators is that too expansive a focus could actually dilute the possibilities for action. BURK agreed, adding that they were not intending to take on the second amendment and that the safety of our students and schools was their primary concern. MEDOVOI noted that the resolution also calls for strengthening background check criteria. DAASCH called for a vote on the resolution as listed in E-3.

THE RESOLUTION PASSED by a majority voice vote. DAASCH said that he would report back on next steps to the Senate

F. QUESTION PERIOD

None.

G. REPORTS FROM OFFICERS OF THE ADMINISTRATION AND COMMITTEES

President’s Report

Commenting on the proceedings, WIEWEL noted that he and many other university presidents had signed a similar anti-gun violence resolution and he reinforced the message that the quality of the data is an important issue for peer comparisons. He reported that for the first time that he could recall, the seven OUS university presidents would meet together on February 6 and then meet with the Governor’s education advisers (Cannon and Donegan) to talk about the whole structure of higher education in the state. He provided updates on university development and issues before the Oregon legislature in the 2013 session, mentioning, in particular, the All Hands Raised project, tuition equity for undocumented youth, and a proposal for a joint board for OHSU and PSU. He invited faculty to attend the March 6 PSU rally day in Salem.

Provost’s Report

ANDREWS pledged that PSU would continue to work for a stable environment for online courses, acknowledging the recent problems with Desire to Learn (d2l) that had had national repercussions. She announced that additional instructions and “Guiding Principles” for the Proposal Review Process for the Provost’s Challenge have been posted: http://www.pdx.edu/oaa/sites/www.pdx.edu.oaa/files/reTHINK_EP.pdf.

Welcoming the opportunity to have a conversation with senators about reTHINK PSU and the proposal review process, ANDREWS stated that there were a range of options, elaborated on the website, for faculty, staff, and students to provide input, in particular, the online Comments option. She reiterated that the Challenge would be awarding funding and support, but would not be making curricular approval decisions that were the prerogative of shared governance.
DAASCH introduced senator Bob Liebman, who had submitted a question to the Provost on the subject of the review process.

LIEBMAN observed that input is most informed when faculty are looking at a finished piece of work and this work was probably not going to be available until the final proposals were due on February 15. He asked why cut off faculty comment on the day of the proposal deadline. LIEBMAN also posted an overhead illustrating email exchanges around his initial question – Will faculty will be part of the selection process for Rethink PSU awards? – which had been answered but raised the concern that many faculty might not feel comfortable giving frank comments online through the ReTHINK website and that there was uncertainty about the role of chairs and deans in the review process, as well as the criteria to be used in evaluation of the proposals.

ANDREWS noted that chairs and deans were encouraged to comment after February 15; though an opportunity for an open input period had not been planned, she added that they could create a space to allow for open further comment. HINES asked if comments made after February 15 would also be taken into account. ANDREWS said yes, but recommended the sooner the better, since the evaluators needed time to read everything. SUKHWANT wondered if faculty required a hi-tech solution to communicate their comments. NEWSOM stated a preference for university-wide commenting, with DAASCH noting that dissemination of comments was then the purpose of a high-tech solution. ANDREWS agreed, stating that she wanted to keep the process as open and transparent as possible. MILER argued that open comments would further stimulate reTHINK PSU conversations. SANTELMANN thought that one powerful advantage of a more public process was that individuals could join with others having similar ideas. ANDREWS expressed appreciation for the comments.

Report of the Vice-President of Research and Strategic Partnerships

FINK reported that RSP is working with OHSU, U of Oregon, and OSU to lobby for upgrades to university information technology infrastructure as part of an effort to plan for the next decade of signature research centers like OTRADI, Oregon BEST, and ONAMI; and that federal Sustainability Center funds have been reallocated for a 1.5 million dollar upgrade of HVAC in the South of Market Eco-district which includes PSU.

Quarterly Report of the Faculty Development Committee

DAASCH accepted the report and thanked Committee members for their work.

DAASCH accepted the report and thanked Committee members for their work.

ADJOURNMENT

The meeting was adjourned at 5:05 pm.
Motions on New Faculty Ranks

An Overview

Revisions to OAR 580-020-0005
(as of 1/12)

- Professorial ranks (Assistant/Associate/Full) defined as tenure-track only
- Senior Instructor, Senior Research Assistant, and Senior Research Associate split into 2 ranks (Senior Instructor I&II, etc.)
- New titles/ranking series added:
  - Lecturer
  - Clinical Professor/Professor of Practice
  - Research Professor
  - Librarian

Process so far

- Correspondence between PSU-AAUP and OUS: Current employees may be grandfathered
- Task Force on New Faculty Ranks (1/12-6/12)
- Recommendations for how to implement OAR, which ranks we will not adopt, which we will adopt and how
- Reports Delivered to Provost and Steering 6/12
- Current motions are initial steps toward implementation
Motion 1

Fixed-term faculty employed at PSU for the academic year ending in June, 2013 at .5 FTE or above who currently hold the ranks of Assistant, Associate, or Full Professor may maintain their current academic ranks and titles.

Motion 2

Paths for Promotion for Fixed-term faculty employed for the academic year ending June 2013 will remain the same:

- FT faculty at the ranks of Senior Instructor, Assistant Professor, or Associate Professor will continue to be eligible for promotion into or within the professorial ranks. Criteria for promotion remain the same as for tenure-track faculty in these ranks.
- FT faculty at the rank of Senior Instructor I may choose to apply for promotion to either Senior Instructor II or Assistant Professor.
- FT faculty in the Professorial Ranks may switch to the Instructor Ranks and be evaluated for promotion based on the criteria for instructors.

Motion 3

Faculty who currently hold the ranks of Senior Instructor, Senior Research Assistant, and Senior Research Associate will be mandatorily reclassified as, respectively, Senior Instructor I, Senior Research Assistant I, and Senior Research Associate I. This reclassification is to leave room for future promotion. No faculty member shall receive a pay cut as a result of reclassification.

Motion 4

PSU will not use the new Title/Rank of Librarian. Library faculty will keep their current ranks, except as adjusted by the previous motions.
Motion 5

- Although OAR 580-020-0005 defines the ranks of Assistant, Associate, Full, and Distinguished Professor as tenure-track only, the terms visiting or adjunct may be added to these ranks for faculty hired on a temporary or part-time basis. Visiting will be used for faculty hired at 0.5 FTE or higher; adjunct will be used for faculty hired at less than 0.5 FTE.
- Visiting faculty appointments shall be non-renewable after a total of two years.

Motion 6

To evaluate further implementation of OAR 280-020-0005, a Faculty Senate task force shall be formed to develop recommendations for crafting and implementing a coherent philosophy and set of policies regarding faculty employment that addresses the profound changes in the makeup of the faculty workforce that have occurred over the last several decades.
Peer Studies

Kathi A. Ketcheson, Ph.D.
Research Professor
Director, Institutional Research and Planning

References

Purposes

- Strategic planning
- Understanding the “competition”
- Benchmarking performance
- Guide for policy development
- Support for financial decisions, including tuition, salaries, or budgets

Cautions

- Concerns about validity, accuracy and reliability always present when doing comparisons.
- Differences in governance structures, political contexts, economic conditions, or demographics of local area should be considered when analyzing the data.
- Institutional data may be influenced by the choices that were made at particular times in an institution’s history.
Types of comparator groups

- Competitor group
- Aspiration group
- Predetermined group:
  - Natural
  - Traditional
  - Jurisdictional
  - Classification-based
- Peer group

Types of data

- Snapshot in time
- Longitudinal
- Quantitative from data bases
- Qualitative from interviews, documents, websites, or reputational sources

Some commonly-used sources

- Integrated Post-secondary Data System (IPEDS)
- College and University Professional Association for Human Resources (CUPA)
- Carnegie Classification of Institutions of Higher Education
- National Center for Educational Statistics, Library Statistics Program

Some methods of selection

- Cluster analysis: formal statistical procedure.
- "Hybrid" approach: statistical algorithms combined with human choices or input.
- Threshold approach: less dependent on algorithms, also includes human choices or input.
- Panel review: data collected informally, heavy reliance on human choices or input.
Choice of methods

• Purpose of comparisons guides choice of appropriate methods of selection and of analysis.
• Political considerations come into play.
• Stakeholders involved in the process.
• Capabilities of those conducting the selection and analysis should be considered.

Things to remember

• Choice of peers or comparators is as much a political process, as a statistical one.
• Purpose of comparison must be clear and agreed upon by all involved.
• External and internal factors surrounding individual institutions have an effect on the data and should be taken into account.
• Method of selection and analysis must fit the question that is being posed.

| Ultimately if this effort is to succeed it's going to require the help of the American people -- it's going to require all of you. If we're going to change things, it's going to take a wave of Americans -- mothers and fathers, daughters and sons, pastors, law enforcement, mental health professionals -- and, yes, gun owners -- standing up and saying “enough” on behalf of our kids. December 19, 2012 | President Barack Obama
| This will not happen unless the American people demand it. If parents and teachers, police officers and pastors, if hunters and sportsmen, if responsible gun owners, if Americans of every background stand up and say, enough; we’ve suffered too much pain and care too much about our children to allow this to continue -- then change will come. That's what it's going to take. January 16, 2013 | President Barack Obama
| We may never know all the reasons why this tragedy happened. We do know that every day since, more Americans have died of gun violence. We know such violence has terrible consequences for our society. And if there is even one thing that we can do to prevent any of these events, we have a deep obligation -- all of us -- to try. December 19, 2012 | President Barack Obama
| While there is no law or set of laws that can prevent every senseless act of violence completely, no piece of legislation that will prevent every tragedy, every act of evil, if there is even one thing we can do to reduce this violence, if there is even one life that can be saved, then we’ve got an obligation to try. • MA/MS in Communication - change to existing program: change core requirements, replaced emphasis area with elective area, changed thesis and project requirements from 6 to 8 credits

• MA in English - change to existing program: change language concerning pre-1900 requirement

E.1.a.3
• MA in Foreign Languages (FL: French, FL: German, FL: Japanese, FL: Spanish) – change degree name to World Language (WL: French, WL: German, WL: Japanese, WL: Spanish)

E.1.a.4
• MA in Foreign Literature and Language – change degree name to World Languages and Literatures

E.1.a.5
• MAT in Foreign Languages (FL: French, FL: German, FL: Japanese, FL: Spanish) – change degree name to World Language (WL: French, WL: German, WL: Japanese, WL: Spanish)

E.1.a.6
• PhD in Applied Physics – change to existing program: change core courses and strand options

E.1.a.7
• MS in Physics – change to existing program: remove comprehensive exam requirement

E.1.a.8
• MA/MS in Speech and Hearing Sciences – change to existing program: change credits for two core courses

New Courses
E1-a

E.1.a.9
- CR 516 Evil and Hate, 4 credits
  Explores the breakdown in dialogue surrounding the stereotyping and dehumanization of those who we view as “evil doers.” Challenges unreflective use the terms, “hatred” and “evil” in political rhetoric, creating a dangerous “us and them” dichotomy, and making reconciliation across cultures and viewpoints nearly impossible.

E.1.a.10
- CR 519 Forgiveness and Atonement, 4 credits
  Explores both the theoretical and practical advantages and difficulties with forgiveness and atonement. Emphasis on how forgiveness and atonement inform conflict resolution practices.

E.1.a.11
- CR 527 Nationalism and Ethnic Conflict, 4 credits

E.1.a.12
- CR 529 European Union as a Peacebuilding System, 4 credits
  Interdisciplinary focus on the European Union as an inter- and trans-national system of conflict resolution and peace building. Examined by contrasting the nationalist conflicts of old Europe to post-war efforts in building a system of peace and security that transcends belligerent ethnocentric nationalism.

E.1.a.13
- ENG 531 Topics in English Studies, 1 credit
  Examines various theories, history, scholarship, pedagogy, and professional development in the field of English Studies. Topics always differ each term. May be repeated for up to six credits.

E.1.a.14
- STAT 580 Nonparametric Methods, 3 credits
  Focus on standard nonparametric methods useful for the analysis of experimental data with minimal model assumptions. Topics include one and two-sample problems, one and two-way analysis of variance, multiple comparisons, rank correlation, estimation and confidence intervals, theory of U-statistics, permutation tests, Bootstrap, Monte Carlo power simulation studies. Prerequisites: Stat 462 or Stat 452/552.

E.1.a.17
- COMM 562 Cognitive and Relational Theories, 4 credits – drop course

E.1.a.18
- COMM 563 Critical and Cultural Theories, 4 credits – drop course

E.1.a.19
• CR 522 Thesis Preparation Seminar, 1 credit – change course title to Thesis and Project Prep Seminar; change course description; change prerequisites
E.1.a.20
• SPHR 566 Motor Speech Disorders, 2 credits – change credit hours from 2 to 4
E.1.a.21
• SPHR 581 Stuttering, 4 credits – change credit hours from 4 to 2

School of Business Administration

New Courses

E.1.a.22
• GSCM (Global Supply Chain Management) prefix – new course prefix
E.1.a.23
• GSCM 511 Principles of Strategic Global Sourcing, 4 credits
  Overview of planning strategies and tactical execution for sustainable operational sourcing in a global environment. Topics to be reviewed include: locating and qualifying international suppliers, the strategies regarding outsourcing / off-shoring, supplier & operational metrics and strategies, establishing and maintaining relationships, e-procurement, new product introduction, and quality systems with selected suppliers.
E.1.a.24
• GSCM 512 Global Managerial and Cost Accounting, 4 credits
  The course covers global managerial & cost accounting issues, and focuses on the use of accounting information within the multinational firm. In addition, the course will consider financial models used in analyzing the economic viability of new products and services. Students will also be exposed to activity based costing, standards and variance analysis, and inventory valuation.
E.1.a.25
• GSCM 513 Principles of Strategic Global Logistics, 4 credits
  This course deals with the development of strategies supply chain management involving the transfer of goods and services across national boundaries. Included are studies of inventory and warehouse planning and control and the principles of transportation. Managing logistics in an international environment will be the primary focus, with special attention given to air, rail, truck, and sea transportation.
E.1.a.26
• GSCM 514 Reverse Logistics and Closed Loop Supply Chain, 4 credits
  The increasing globalization of suppliers and customers has increased concern with the issues of sustainable and responsible management across global supply chains. In this course students will explore the main risks, opportunities and practices we now see in global supply chain management from both conceptual and practical perspectives on sustainable practice. Students in this course will engage in applied studies and learn from academics and practitioners about the current challenges in this critical business arena.
E.1.a.27
• GSCM 515 Global Case Studies in Supply Chain Management, 4 credits
  The final course in the Supply and Logistics Specialization integrates all of the concepts contained within the previous three classes. Global Supply and Logistics planning and strategy development is the primary focus. This is a case study based course where each week students are expected to analyze and prepare supply and logistics cases in an international setting. Emphasis is on developing analytical and problem-solving skills and generating the quantitative and qualitative information necessary to make superior managerial decisions.

E.1.a.28
• GSCM 516 Global Supply Chain Forecasting & Production Planning, 4 credits
  The objective of this course is to familiarize students with the major tools used for manufacturing planning and control. To this end, we will perform an in-depth analysis of integrated operations management systems with emphasis on operations planning and control, material requirements planning, master scheduling, forecasting, capacity planning, just-in-time and related topics. These tools will be covered with more detail than previous SCM courses and we will examine how the various components fit together to form a complete system.

E.1.a.29
• GSCM 517 Supply Chain International Field Study, 4 credits
  Economic globalization can provide enormous strategic benefits (risks) by coordinating operations located in different countries. Today’s producers must coordinate international material flow, produce in multiple countries, and deliver new products to customers at ever increasing speed and on-time. This course will provide students with an “on the ground” opportunity to explore the challenges in globalized operations strategies.

E.1.a.30
• GSCM 518 Global Supply Chain Project Management, 4 credits
  This course emphasizes how to implement a project within the time, cost, scope, and quality success criteria that influence supply chain strategies. The spectrum of project management in supply chain includes the participation in new product development, sourcing of supply, the transformation process, logistics, and planning for the return of materials after the life cycle is complete.

E.1.a.31
• GSCM 519 Global Supply Chain Negotiations, 4 credits
  The purpose of this course is to analyze the negotiation challenges faced by the global supply chain professional. Thus the content is focused on contract negotiation, Uniform Commercial Code, UN Convention on Contracts, and e-procurement. The course will encourage development of these skills experientially by emphasizing relationships and a total cost perspective.

E.1.a.32
• GSCM 520 Global Supply Chain Strategy, 2 credits
  In this course students develop the ability to conceptualize, design, and implement supply chains aligned with product, market, and customer characteristics. Students assess how internet technologies, dynamic markets, and globalization are impacting supply chain strategies and practices, including: logistics, inventory and risk management, procurement and supply contracting, product and process design, and revenue channels.

E.1.a.33
• GSCM 521 Global Information, Systems and Data Analytics, 4 credits
  The premise of this course is that supply chain management must understand and assess the information resources and technologies that underpin the life cycle of goods and services. Information is generated at each stage of the supply chain and crucial to the performance is where and how to store, analyze and act upon its insights.

E.1.a.34
• GSCM 522 Global Leadership & Ethics in Supply Chain Management, 2 credits
This course provides students with a solid understanding of the concepts linking leadership to global and social systems, international organizational development, and the connection between leadership, systems, and global supply chains. Global leadership is studied from four perspectives: the virtual team leading across borders and organizations, ethical and cultural ramifications of leadership, and the ethical traits of global leaders and followership, and your own value system and its place within a global supply chain organization.

E.1.a.35
- GSCM 525 Supply Chain Capstone Consulting Experience, 4 credits
  The course provides students the opportunity to have a significant, hands-on experience that builds upon the foundation of the core of the GSCM program. Students, operating as part of a consulting team, work closely with a client to help to solve a supply chain oriented business problem. The scope of the project is 600 hours of research as a group on the behalf of the client.

Change to Existing Programs

E.1.a.36
- MENG in Electrical and Computer Engineering – terminate degree program

E.1.a.37
- MS in Electrical and Computer Engineering – change to existing program: eliminates comprehensive exam option and adds coursework-only option; adds specialized tracks

E.1.a.38
- MS in Mechanical Engineering – change to existing program: change to departmental omnibus limits

New Courses

E.1.a.39
- ECE 571 Introduction to SystemVerilog for Design and Verification, 4 credits
  Introduction to SystemVerilog: language features to support both design and verification. Good practices for simulation and synthesis, techniques for constructing reusable testbenches. Additional topics may include hardware acceleration and transaction-based verification techniques. Course includes homework and significant final project with presentation. Familiarity with Verilog and finite state machines required. Prerequisites: ECE 351 or equivalent, or permission of instructor.

E.1.a.40
- ME 530/630 Solid Mechanics, 4 credits
  This course provides the knowledge of mechanics, physics, and mathematics that concerns the behavior of solids under external actions including external forces, applied displacements, temperature changes, moisture diffusion, etc. Topics include kinematics of deformation and motion, Lagrangian strain tensor, Cauchy stress tensor, elasticity and plasticity. Prerequisites: undergraduate mechanics and engineering mathematics; ME 313 or equivalent.

RE: Submission of Graduate Council and Undergraduate Curriculum Committee

The following proposals have been approved by the Graduate Council and the Undergraduate Curriculum Committee, and are recommended for approval by the Faculty Senate.

You may read the full text for any course or program proposal by going to the PSU Curriculum Tracking System at http://psucurriculumtracker.pbworks.com and looking in the 2012-13 Comprehensive List of Proposals.

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

New Courses

E.1.b.1

- COMM 429/529 Health Communication Campaigns, 4 credits
  In-depth examination of health communication campaigns that promote behavior change using theories at the individual, interpersonal, small group, and community levels. We will explore the current media environment, in which health communication campaigns can utilize a variety of communication channels including mobile phones, social networks, video games, and entertainment television. Prerequisites: upper-division standing.

E.1.b.2

- JPN 423/523 Modern Japanese Poetry, 4 credits
  An introduction to modern Japanese poetry including new forms (shi) and modern variations on traditional forms (tanka, haiku). Students read poems in Japanese, analyze syntax, learn genre requirements, and understand the history of modern Japanese poetry. Prerequisites: Jpn 416 and 417.

E.1.b.3

- JPN 424/524 Contemporary Japanese Poetry and Pop Culture, 4 credits
  An introduction to contemporary Japanese pop culture including free verse, traditional tanka, song lyrics, and comic books (manga). Students read verse in Japanese, analyze syntax, learn genre requirements, and understand the history of modern Japanese poetry and songs; students analyze sequential-art narratives to understand multiple aspects of Japanese pop culture. Prerequisites: Jpn 416 and 417.
E.1.b.4

- LING 472/572 Teaching Pronunciation, 4 credits
  This is a practical, hands-on course in which students apply phonetics and phonology in the context of language education. While the focus is on teaching English pronunciation, the course includes general theory and applications that are useful for students planning to teach pronunciation of other languages (e.g., Spanish, Chinese). Prerequisites: Ling 390.

E.1.b.5

- LING 473/573 Computer Assisted Language Learning, 4 credits
  Introduction to the use of computers in language learning. Examines the research of the field to inform practical considerations for task design and evaluation. Prerequisites: Ling 477/577.

E.1.b.6

- PH 473/573 Alternative Energies, 4 credits
  Starting with a review of global energy trends, this course will cover the major resources of alternative energies (hydropower, wave, tidal and wind energy, solar energy, nuclear fission and fusion), their characteristics, utilization and technology as well as environmental and public impact. Special attention will be given to photovoltaics and solar cell technology. Market developments will also be analyzed based on simple models. Prerequisites: Ph 213 or Ph 223.

E.1.b.7

- PHL 449/549 Philosophy of Sustainability, 4 credits
  Analysis of the conceptual, ethical, and socio-political dimensions of sustainability. This course will examine the core philosophical issues that arise within the theory and practice of sustainability relevant for three complementary dimensions: environmental, economic, and social. Prerequisites: junior standing.

E.1.b.8

- SOC 427/527 Gender and Work, 4 credits
  Consideration of the theoretical, methodological, and empirical contributions of current scholarship in the area of gender and work. Emphasis on the intersection of gender, sexuality, race/ethnicity, and class. Topics include: inequalities in the labor force, low wage work and poverty, work/family conflict, sex/sexuality in the workplace, and masculinity/femininity at work. Prerequisites: junior standing.

E.1.b.9

- WR 471/571 Publishing Software, 4 credits
  Provides a strong base in the software used in the book publishing industry, focusing on Adobe InDesign. Also explores Adobe Photoshop, Illustrator, and Acrobat, as well as XHTML and e-book design. The class considers audience expectations through a range of hands-on design projects. Prerequisites: Wr 300 or Wr 312 or Wr 313 or Wr 323 or Wr 324 or Wr 327 or Wr 328 or Wr 330 or Wr 333 or Wr 394 or Wr 399.

E.1.b.10

- WR 472/572 Copyediting, 4 credits
  Learn how to improve the clarity, coherency, consistency, and correctness of other people’s writing through application of grammatical and stylistic guidelines. Study grammar, usage, punctuation, and style. Narrow focus on editing at the line and substantive level, with little to no attention given to broad development of a manuscript. Prerequisites: Wr 300 or Wr 312 or Wr 313 or Wr 323 or Wr 324 or Wr 327 or Wr 328 or Wr 330 or Wr 333 or Wr 394 or Wr 399.
E.1.b.11
- WR 473/573 Developmental Editing, 4 credits
  Explores the relationship between an editor, a writer, and the work in the process of developmental editing—also known as global, substantive, or comprehensive editing. Examines historically significant editor/author relations, how the editorial process and relationships have changed over time, and how editorial expectations shift based on the expectations of the publisher, the constantly changing global marketplace, and the introduction of new technologies. Prerequisites: Wr 300 or Wr 312 or Wr 313 or Wr 323 or Wr 324 or Wr 327 or Wr 328 or Wr 330 or Wr 333 or Wr 394 or Wr 399.

E.1.b.12
- WR 474/574 Publishing Studio, 4 credits
  Perform the work of a real publishing house, from acquiring manuscripts to selling books. Gain publishing experience by participating in the various departments of a student-staffed publishing house, Ooligan Press. Departments include Acquisitions, Editing, Design and Sustainable Production, Marketing, External Promotions, Sales, Digital Content, Social Media, and Project Management and Operations. Prerequisites: Wr 300 or Wr 312 or Wr 313 or Wr 323 or Wr 324 or Wr 327 or Wr 328 or Wr 330 or Wr 333 or Wr 394 or Wr 399.

E.1.b.13
- WR 475/575 Publishing Lab, 1 credit
  Perform the work of a real publishing house, from acquiring manuscripts to selling books. Gain publishing experience by participating in the various departments of a student-staffed publishing house, Ooligan Press. Departments include Acquisitions, Editing, Design and Sustainable Production, Marketing, External Promotions, Sales, Digital Content, Social Media, and Project Management and Operations. Prerequisites: Wr 300 or Wr 312 or Wr 313 or Wr 323 or Wr 324 or Wr 327 or Wr 328 or Wr 330 or Wr 333 or Wr 394 or Wr 399.

E.1.b.14
- WR 478/578 Publications Management, 4 credits
  Learn about the traditional business model of book publishing and how that model is changing. Study profit and loss, inventory, negotiation, and other topics fundamental to running a publishing house. Covers both theory and real-world applications. Prerequisites: consent of instructor.

Maseeh College of Engineering and Computer Science

New Courses

E.1.b.25
• CS 480/580 Randomized Algorithms and Probabilistic Analysis, 4/3 credits
  Probabilistic tools used in the design and analysis of modern algorithms and data structures. Topics include: review discrete random, occupancy problems, tail bounds, Markov chains, the probabilistic method, martingales, Monte Carlo methods. The course explores a variety of CS applications. Prerequisites: CS 350, Stats 451.

E.1.b.26
• CS 498/598 Introduction to Wireless Network Protocols, 4/3 credits
  Classification of wireless networking systems; study of multiple access protocols in single hop and multi-hop networks; performance analysis of protocols; overview of emerging radio technologies for high-throughput next generation systems; study of wireless communication protocol standards for cellular systems; case studies of deployed systems. Prerequisites: CS 250 or ECE 271.

E.1.b.27
• ME 438/538 Fundamentals of MEMS and Microsystems, 4 credits
  The underlying principles of physics, mechanics and materials science as they apply to MEMS will be covered and coupled closely with the basic and applied aspects of microsystems engineering. Case studies involving the design, operation, fabrication and packaging of MEMS devices will be presented throughout the class. Prerequisites: senior standing.

E.1.b.28
• ME 460/560 Control of Mechanical Systems Using Microcontrollers Laboratory, 4 credits
  Basic interfacing and programming of microcontrollers for controls applications is introduced. Microcontrollers are interfaced with various external devices and sensors using A/D, D/A, and the SPI bus. Control of a motor driven mechanical device is implemented. A student selected final project involving the control of a physical system is required. Prerequisites: ME 453/553 and ME 454/554 (concurrent).

E1-b.29

- ME 478/578 Introduction to Electronic Packaging, 4 credits
  This course provides a foundation on mechanical and materials aspects of electronic packaging as well as an understanding of the fundamental mechanical principles used in the design of electronic packages, boards, sub-systems, and systems with focus on their integration. Topics include design, properties, materials, interconnections, assembly processes, performance of various packaging systems, thermal management, failure mechanisms and reliability. Prerequisites: ME 313 or equivalent.

College of the Arts

New Courses

E1-b.32

- MUEd 480/580 Kodaly Training: Level I, 5 credits
  A two-week intensive introduction to the Kodaly approach and its applications in the field of Music Education. Students will participate in pedagogy, folk music, musicianship, materials, and choir classes within the course. Prerequisites: junior standing.

E1-b.33

- MUEd 481/581 Kodaly Training: Level II, 5 credits
  A two-week continuation of the Kodaly approach and its applications in the field of Music Education. Students will participate in pedagogy, folk music, musicianship, materials, conducting, and choir classes within the course. Prerequisites: MUEd 480/580 or other Kodaly Level 1 coursework.

E1-b.34

- MUEd 482/582 Kodaly Training: Level III, 5 credits
  The third course in the Kodaly approach and its applications in the field of Music Education. Students will participate in pedagogy, folk music, musicianship, materials, conducting, and choir classes within the course. Prerequisites: MUEd 481/581 or other Kodaly Level II coursework.

College of Urban and Public Affairs

New Courses

E.1.b.38
• PHE 416/516 Families and Aging, 4 credits
  Family ties of middle aged and older adults are explored using a life course perspective. The diversity of family structure and experience is emphasized with attention to gender, race, class, and ethnicity. Life transitions are highlighted as are informal and formal services available to support older adults and their families. Prerequisites: junior standing.

E.1.b.39
• PS 435/535 Disasters and Public Policy, 4 credits
  The political, administrative, and public policy issues surrounding major and catastrophic risks and disasters including both natural (earthquakes, pandemics, asteroids) and man-made (climate change, nuclear weapons, bio-terrorism) events. PS 101, PS 102, or PS 200.

E.1.b.40
• PS 473/573 Government and Politics of Arab North Africa, 4 credits
  Examines the domestic and international politics of Arab North Africa, including Morocco, the Moroccan/Western Sahara, Mauritania, Algeria, Tunisia, Libya, and Egypt. Topics include the history of the region, political regimes and authoritarianism, the Arab spring, women’s rights, and U.S.-Maghrebi relations. Prerequisites: upper-division standing.

College of the Arts

New Courses

E.1.c.1.
- Art 356 Visual Storytelling (4)
  Studio course exploring strategies of representation of stories, characters, and other narrative elements in time-based visual media. Focuses on the use and creation of storyboards, graphic novels, and animation in fiction and non-fiction storytelling. Prerequisites: Art 119 for majors or with permission of the instructor.

E.1.c.2.
- Art 357 Intermediate Video (4)
  Studio course covering intermediate video production skills such as audio recording and sound editing, image compositing, and other relevant technical topics. Includes the study of current trends and theories in video art and experimental media to inform individual creative projects. Prerequisites: Art 119 and Art 257 for majors or permission of instructor.

E.1.c.3.
- Art 370 Topics in Printmaking Techniques (4)
  Adding on to the principles and skill sets first investigated in lower-level printmaking this course explores additional techniques in printmaking. Varying practices, methodologies, and theories will be explored. Topics include but are not limited to etching, relief, mixed media print, screen printing, and mono-print. May be repeated for credit up to a maximum of 12 credits. Prerequisites: Art 270 or 271. Open to non-majors with instructor’s consent or departmental approval.

E.1.c.4.
- Art 387 Intermediate Jewelry and Metalsmithing (4)
  Advanced metalworking techniques (e.g., forming methods) are introduced along with continued development of basic processes. Typical projects include designing and fabricating a series of three theme-related objects. Can include cast elements and incorporation of non-metal materials. Prerequisites: Art 117, Art 287. Open to non-majors with instructor’s consent.
E1-c

E.1.c.5.
• Art 487 Advanced Jewelry and Metalsmithing (4)
  An upper-level light metals course with focus on conceptual development and increasingly specific technical methodology. Builds on skills developed in lower-division courses and refines personal visual language and progression of ideas. Experimental materials and methods are encouraged. Prerequisites: Art 117, Art 287. Open to non-majors with instructor’s consent.

E.1.c.8.
• BA/BS in Supply and Logistics Management – removes three courses as approved electives for the major.

New Courses
E.1.c.9.
• Mktg 463 Service Innovation (4)
  This course is focused on the issues that confront marketing managers as they address the development of innovative services and service-oriented marketing strategies. It will cover new service design and development, standards, strategy, delivery, and service management with special attention to the technology-enablement of service business models. Prerequisites: BA 311.

      Chair, Graduate Council

RE: Submission of Graduate Council for Faculty Senate

The following proposals have been approved by the Graduate Council, and are recommended for approval by the Faculty Senate.

You may read the full text for any course or program proposal by going to the PSU Curriculum Tracking System at http://psucurriculumtracker.pbworks.com and looking in the 2012-13 Comprehensive List of Proposals.

School of Business Administration

New Program
• MS in Global Supply Chain Management (two-page summary attached)

Proposal for the Initiation of a New Instructional Program
Leading to the Masters of Science in Global Supply Chain Management

Summary

The proposed degree program will be a Masters of Science in Global Supply Chain Management.

The program objectives are to prepare students to:
• design and manage an effective and efficient global supply chain,
• understand and apply supply chain analytics,
• conduct demand forecasting, aggregate planning, and sales and operations planning for a supply chain,
• apply project management techniques in a supply chain context,
• understand the implications of supply chain initiatives in terms of key financial performance metrics,
• understand and utilize sustainability-based initiatives, included closed-loop processes, to improve the social and environmental impact of supply chains,
• assess fundamental dimensions of supply chain strategy, social and environmental responsibility, innovation, transformation, and organizational leadership.

The proposed degree will have a total of 52 student credit hours and be completed in two years on a part-time basis. The table below outlines the Year 1 and Year 2 course schedule.
The School of Business has had a highly successful undergraduate major in supply chain management for many years. This proposed Masters builds on the expertise and community connections established through the undergraduate program. Also, because the undergraduate program has been underway for many years, library and department resources relevant to the proposed program are already in place and adequate.

The School of Business has committed funds for marketing and recruitment in the first year. Thereafter, tuition revenue earned through the proposed degree will be able to support marketing and recruitment efforts for the program.

Admitted students will be expected to have a minimum undergraduate or graduate GPA of 3.0 and would be required to submit an application form, three letters of recommendation, transcripts, a resume, two essays, and a standardized test score such as a Graduate Management Aptitude Test (GMAT) or a Graduate Record Exam (GRE). Accepted students will need to meet test score standards similar to that of the School of Business’ Master of Science in Financial Analysis program.

Students will be required to attend a 3-day orientation at the beginning as well as participate in a mid-program international experience. All courses will be offered online, using synchronous and asynchronous course designs.

The proposed program can be initiated with existing faculty. However, the program will be able to fully support the hiring of an additional tenure-track faculty member committed to teaching in this program in its second year.
Motions on PSU Faculty Ranks
March 4, 2013

MOTION 1

 Whereas OAR 580-020-0005 defines the ranks of Tenure-Track and Tenure-Related Faculty as assistant professor, associate professor, [full] professor, and distinguished professor, effectively excluding non-tenure-track faculty from holding these titles, and

 Whereas in a 12/5/2011 memo to PSU-AAUP from Sona Andrews, then Vice Chancellor for Academic Strategies, OUS has provided that “At their discretion, institutions can make the decision to grandfather titles to persons holding a title or rank,”

 PSU Faculty Senate recommends that fixed-term faculty employed at PSU for the academic year ending in June, 2014 at .5 FTE or above who currently hold the ranks of Assistant, Associate, Full, or Distinguished Professor to maintain their current academic ranks and titles in future employment contracts with the university that entail the same job duties they currently perform.

MOTION 2

 PSU Faculty Senate recommends that fixed-term faculty employed at PSU for the academic year ending in June, 2014 at .5 FTE or above who entered into their current employment contracts with the expectation that, if rehired, they would be eligible for promotion to the ranks of Assistant, Associate, Full, or Distinguished Professor, to extend their eligibility for such promotion in the creation of any future employment contracts with PSU.

 1. The criteria for promotion into the ranks of Assistant, Associate, Full, and Distinguished Professor shall continue to be the same for tenure-related and fixed-term faculty, as outlined in the University and State Guidelines for Promotion and Tenure.

 2. Faculty with the rank of Senior Instructor I may choose to be considered for promotion to either Senior Instructor II or Assistant Professor, in accordance with their departmental and university guidelines. Faculty hired within the same time period above who attain the rank of Senior Instructor II will be eligible to be considered for promotion to Assistant Professor and from there through the professorial ranks, again in accordance with previously established guidelines.
MOTION 3

Whereas OAR 580-020-0005, as revised in December, 2011, reorganizes existing faculty ranks according to the following chart:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Before 2012</th>
<th>After 2012</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Senior Instructor</td>
<td>Senior Instructor I</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Senior Instructor II</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Senior Research Assistant</td>
<td>Senior Research Assistant I</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Senior Research Assistant II</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Senior Research Associate</td>
<td>Senior Research Associate I</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Senior Research Associate II</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

PSU Faculty Senate recommends that fixed-term faculty employed at PSU for the academic year ending in June, 2014 at .5 FTE or above who currently hold the ranks of Senior Instructor, Senior Research Assistant, and Senior Research Associate to be mandatorily reclassified as, respectively, Senior Instructor I, Senior Research Assistant I, and Senior Research Associate I. This reclassification is to leave room for future promotion. No faculty member shall receive a pay cut as a result of reclassification.

MOTION 4

PSU Faculty Senate recommends that PSU does not use the new Title/Rank of Librarian. Library faculty will keep their current ranks, except as adjusted by the previous motions.

MOTION 5

PSU Faculty Senate recommends the use of Auxiliary Titles for Visiting and Adjunct Faculty in accordance with the following guidelines:

1. The auxiliary titles visiting or adjunct shall be added to the titles of faculty members hired on a temporary basis.

2. Although OAR 580-020-0005 defines the ranks of Assistant, Associate, Full, and Distinguished Professor as tenure-track only, the terms visiting or adjunct may be added to these ranks for faculty hired on a temporary or part-time basis. Visiting will be used for faculty hired at 0.5 FTE or higher; adjunct will be used for faculty hired at less than 0.5 FTE.

3. The university should prioritize hiring permanent, full-time faculty wherever possible to promote student retention and healthy faculty governance.

4. Visiting faculty appointments should be reserved for those who are truly temporary.
Senate Motion in Support of ASPSU Tuition Equity Resolution

We, the Faculty Senate of Portland State University, support the ASPSU Resolution in support of the passage of Tuition Equity, an Oregon Legislative bill that would grant any student who is raised in Oregon and graduated from an Oregon high school eligibility for in-state tuition at any Oregon public higher education institution, as circulated in the agenda packet for the March 4, 2013 Senate meeting.
TUITION EQUITY RESOLUTION

A resolution supporting the passage of Tuition Equity (TE), an Oregon Legislative bill that would grant any student, who is raised in Oregon and graduated from an Oregon high school, eligibility for instate tuition at any Oregon public higher education institution.

Sponsored By: Directors Mena, Silva-Hernandez, Worth, President Dollar, Senators Hernandez, Foster, and Ramirez.

BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

1. Section I: The Associated Students of Portland State University fully support HB 2787 “Tuition Equity” during the 2013 legislative session.
2. Whereas: Each year 65,000 undocumented students, who have lived in the United States for over five years, graduate from American high schools with no clear pathway to citizenship, employment, or higher education.
3. Whereas: There are no expenditures tied to Tuition Equity, and it has been connected to increased revenues for public higher education institutions and the State of Oregon.
4. Whereas: PSU administration and President Wim Wiewel support the passage of this bill.
5. Whereas: Many other states have seen benefits from passing similar bills including California, Illinois, Kansas, Nebraska, New Mexico, New York, Texas, Utah, and Washington.
6. Whereas: Many Oregon students in and around the Portland Metropolitan area attend our public schools but are discouraged to graduate high school because they do not have a clear path to higher education.
7. Whereas: There are approximately 2 million children born outside of the U.S. that have been raised and educated in the United States, who have no legal status, hold American values, know only the United States as home, and have the same dreams, goals, and aspirations as other American children.
8. Whereas: These children came to the United States due to the action of their parents and did not take part in any decision to circumvent the immigration laws of this country.
9. Whereas: Undocumented immigrants make vital contributions to the economic stability and cultural richness of the United States, yet remain vulnerable to exploitation, victimization and stigmatization as long as they are denied legal immigration status and meaningful access to higher education.
10. Whereas: Tuition Equity is more meaningful with the new order of deferred action from President Obama.
11. Whereas: It is fiscally irresponsible to throw away the state’s k-12 investment in these students, and understanding that tuition equity incentivizes high school graduation: A key part of achieving the Governor’s 40-40-20 plan involves the passage of tuition equity.
12. Therefore be it resolved: That the Associated Students of Portland State University are fully committed to supporting and advocating for the passage of tuition equity during the 2018 legislative session.
Date: February 11, 2013
To: Faculty Senate Steering Committee
Fr: Robert Gould PhD, Chair,
    Educational Policy Committee

The following are this quarter’s Educational Policy Committee activities and decisions:

1. Continued work on PSU Centers and Institutes:
   In the 2011-12 academic year, a concern was raised about how to distinguish the academic status of centers and institutes on campus. To start this investigation, the Provost convened a small task force consisting of two members of EPC, with input from the Senate Steering Committee. The members (Tim Anderson, Steve Harmon, and Mark Sytsma) continue to review a draft list of centers and institutes across campus and report their progress to the Provost, EPC, culminating in a full report to the Faculty Senate spring term.

2. Steve Harmon, EPC member and OAA staff, added Centers and Institutes to the PSU Curriculum Tracking System. This allows EPC and others to track the review of new and changed PSU centers and institutes.

3. EPC continues to help implement the ISt Prefix Policy Clarification that was presented to the Faculty Senate at the December, 2012, meeting. Discussions have centered on the phase-in of these policies for ISt users, including Chiron Studies. Chiron Studies has presented a challenge due to its precarious funding status and loss of an administrative home.

4. EPC determined that the name changes for two PSU centers were minor changes and therefore did not require further faculty governance consideration and forwarded them to the Provost.
   a. The Center for Healthy and Inclusive Parenting in the Graduate School of Education is being renamed the Northwest Early Childhood Center for Education, Research, and Policy.
   b. The Student Center for Dispute Resolution in Graduate Program in Conflict Resolution is being renamed the Conflict Resolution Resource Center.
